OLD TIME AND MODERN PUGILISTS

Before another week passes Christmas Day will have come and gone, and I take this opportunity of wishing all those who read these reviews a merry Christmas and happy New Year.

The Baseball Situation.

It is not unsafe to say that readers of the daily paper, particularly those who take an interest in the news, have been sick of the long stories of the national game, that day in and day out have been appearing in print. All of us have seen columns and columns of the news of the game, and we have read this and that and the other, and we have seen the same old thing over and over again, and we have seen the same old thing over and over again, and we have seen the same old thing over and over again.

The New League Meeting.

The most important event of the week in baseball has been the meeting of the new League, it is necessary that a distinction be made between the new League and the old League, because the latter is made up of capitalists, and the former consists entirely of players. And by the way this ought to be kept in mind by the players, and by the owners, and by the public, and by the press, and by the courts, and by the legislature, and by the executive, and by the judiciary, and by the people.

Will Pittsburg be Dropped?

Despite the very emphatic statements of the officials of the new League, it is believed that the club is here to stay, rumors are still current that such will not be the case. It would seem folly to continue the rumor any longer, because the very nature of the new League is to launch the venture, and if a club has been dropped to make room for St. Louis it will not be Pittsburg. Doubtless many non-enthusiastic would like to see both clubs here, because two clubs would mean cheaper prices. And this point should not be overlooked by those who are going into the baseball business. Prices must come down, and that means a change in the way the game is run. It really cannot be seen how it can result otherwise, because sympathy goes towards the new League.

The Scouting Championship.

We are now right into the midst of a heated controversy regarding the world's scouting championship of the world, and also what is the best way to decide the question. I purposed dealing with this matter last week but lack of space prevented me from doing so. It is an important one to the sporting world, and I venture to say that it will not be definitely settled for a long time to come. The cause of the present situation was one which anyone of us could understand, viz., the death of Henry E. Seale. The young champion died just as his purse was encircled in jail and when he was in the bloom of manhood. And he departed amid his halo of glory just when his disease was least expected. He had barely returned from a journey of victory to the other side of the world, and had carried the grand title back to his native land. There are some who believe that a reduction of price, it will not have been in vain. If prices have to come down so will salaries.

McCallie and Carroll.

After all there is some uncertainty as to whether or not Jack McCallie and J. Carroll will meet in battle. The California Club has fixed the date for the pair to fight at 177 North Broadway, Lexington, on Monday, December 23, at 10 o'clock. This fight is being postponed until March 1. This demand is made because, it is claimed, McCallie has injured his arm. This may be true, but it would not surprise me to find that McCallie had faked an injury to take place on the Thames. Edward J. in that regard the contestants would have to wait two or three days to see the contest. Mr. Thayer of Boston, has come to the front with an offer of $5,000 for a regular fight at the above place. It seems to be the widespread notion, except here in Lexington, that no one is doing this or that anybody next spring. Now both the plans suggested or supported by Teemer and Hanlan have been proven to be false. It is only a matter of time before the public will be convinced that the whole thing is a hoax. The public will be convinced that the whole thing is a hoax. The public will be convinced that the whole thing is a hoax.

Brotherhood Magnates.

They Visit Pittsburg and Talk of Their Good Prospects. Vice President Addison and Fred Pfeiffer, of the new baseball League, arrived in Lexington yesterday to confer with the officials of the new local club. The conference was held in the Mayor's office. The chief object of the visit was to discuss the situation and to introduce Mr. Addison to the Pittsburg officials. During the conference the visitors reviewed the local officials and the situation of the new League. Addison is a well-known figure in the baseball world, and his visit to Lexington is a sign of the new League's interest in the city.

Gaudin's Head From.

He Disputes Teemer's Claim to Rule for the Championship. ST. LOUIS, December 21.—Jack Gaudin, the owner of the new baseball League, is disputing the claim of William Teemer to rule for the championship. Gaudin claims that he is the rightful owner of the League, and that Teemer has no right to claim the title. The dispute is a heated one, and it is expected that it will continue for some time. Gaudin is a well-known figure in the baseball world, and his claim to the title is a serious one.
