the owners and contractors. A big day in

D. P. Corwin, local Secretary of the Pittsburg, Virginia and Charleston Railroad. entered suit against the Howard Plate Glass Company, asking for damages of $40,000. Mr. Corwin explained his cause for action to a DISPATCH reporter. He claims that in 1887 he secured an option upon 30 acres of land at Peter's Creek, Il miles from Pittsburg, at the request of the Howard Plate Glass Com-

AN AGREEMENT MADE.

They then, so he asseverates in his bill of particulars, made a formal agreement to go to Peter's Creek, upon the strength of which he purchased the 30 acres of land and became responsible for the payment therefor. The company subsequently refused to go to Peter's Creek and erected their manufactory at a point six miles closer to the city. The alleged repudiation of the contract was a serious blow to Mr. Corwin, and he was unable to recede from his purchase of the land, where-fore the claim for $40,000 damages.

A SENSATION PROMISED. Mr. Corwin in talking of the suit let drop the statement that he was in possession of a very sensational letter supposed to be from some one connected with the Howard Company. He refused to allow of its publication, and said that although it was a bombshell he would hang on to it until assured that the missive would be allowed in evidence by the

It is understood that the filed answer by the defendants in the suit takes ground diametrically opposed to Mr. Corwin's claims. The outcome of the suit will be curiously watched on account of the sensational phase implied.

YESTERDAY'S CHARTER MOVEMENTS. Cable Traction and Operation, Electricity and Patriotism the Objects. A charter was filed in the Recorder's office yesterday for the Pittsburg, Allegheny and Manchester Traction Company. The corpora-tion is formed for the purpose of constructing and operating of motors, cables and other ma-chinery for the supplying of motive power for MILKSHAKE MARTIN LET OFF.

And the Costs Were Settled Upon the Patriarch of Mr. Washington.

The grand jury yesterday ignored the bill against John A. Martin, charging him with perjury. The costs were put on Captain A. Wishart, the prosecutor. The alleged perjury was that Martin had sworn to have paid a fine and costs to Alderman Schafer when such was A Windfall tor Creditors.

Walter W. Thompson, assignee in bank-ruptcy of William H. Abbott, of Titusville, vesterday obtained an order in the United States District Court to sell real estate. Abbott's estate, it was thought, had all been disposed of, but a short time ago it was discovered that be held a one-fourth interest in a piece of land in Venango county. It was desired to sell this at public sale for the benefit of creditors, and the order was obtained.

Injured by a Collision.

The suit of Daniel F. Murphy against the township of Findley is on trial before Judge Collier. Murphy was driving along a road in the township at night, when he collided with a wagon standing in the road and was severely hurt. He claimed damages on the grounds of negligence on the part of the township officers in allowing a wagon to be left on the read all Wanta $1,000 Damages.

C. E. Cornelius, Esq., entered suit yester-day for W. W. Windsor against Henry Smith for $1,000 damages. The parties own property on West End street, Allegheny, and the claim is that the defendant drained his property so that the water running down the hillside en-tered the prosecutor's property, and thus dam-aged it to the amount claimed.

Criminal Court Grind.

The following were yesterday's Criminal Court findings: Henry E. Stackford, forgery; Joseph Wentzell, inrocny: Eugene Sampson, assault and battery, sentence 60 days to Claremont; Harriet Williams, assault and battery, sentence 18 days to pial. Jack McCurdy is on total for robbing John Riddle of $16.

A Bold, Bad, Black Bevise. Ellen Roach yesterday entered suit against James and Selina Florence for $5,000 damages. She states that they owned a black cow which they allowed to run at large on the public streets in the Thirty-fifth ward. On August 2 the cow attacked her and knocked her down, seriously injuring her.

The Reppert Heirs Case. Yesterday was fixed for a hearing in the Or-phans Court on the pelation of Charles K. Rep-pers, guardian of the children of the late Henry Reppers, for an allowance for the sup-port of the children. The case, however, was postponed, counsel not being reads.

A NE'ERDOWELL HUSBAND

Mrs. Ilg Wants a Divorce, but With All His T. M. Brown, Esq., commissioner in the di-vorce case of Mrs. Leonia Ilg against Martin Ilg, yesterday filed the testimony taken in the suit. The couple were married in 1878, and Ilg deserted his family in 1885. Ilg was in the commission business on the Southside under the firm name of Martin Ilg & Co. It was stated that he was of no account, was lazy and would not tend to business or work.

On one occasion in 1831 when he worked for A.

J. Schulte, the commission merchant, he was detected in embezzling from his employer. He was saved from prison by his wife, who scraped money together and paid back what he had taken. She had to pay it in installments, but managed finally to pay it all. In 1883 lkg disappeared, leaving a letter binding his wife goodby forever. He said that he was no good and she would be better off without him. He bid her bring his son Emil up to fear God, as that was the only way to make him a good man. Had he followed the training given him by his good parents this would never have happened. lazy and would not tend to business or work.

happened.

