SOME HOPEFUL TALK.

Ed. Hanlon Figures on the New Local Team.

GOOD MEN TO PLAY HERE.

Col. Rogers Has His League Case Ready for Next Week.

SULLIVAN'S PRICE COMES DOWN.

Manager Hanlon, of the local club, makes a few very interesting statements about his new team here. Colonel Rogers states that his case against Ewing and Ward will be taken to court next week. Sullivan agrees to fight Jackson at San Francisco within five months for $15,000.

Manager Hanlon, of the local Brotherhood club, talked very freely and interestingly about baseball affairs yesterday afternoon. He did not at all appear to be disheartened or ruffled by the recent Brotherhood desertions. During a conversation with the writer he said:

"These desertions will only purge the Brotherhood of men who would never be safe or reliable, and the organizations that get them are welcome to such unfaithful people. However, our club in this city will not be injured, because we have plenty of good men. I, of course, cannot tell how our team will be made up yet, but at present I know that we will have Dunlap at second, Kuehne at third, myself and probably Manl in the field, with another to get. I had intended to put Miller in the field and get another good catcher, but now we will have to get another fielder and catcher. We will also have to get a first baseman and a shortstop, but, as I have said, they can be had.

SURE OF GOOD PITCHERS.

"We are sure of Galvin, Staley, Morris, and, if necessary, Manl, as pitchers, and I have another good one whose name I am not prepared to mention to-day. I feel certain that Staley will be with us, although it has come to a stage when it is dangerous to believe anything a ball player may say or sign. However, I have confidence in Staley. Altogether, we will have a good team, and we will be on deck."

"Do you think that St. Louis will be admitted to the Brotherhood?"

"I really cannot give an answer to that, because next week's meeting will decide that question, among others. The admission of any club into the Brotherhood circuit will be determined by the votes of the meeting. This being the case, I cannot tell what may be decided. All that I know about St. Louis wanting to be in the Brotherhood League is what I read in THE DISPATCH to-day. There are plenty of cities desiring admission to our League and some good ones at that. I may say that there will be a first-class club at New York, and I am of opinion that if the injunction case goes against the New York club Mr. Day will draw out of the baseball business. He hasn't signed a man yet, and that looks very singular.

HANLON'S SIDE OF IT.

"Let me tell you my side of Miller's case," continued Hanlon. "He states that he could get no money from us to live on. Now, I signed Miller, and when he signed I asked him how much advance money per month he would need. He told me that $50 per month would do. I requested him to take $75 per month, and gave him $100 on November 21, for which I have his receipt. On Wednesday he asked me for $10, and I gave him $20, for which I have no receipt. Now, he told me on Wednesday that I had done more than he desired. However, I won't accept of the money if he offers to return it to me, as it was given him as a guarantee that he would give me certain services in return. If he fails to render those services I will take him to court and charge him with obtaining money under false pretenses. I declare with confidence that Miller will never play in Pittsburg."

Manager Hanlon will leave for New York this evening to attend the new league meeting which commences on Monday. He thinks the meeting will last two or three days.

SCANDRETT'S RETURN.

Secretary Scandrett, of the old club, returned from his Western trip yesterday, and stated that it took him three days to sign Beckley. The latter, Mr. Scandrett says, refused to sign an old League contract for a day or two, as he was expecting the arrival of $300 advance money from Manager Hanlon. The money did not arrive when expected and Beckley, therefore, signed Scandrett's contract. Mr. Hanlon says that the money was telegraphed to Beckley just as soon as his contract arrived here. Mr. Scandrett further states that he thinks Staley will sign an old League contract, and he also feels certain of Carroll. President Nimick and Mr. O'Neill were expecting a dispatch all day yesterday from Carroll, but it never came. There are now strong doubts about Carroll's signing an old League contract for several weeks at least.

SEERY ON THE FENCE.

