

PORTER UNDER FIRE.

The Testimony in the Boodle Case Grows Monotonous. BY THE SAMENESS OF THE CHARGES. Some Christmas Divorces Ground Out as Probable Gifts.

HON. A. C. ROBERTSON TURNED DOWN.

Colonel Schoenmaker Seeking Legal Redress for Ill-Will Lake Grove Express.

A large amount of testimony adduced in the Porter case. It is so monotonous as to be tedious. A stubborn examiner created a rising legislative lawyer. A large amount of small legal matters.

The trial of Alderman Porter and Constable Packer, Sheppard and Garney was continued before Judge Steele yesterday.

Jennie Rodgers, of 100 Second avenue, was prosecuted by Alderman Porter. Her case was dismissed. She paid $35 through a friend named Charles Schloss.

Catherine Cordell and Mrs. Harris, of Second avenue, were prosecuted and paid $15 each to have their case settled.

Leda Curry had been prosecuted before Alderman Porter for fortune telling. The Alderman first told her that Coroner McDowell was the prosecutor and afterward told her it was Hugh Daly. Her case was dismissed for lack of evidence. She paid some money through her attorney.

Margaret Clinton, of Penn avenue; Michael Spence, Lottie Brown and Clara Meyers all testified that they had been prosecuted before Alderman Porter, and their cases were either settled or discharged on the payment of money.

BEFORE THE GRAND JURY. Sarah McNulty, of Fifth street, testified that she was prosecuted for selling liquor without a license, and that she was sent to jail, but was afterward released. Her sister had been arrested by Constable Packer and her case afterward adjudged that her case was passed on by the grand jury.

Mary Kirk, a sister of the above witness, corroborated her sister's testimony and said that the "Bogue" advised her not to tell the neighbors how the case had been settled.

John J. Carney, constable of the Sixth ward, had acted for Mr. Crown in the Bruce case. He got Minnie Liebman to withdraw her accusations and she paid the costs to the Alderman. He would not take the money from anybody else.

LATE NEWS IN BRIEF. Emma Lee and Miss Campbell had both been prosecuted and their cases had been settled by their attorney, Mr. Jordan, to whom they had paid money.

MARRIED VERY OFTEN. On cross-examination by Mr. Marshall, who asked Mrs. Campbell whether she was married or single, the witness replied: "I have been married so often that I don't know what it is but to be married."

W. J. Jordan, Esq., testified that he acted for Theres Lee, and that J. D. Bander was the prosecutor in the case. He was paid $100 for the suit and the costs were paid to the Alderman. The witness also testified that he had been prosecuted by the Alderman for fortune telling.

CHRISTMAS DIVORCES GRANTED. A few ill-mated couples set at liberty in the holidays. Judge White yesterday refused a divorce in the case of John Kenna against Jennie Kenna.

ANDY WAS TURNED DOWN. The report of the Register in bankruptcy in the suit of Carter and Banno, was filed yesterday in the United States District Court. The application of Mr. Baum for compensation was disallowed by the Register.

CHIEF OF THE COURT CRITICISMS. Judge Collier's bench of the Criminal Court yesterday, Mr. Prior, charged with forgery by M. D. Matthews, was acquitted, but ordered to pay the costs. John J. Kennedy was convicted of the larceny of some jewelry from J. Knack.

CHURCH PLEAS. COURTS Nos. 1 and 2 and Judge Collier's bench of the Criminal Court yesterday adjourned on Monday. Judge Collier will continue until the finish of the trial of Alderman Porter and his associates. All the courts and offices will be closed today.

AN ORDER WAS MADE BY THE COURT yesterday directing the Fidelity Title and Trust Company, assignees of the Lawrence bank, to turn over the $75,000 worth of school bonds of the Lawrence bank to Secretary T. C. Graham of the School Board. The bonds had been placed in the bank for safe keeping by President Young, who was Treasurer of the School Board, and their return was petitioned for by Mr. Graham.

FASHIONABLE CLOTHING IS DIFFICULT to obtain. That is, clothing advertised as fashionable proves to be inferior cut and appearance, and buyers are not pleased with it after careful examination. Brokaw Bros., New York, has a number of styles of dresses, and however, the same of stylishness and fine appearance, and purchasers are always pleased. A. L. Sailor, Sole Agent, Sixth st., cor. Liberty.

TO ACCOMPANIE. Their friends (the public), Hendricks & Co., 68 Federal st., Allegheny, will have their photograph gallery open all day Christmas.