Airs. Hg now supported herself by keeping a restaurant on the Southside. The witnesses testified that in spite of all she still loved her husband and had had a life-sized picture of him made for her children.

ECHO OF THE WILLEY DISASTER.

Two Injured Workmen Claim Damages From the Owners and Contractors. Thomas McKee and Ernest Rinehart yester-day entered suit for $20,000 damages each against C. L. Willey, John Huckenstein, John Huckenstein, Ir., and Henry Huckenstein. The two men were bricklayers and worked on the Willey building, corner of Wood and Diamond streets, which fell on January 9, 1889. Both were badly, and they state permanently, injured in the wreck. They claim that the building was erected in violation of the building laws, the plan was unsafe and insecure and improper materials were used and there were no proper and sufficient safeguards and precautions for the safety of the men working on the building.

Chat of the Court Corridors. True suit of James H. Conper against the Borough of Braddock, an action for grading, is on trial before Judge Ewing. In the suit of Morris Walsh against Dalsell Bros. & Gilmore, an action on a contract, a ver-dict was rendered yesterday for $300 for the plaintiff. CLEMENT ALLEN yesterday flied in the United States District Court a libel against the steamboat Time. He claims wages and his railroad fare from the place of his discharge to the home port.

In the suit of Susan Forsythe against the McKeesport and Bellevernon Railroad Company for damages for a right of way taken through her property, a verdict was given yes-terday for $412.35.

THE case of F. C. Greinerson against the Chartiers and Robinson Turnpike Road Com-pany is on trial before Judge Stowe. Greinerson claims damages for injuries he received by falling through a defective boardwalk while walking along the road.

A Word About Catarrh.

"It is the mucous membrane, that wonderful semi-fluid envelope surrounding the delicate tis-sues of the air and food passages, that Catarrh makes its stronghold. Once established, it eats into the very vitals, and renders life but a longinto the very vitals, and renders life but a long-drawn breath of misery and disease, dulling the sense of hearing, trammelling the power of speech destroying the faculty of smell, tainting the breath, and killing the refined pleasures of taste. Insidiously, by creeping on from a simple cold in the head, it assaults the membranous lining and eavelops the bones, eating through the delicate coats, and causing inflammation, sloughing and death. Nothing short of total eradication will secure health to the patient, and all alleriatives are simply procrastinated suffereradication will secure health to the patient, and all alleviatives are simply procrastinated sufferings, leading to a fatal termination. END OF SURPRISES DURING THIS FESTIVE HOLIDAY SEASON!

OUR BIG FUR CAP REDUCTION SALE

Will make the "fur fly" around here in a manner that is calculated to fill you with delight and competitors with anguish. We have just placed on sale

1,200 Men's Good College Fur Caps at 69c.

When we cut, we cut deep. These caps are sold all over town at $1 25. We've knifed them to 69c, and, if you're wise, you'll make a bee line for one of them at 900 Men's Oregon Seal Caps at 98c.

They're the same goods (in quality and styles) as are offered in the hat stores at $1 75 and $2. First-class French Seal Caps tumbled down to $1 50, $1 75, $2 and $2 50 at this sale. And all different shapes to choose from at these prices. Men's Genuine Seal Caps at $2 39.

We mean just what we say: Genuine Seal Caps at $2 39. But, we tell you openly, they're pieced. There's many a cheap (?) dealer in this city who lacks the frankness and honesty to tell you about his pieced Seal Caps, but sells them as one-piece caps (and you can't note the difference) at $5 or $6. Come and buy them here at $2 39. EXTRA Fine Alaska, One-piece Seal Caps (and they are one piece, if we say so) down to $6, $8 and $10. Former prices $7 50, $10 and $12. These reductions, however, are not confined to Seal or

Fur Caps, but extend to all kinds of our Men's Winter

Caps. Scotch CAPS Velvet CAPS Chinchilla CAPS

In Windsor, Driving, College, Jockey, Sliding

Band and other Styles. Any of these Caps now go at two-thirds real and regular prices. And what an elegant chance this sale gives you to present some friend or relative with a fine Winter Cap. Don't miss it! Don't! Don't!

A Christmas Drive in Men's Shoes. Hardly credible, but true to the letter! Just think! Men's Genuine French Calf, seamless Dress Shoes, in Button, Lace and Congress, at $2 98. Try to match these Shoes elsewhere for less than $4 50, and you'll be disappointed. Quite recently we had the good fortune of buying these Shoes at a big sacrifice on the part of the maker, and now we turn our good fortune in a sort of a Christmas Gift for you.

And still another: Men's Hand-Made French Calf Boots, tap sole of the celebrated Wm. Richardson manufacture, regular shoe store price $4, reduced to $2 50.

Another lot of Men's Waterproof Rubber Boots at $1 98; the regular price is $3. Be sure and come to-morrow, for Bargains like these won't linger long on our counters.