The Hoosier Fielder Somewhat Afraid of the Brotherhood Desertions.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

INDIANAPOLIS, December 13.—In an interview with Seery, of the Indianapolis League team, to-night, it is noted that he evidently is getting tired of the position that he is in. He signed several weeks ago with the Brotherhood, and says to-night that he feels that the whole combination is slipping apart, and will soon go to pieces, but that he has not made up his mind yet to go back on the Brotherhood, nor does he feel ready at present to sign with Indianapolis.

Thompson was here recently and had several long conferences with President Brush, but nothing definite was arrived at. He lives at Danville, Ind., in the next county, and is expected back here to-morrow or early next week, and it is confidently affirmed that he will sign a League contract.

Brush, it is suspected, is operating for the Philadelphia club, and is doing his best to capture Thompson. It is stated in this connection that Thompson really wants to play with the Indianapolis club, and in case Thompson decides to sign with the League, an effort will be made to give Philadelphia Bassett or some other player equally as good for Thompson. Mr. Brush refuses positively to give any information to-night, but promises something definite within a few days.

THOSE LEAGUE SUITS.

Colonel Rogers Says They Will be Commenced Next Week.

PHILADELPHIA, December 13.—Colonel John I. Rogers walked through Independence square this afternoon with a green bag full of legal documents under his arm. The Colonel had just come from George Tucker Bispham's office in the Bullitt Building, where he had been consulting with Mr. Bispham's about the lawsuit the Philadelphia club is to begin against its players who have signed contracts with the Players' League club.

"We shall begin our suit next week," said Colonel Rogers, "and I have now no doubt of its outcome. We shall probably take action against Buffington, Fogarty, Sanders, Meyers and Hallman."

"How about Thompson and Mulvey? Won't they be required to appear?" "I expect to receive word at almost any time that Sam Thompson has signed to play with us. I don't know about Mulvey." It was subsequently learned that Mulvey was anxious to return to the League club, and that he was seen in close conversation with Detective J. J. Randall, who has been signing players for the Philadelphia club.

Who Are the Pittsburgers?

CONELLSVILLE, PA., December 13.—Two pugilists, said to be from Pittsburg, fought a battle at Lemont, south of here, last night. It is reported to have been a brutal affair and that one of the men was badly beaten. Twelve rounds were fought. The names of the parties could not be ascertained.

Guttenburg Winners.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, December 13.—To-day's races at Guttenburg resulted as follows:

First race, purse $400, beaten horses of all ages, six furlongs—Village Maid first, Grimaldi second, Battersby third. Time, 1:18¾. Betting: Village Maid 10 to 1, 2¾ to 1 place; Grimaldi 2 to 5, no place money; Battersby 12 to 1 and 3 to 1 place.

Second race, all ages, penalties and allowances, six and a half furlongs—Cortland first, Cheney second, Thad Rowe third. Time, 1:23¾. Betting: Cortland 11 to 10, 1 to 3 place; Cheney 3 to 1, 1 to 2 place; Thad Rowe 4 to 1, 2 to 5 place.

Third race, selling, one mile and a sixteenth—Refund first, Count Luna second, Carrie G third. Time, 1:56. Betting: Refund 2 to 1, 7 to 10 place; Count Luna 2 to 1, 7 to 10 place; Carrie G 4 to 1, 7 to 5 place.

Fourth race, all ages, one mile and a furlong—Clay Stockton first, Theodosius second, Glendale third. Time, 2:02. Betting: Clay Stockton 5 to 1, 6 to 5; Theodosius 2 to 1, 1 to 3; Glendale 3 to 1, 1 to 2.

Fifth race, five furlongs—Janet Murray gelding first, Samaria second, Barrientos third. Time, 1:05¾. Betting: Janet Murray 3 to 1; even; Samaria 2 to 1, 4 to 5; Barrientos 5 to 1, 7 to 5.

Sixth race—Printer first, Shotover second, Stanley Sharpe third. Time, 1:52.

Betting for sixth race—Printer, 3 to 1 on; against Shotover, 12 to 5; Stanley Sharpe, 40 to 1.

POOR DILLON'S FATE.

