

THE WORLD OF MUSIC.

General Interest Felt in the Dispatch's Agitation for POPULAR SUMMER CONCERTS.

Some Suggestions as to the Methods to be Pursued.

GOSSIP ABOUT OUR LOCAL MUSICIANS

It is gratifying to note the general interest awakened by THE DISPATCH's crusade in favor of utilizing the big, new Exposition building for popular concerts.

And there has been gladly welcomed allies in the crusade. All these lie farther along the straight line of development in these musical departments in which the largest public has the greatest interest.

Indeed, there is pressing need of two new halls, one for the use of the orchestra, the other for the use of the vocalists, and for the use of the orchestra, the other for the use of the vocalists.

What can be done in the mean time to advance the cause of music? The first step, now practicable, is that THE DISPATCH respond to with articles, and to the main Exposition building offers the only place large enough for a vocalists' hall.

THE DISPATCH has been chosen conductor of the Veritas Frobenius and has accepted the post. After waiting as long as they could for Mr. Reese, who was to have come to Pittsburgh to conduct the orchestra.
