UNCLE SAM'S BIG CHRISTMAS TRADE

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH DISPATCH, TUESDAY, December 17, 1894.

O. K. Ralph, a produce dealer from Ashtabula, O., was in the city yesterday looking after the disposition of three carloads of cabbage, which he had bought at double the prices of two weeks ago and more.

Mr. O. K. Ralph, whose initials are plainly an eye to the character of the goods, as this speaks of the agricultural interests of the Western Reserve.

On our section of the country the fruit crop was almost an entire failure the past season, and in this line our people are mainly dependent on the customers.

Departing from produce lines Mr. Ralph had something of interest to tell of the iron industry which has been phenomenal in development at Ashtabula the past year or two.

At the Pittsburg Custom House on Garrison alley and Penn avenue it was learned to-day that Christmas trade was never better than it has been this season.