His Friends Don't Know Whether He is Dead or Alive.

NEW YORK, December 13.—The seas have been searched within a radius of 50 miles of New York harbor, and not a trace of Dave Dillon or of his boat, in which he was blown out to sea yesterday, has been found. All day yesterday a number of steam tugs were scouring the bay for the missing boatman. When Dillon disappeared in the southeast it was hoped and thought he would make the Sandy Hook lightship. A tug went out yesterday, and returned with the bad news that the boatman had not been seen by those on the lightship. Dillon's chance of safety in his making either one of the many pilot boats along the coast or one of the many outgoing steamships is the only hope.

Captain Dave Roach, of the Vulcan, who has known Dillon probably longer than any other man in this city, went down the bay early this morning and spoke every one of the incoming steamships and sailing vessels. Not one of them had seen the boatman.

Dillon's friends do not believe that he has been lost. As Captain Roach said to-day:

"Dillon was one of the sturdiest, and in fact the best boatman in these parts. I don't think he has been lost, because we have scoured the bay and ocean for 50 miles and have seen nothing of him, nor did we see the wreck of any small boat. If Dillon was lost during the gale his boat could have been found. If he survived the gale, then, unless he starved to death, he is perfectly safe."

The belief of all his friends is that Dillon was picked up by some outgoing vessel.

Dillon left a family of four children and his wife, all of whom are nearly distracted with grief.

Dillon was married and his wife and four children are in Clifton, S. I. He was one of the most famous boatmen in this city. He formerly lived in Australia, and before the days of Searle he was the champion sculler of that country. He easily defeated Kemp, who was afterward defeated by Searle in a closely contested match. Dillon is said to have sculled in over 100 races and to have been successful in most of them. He was very popular among the Battery boatmen and was the champion Whitehall oarsman. He was 55 years old, and was known as "Australian Dave" among his friends.

HIS STOCK COMING DOWN.

Sullivan Now Agrees to Meet Jackson for $15,000.

BOSTON, December 13.—A meeting between Sullivan and Jackson at the California Athletic Club, within five months, for a purse of $15,000, is now assured. This morning Captain Cook, of this city, received a telegram from President Fulda, of that club, which stated that Jackson, prior to his departure from London, had cabled over his willingness to meet Sullivan, provided that he had five months to get ready in. Fulda requested the Captain to find out from Sullivan whether he would meet the black pugilist in that time for a purse of $15,000.

Sullivan was seen this afternoon, and when matters were explained, he at once accepted the proposition, being, as he said, perfectly satisfied with the terms offered and the time fixed. He will journey to the Pacific coast in a short time and prepare for the meeting there. He is now in fairly good condition. He will leave either to-night or to-morrow for New York to fulfill his engagement there.

Sporting Notes.

CANTON—They are not game in England.

A SUBSCRIBER.—B can correct his mistake.

G. REES—There is no champion sculler of the world at present. Certainly, you win your bet in our opinion.

J. B. GLASSCOCK, a brother of Jack, of Indianapolis, has signed with the St. Paul Western Association team.

W. C. WIKOFF, ex-President of the American Association, is said to be a candidate for the secretaryship of the Brotherhood.

ALL that the public wants, or at least needs, next season—that is, the baseball public—is a first-class club, Brotherhood or otherwise.

SAM DAY will start to try and run 66 miles in ten hours at 10 o'clock this morning at Wood's Run for a bet of $100. The track is about 21 laps to the mile.

SOUTHSIDER—Lack of space prevented an answer sooner. R. Chambers, of England, in defeating G. W. Everson, of Australia, was the first bona fide world's champion.

IF correspondent would direct questions directly relating to the sporting department of this paper to the sporting editor it would prevent much delay in answers.

THE man who challenged a "shake" chicken fight in this paper is requested to write to the following address: J. F. Horton, Box 64, Crothers, Washington county, Pa.

ANSON says: "I never asked Mark Baldwin to sign with me. Yes, I had some talk with him and I advised him to keep aloof from the Brotherhood and not to sign any place until affairs were more settled."

