

THE VALLEY ROAD TO BUILD ONE ON PIKE STREET. AN ACRE OF LAND BOUGHT. Remarkable Increase in the Line's Traffic Last Year.

THE ALLEGHENY VALLEY RAILROAD COMPANY HAS PURCHASED THE PROPERTY LYING BETWEEN ELEVENTH AND TWELFTH STREETS, ON PENN AVENUE.

The Allegheny Valley Railroad Company has purchased the property lying between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, on Penn avenue. For several years past the company has been on the alert to buy any property that was offered for sale, or could be bought in this square.

With the property that the Valley people have acquired by the purchase of the square, the company intends to tear down the houses, and utilize the ground for a freight depot and yard facilities.

The property which the Valley purchased between Eleventh and Twelfth streets is worth $100,000. The cost of building a freight depot, which will contain every commodity for the various goods which leave Pittsburgh for northern points and the laying of tracks, will approximate $150,000 more.