FRAGENHEIM & VILSACK'S ale and porter are superior beverages. Call for them. All dealers keep them. Or order direct. Phone 1188.

D. LUTZ & SON'S ale and porter are reasonable and healthful beverages for this time of year. Office and brewery, Spring Garden ave., cor. Chestnut st.

NO CRONIN JURY BRIBERY.

Why John Graham's Attorney Thinks No Case Can be Maintained—Will the Supreme Court Reverse the Recent Verdict? CHICAGO, December 24.—A. S. Trade is of the opinion that the State will be unable to maintain its charge against John Graham, of attempting to bribe the Cronin jury. He is attorney for Graham, and contrary to the usual custom, fully outlined the theory of the defense in the Evening Journal.

"When the Cronin trial began," said he, "it was, of course, seen to be a very important case. The lives of five men were in jeopardy. Consequently a juror susceptible of purchase would be a valuable commodity. Well, this fact was appreciated by the man who subsequently was the first to squall, Solomon, a Hebrew bullfinch. His man, seeing a fortune in the air, began at once the formation of jury trust, of which he made himself President, Secretary, Treasurer and Board of Directors."

This trust was to get a man upon whom it could depend on the jury and then open negotiations with a man who, for some strange reason, was supposed to have a vital interest in the whole affair and to sell this trust for in him for a big consideration.

"With this idea, the Pook Bah of the trust went to work. Several men who were supposed to have intimate relations with the man who, as I said, was in some strange way thought to have a vital interest in the whole affair were approached. With none was the envoy of the trust successful, and the man who was thought to be the man to be on intimate terms with this man. But they found that wouldn't work either. John Graham had nothing to do with the case. It was perfectly willing to waive the formation of a jury and be tried before the judge alone, so confident is he of the outcome."

Attorney Brown, who has charge of the case of Frank Woodruff, has created a sensation by claiming to be in possession of a legal point that will secure for the Supreme Court of the recent verdict in the Cronin case. It is a discovery of a precedent which will compel the Supreme Court to render a decision favorable to Woodruff in his petition for release under the writ of habeas corpus.

The fugitive at last located. Notwithstanding the indictments, Major Burke remained in London, organizing and floating his Central American Mining Company, and seemed to occupy a high position in financial circles there. In the meantime the State authorities of Louisiana applied to the Secretary of State for extradition papers against Burke. There was some little hitch over these, and a consequent delay. When it was announced that the papers were granted, and were likely to be, Burke received to-day by a banker of this city. He was reported to be in Belgium, in Spain, in Africa and in half a dozen other countries.

The Louisiana authorities announced that they would pursue him wherever he went, but no one, not even his closest friends, knew his true whereabouts. The following letter, written to-day by a banker of this city from an official of Honduras at Puerto Cortes in that country unveils the mystery:

Puerto Cortes, December 17. Burke has arrived in San Carlos, the capital of Honduras, and is there now. He came by the Hamburg line to San Carlos, from there to Colon, thence to Panama and so on to Amalapa, on the Pacific coast of Honduras. It is said he has $25,000 or $30,000 with him, and that he is going to his mine.

It seems from this that Burke has run the gauntlet safely, and escaped the Louisiana authorities and all extradition papers. There is no extradition treaty with Honduras, and he cannot be touched there. Moreover, he is a close personal friend of President Bogran, whom he has visited here, and will be protected by him. He has built several public halls there, and promised to establish a technical and mechanical school and make a number of other improvements. As he is very well provided with money and backed by a number of big English capitalists, and as his connection is reported to be very valuable in the matter of the fisheries which exist in Central America, like Meigs and Winslow in South America.

ALL SIXTEEN SURELY DEAD. No Hope for the Rescue of the Imprisoned Californians. ST. ANDREAS, CAL., December 24.—There is no hope of rescuing the 16 miners who were buried by the cave-in in the Utah mine at Angels on Sunday. Working parties have found two dead bodies, but will not be able to reach them until to-morrow, and it is feared they will not be able to reach any of the other victims for several weeks. It is held that all of the 16 men were crushed to death by falling rock.

Three of the victims, Thomas Knuckly, George Williams and J. Brady, leave wives and children. The names of the others are: Knick Enoch, B. Segale, Peter Perino, C. Berio, Paul Oswolich, John Biololetto, John Tobooc, C. A. Follard, Joseph Curran, John Martin, Mitchell Broadwick, James Casey and William Vincent.