IF the legal contest is not soon settled, the Brotherhood will not be ready to start at the commencement of the season, as none of the capitalists will furnish money for the grounds, until they know what chance they have of getting it returned.—N. Y. Herald.

NED HANLON, JOHNSTOWN.—The battle between Arthur Chambers and James Brady took place in the Midland circuit. The first day it lasted 1 hour and 20 minutes and was stopped by the police. On resumption the next day they fought 1 hour, 55 minutes, making the fight really last 3 hours, 15 minutes. Brady won a good battle.

JACK MCAULIFFE was seen at the Elizabeth race track Thursday afternoon. When spoken to about the possibility of his meeting Jimmy Carroll in California before his retirement from the ring, the lightweight champion said: "I am ready to meet Carroll for $5,000 a side at catch weights, but I positively will not bind myself to weigh 133 pounds."

W. J. R.—Your question has only been here two days and we venture to say no other authority could answer it sooner than we are doing, if it would be answered at all. Interrogators should have patience, as the world and its events are big and numerous. Here is the answer: G. Rowell, a Sheffield handicap winner, defeated E. Scott. A losos, Tom King, the late pugilist, defeated James Percy, of Newcastle, in a scullers' race on the Thames. B loses. Kirup fought a man named Mitcheson for $5 a side, but he never was a first-class man by any means.

WILL MAKE ANOTHER EFFORT.

Thirty-Fourth Ward School Directors Will Essay to End a Deadlock.

The Thirty-fourth ward school directors will meet to-night to make another attempt to drop a member of their corps of teachers.

More than a dozen of meetings were held some time ago for the same purpose, but the board always failed on the point of deciding who should be dropped.

When the parochial school was established in that ward, the attendance at the public school decreased until it is only necessary to have three teachers instead of four, but the question with the board is: "Who shall go?" It seems that all the teachers are very able instructors. It is not likely that there will be anything accomplished at the meeting to-night.

AFTER PROF. M'KEE.

The Father of a Beaten Boy Sues the Colfax School Principal.

Mr. H. R. Rentzel, a former school director in the Twenty-second ward, appeared before Alderman Reilly yesterday and made an information against Prof. David F. McKee for assault and battery.

The prosecutor claims that on November 25 Prof. McKee, the principal of the Colfax school, Twenty-second ward, assaulted his minor son, John Rentzel, 9 years old. The assault consisted of catching him and throwing him in the air, striking him on the head with a book and knocking him down against a desk, bruising his head. A warrant was issued for Prof. McKee's arrest.

Killed a Horse.

A horse valued at $400 and owned by George Schmidt, agent for the St. Louis Brewing Company, dropped dead on Federal street yesterday. It is said that the horse's death was caused by the animal stepping on one of the car tracks, which was heavily charged with electricity.

A GANG OF NINE DESPERATE TRAMPS

Attempt to Kill a Railroad Conductor Who Resisted Them.

A number of persons, several of whom are married, will be admitted to the Economite Society early next year. Those who are married will have to separate from their families and live according to the laws of the peculiar community.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

BEAVER FALLS, December 13.—It is probable that nine persons will be admitted to the Harmony or Economite Society at Economy, Pa., in February at their great annual feast of the Holy Communion. The nine persons have been selected and are at present residents of the Economite community, but not members of the society. Their admittance into the organization will be something very unusual and will be celebrated with great solemnity.

Several of the men selected have families, but as one of the prime and fundamental rules of this strange organization is celibacy the men will have to give up their wives and forever live apart from them if they join the society. At least this has been the rule heretofore when members were taken and doubtless the rule in this case will be strictly adhered to. The society originally consisted of over 700 souls, but it has dwindled down to less than 35. Its wealth is estimated by millions.

INDIGNANT AT THE ACQUITTAL.

Neff May be Forced to Leave This Part of the Country.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

WAYNESBURG, December 13.—A number of citizens held an indignation meeting at Carmichaels this week consequent upon the acquittal of James Neff, who was charged with implication in the murder of William McCausland. This is the first public expression of condemnation of the action of the Washington county jury. Lynching was talked of by some aside from the meeting, and we understand that several persons proposed organizing and proceeding therewith to carry this into execution. The meeting appointed a committee of four persons to secure signatures upon a paper demanding that Neff and a woman of bad character named Emma Wright, with whom he has been living for several years, shall leave the community within ten days after the committee shall give them notice.

The paper was signed by many of the best citizens in Carmichaels, and has since been circulated in the surrounding neighborhood, where other names were added. These men pledge their property in payment of costs in case a suit is brought against any of their number for actions in this matter. A determined class of citizens are proceeding with the movement, and it is likely they will carry out the intention of ridding the community of these two persons. It it hardly likely that serious violence will be permitted, however. Neff lives three miles from Carmichaels, and in the same township. The meeting was held at night.

OVERCOME BY GAS AT READING.

Seven Persons Have a Narrow Escape From a Horrible Death.

READING, December 13.—The inmates of Mrs. Wenrich's house, 1021 Walnut street, had a very narrow escape to-day from suffocation by escaping illuminating gas. Up to 11 A. M. the neighbors noticed that no one was stirring about the house. This was unusual, as the cook was generally up at an early hour. Finally Fred Coonley, a neighbor, was prevailed upon to enter the house. He got on top of an outbuilding and crawled through a second-story window.

Instantly he knew what was wrong. The house was filled to suffocation with gas. He groped his way about, broke open the doors of the bed chambers and aroused the occupants, who were on the verge of death. Miss Nellie Wenrich was found nearly unconscious, and six female boarders were badly affected, but revived after being assisted to the open windows. The gas escaped from a small reception room on the first floor. Miss Wenrich is confined to her bed and quite ill.

A GANG OF TRAMPS

Make an Effort to Murder a Conductor Who Resisted Them.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

CONNELLSVILLE, December 13.—At 2 o'clock this morning a gang of nine tramps were raided in the upper Baltimore and Ohio yards at this place and all were captured. They had been in the boxcar and were making so much noise that Conductor John Wortman and a brakeman warned them away. For an answer the tramps sprang from the car and chased the trainmen, throwing stones and pieces of iron at them.

Wortman was caught and thrown down on the track, his lamp taken from him, and one of the tramps swung it aloft, signaling the engine to run over the conductor, but assistance arrived before this horrible intention could be put into execution.

Bursting of an Emery Wheel.

MEADVILLE, December 17.—Mr. J. O. Barrett, superintendent of the Meadville Vise Company, was terribly injured to-day by the bursting of an emery wheel. The wheel was running at a high rate of speed when it suddenly broke into fragments, one of which struck Barrett on the side of the face, completely crushing his upper and lower jaws. The injury, while not necessarily fatal, is regarded as very serious.

Two Men Quarrel—One Loses a Cane—Both Go to Lgw.

Charles Richards yesterday gave bail for a hearing on Tuesday before Alderman McMasters on charges of felonious assault and larceny, preferred by Antonio Bainta.

In another information Richards charges Bainta with aggravated assault. The suits are the results of an encounter, wherein Bainta alleges that Richards drew a knife intending to wound him. On the other side Richards claims that Bainta hit him with a club. The loss of a walking stick valued at 50 cents constitutes the ground for the charge of larceny.

THE CENTURY MAGAZINE - 1890

THE CENTURY Magazine aims to lead not only in literature and art, but in all the great and stirring questions of modern times. It enters upon the domain of religious, social, educational and political discussion, without partisanship, and in the broadest spirit. THE CENTURY was the pioneer in the field of making magazine illustration equal in quality and interest to the best of magazine literature. With the number for November, 1889, THE CENTURY begins a new volume and enters upon its twentieth year of publication. Its growth has been constant from the beginning, and its success unprecedented among magazines. We can give here only a partial list of the features for the coming year.