WILLING TO PLEAD GUILTY. A Man With Many Alliances Who Will Accept No Defense. NEW YORK, December 24.—A warrant was issued to-day for George E. Collins, alias John Jones, who constituted the firm of Billings, Camp & Co., the National Bargain Emporium, on the 23rd inst., before Commissioner Shields this afternoon. He waived examination and was committed to Ludlow Street Jail in default of $5,000 to await the action of the Federal grand jury. Collins says he will plead guilty to any indictment and throw himself on the mercy of the court.

BURKE AND HIS BOOTY.

Both Safe in Honduras, Where the Ex-Treasurer of Louisiana IS LIKELY TO BECOME PROMINENT. After running the Gauntlet Successfully, He Still Has Left OVER $250,000 IN READY MONEY. To Invest in Mines and to Endow Schools and Other Institutions.

Major Burke, who ran away with several hundred thousands of dollars belonging to Louisiana, is in Honduras. He has plenty of money, and is likely to have a chance to spend it there, so Honduras is pleased. He cannot be brought back, as there is no extradition treaty with that country.

At the time of the indictments, Major Burke was in London, negotiating for the sale of the missing property in Honduras, and seemed to occupy a high position in financial circles there. In the meantime the State authorities of Louisiana applied to the Secretary of State for extradition papers against Burke. There was some little hitch over these, and a consequent delay. When it was announced that the papers were granted, and were likely to be, Burke received to-day by a banker of this city. Scaly Skin Diseases. Painless 5 years, covering face, head and entire body with white scabs. Skin red, itchy and bleeding. Hair all gone. Spend hundreds of dollars. Proven and incurable. Cured by Cuticura.

My disease (psoriasis) first broke out on my left cheek, spreading across my eye and across my forehead. I rubbed all over my face and my hair all fell out, until I was entirely bald-headed. It then spread on my arms and shoulders, until my arms were just one mass. It covered my entire body, my face, head and shoulders being the worst. The white scabs fell constantly from my head, and I was obliged to wear a wig. I was cured by two bottles of CUTICURA. I could see a change and after I had taken four bottles I was almost cured, and when I had used six bottles CUTICURA I was cured. I had used six bottles of CUTICURA and one box of CUTICURA and one box of CUTICURA. I was cured of the dreadful disease from which I had suffered for five years. I thought the disease would have been a very deep one, but the CUTICURA REMEDY cured it. They saved my life, and I feel under a duty to recommend them. My hair is restored as usual. I have not used any other medicine since I used CUTICURA. I have used a number of different persons who have used the CUTICURA REMEDY, and all of them have benefited from their use. MRS. KAUFMANN'S DAILY CARD OF REASON. December 25, 1890. "Once again the Holy season, With its solemn joy, is here, When we turn to greet each other, With brave words of hope and cheer. And a kindly 'May God bless you,' O'er the threshold of the year."—Burnside.

OUR BEST WISHES. A MERRY CHRISTMAS. A HAPPY NEW YEAR. to our thousands of friends and patrons, which, of course, means the entire population of these great cities and surrounding towns, is our public message to-day. Not only our wishes, however, but our sincere thanks we hereby render to all the people for the generous and ever growing bestowal of their valued patronage.

Our Holiday season has been a glorious triumph. Never before has old Santa Claus been as good and liberal. We've sold enough gifts during the past two weeks to make the whole town one picture of happiness. And they were no trashy gifts, either, but useful and substantial articles. This is as it should be. Of course, our greatly reduced Holiday sale prices have been the means that enabled many a man or woman to buy for a most trifling outlay of cash a very handsome present.

Thus our own efforts, coupled with public co-operation, will be the source of the happiness of countless thousands to-day. But the end is not yet. New Year's, the day for reciprocity presents, is not far off. The recipients on Christmas will be the donors on New Year's. If you belong to this class, remember that, for your special benefit, our Great Holiday Sale will continue until the last day of the old year. This will give you ample time and opportunity to repay the kindness and good will of your generous friends.

FOR THE ACCOMMODATION of eleventh hour Christmas shoppers our store will be OPEN TO-DAY TILL NOON. (Will close at 12 o'clock, sharp.)

KAUFMANN'S, Fifth Avenue and Smithfield Street. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL. THE BEAUTIFUL GIFTS with which we have surprised our customers this week will be distributed till 12 o'clock (noon) to-day.
