The Famous Artificial Water-Ways of the World Reviewed.

OF GREAT VALUE TO COMMERCE.

A System of Transportation Dating Back to Pre-Historic Times.

HOW GEOGRAPHY IS MADE TO ORDER.

As we live in an age of steam, it is not surprising that we should be so much interested in the progress of the world's great water-ways...

One magnificent illustration. As an illustration of the extent of skill reached, it is necessary to mention the work of the great canal-builders...

And why should they not? From the earliest ages up to the present time the science of constructing water-ways to suit the needs of the progressive human race has been going on steadily...

Canal Aqueduct, Irtwell, England. The largest canal in Europe is the Great Ouse Canal, which was completed in 1825. It has a breadth of 120 feet at the water surface...

A WONDERFUL MIRACULOUS HERE. In the United States the artificial water-way has been brought to a high standard. There are nearly, or more than, 5,000 miles of canals...

OLD CANALS OF AMERICA. Even in America, to whose pre-historic people it is as yet impossible to give a satisfactory account of the progress of the many constructions discovered...

THE ANCIENT EGYPTIAN ONE. It is known that in ancient times a canal connecting the two seas named above was in existence. When, how or by whom it was constructed is not known...

THE WAY CLEAR FOR DE LESSEPS. However, as early as the first of the present century the possibility of utilizing the ancient canal attracted the attention of experts...

RIVAL CLAIMANTS AS ORIGINATORS. Both the Italians and Scotch claim the merit of the invention, and while to neither can the credit be given exclusively...

AN EXPLICIT DENIAL.

Of the Report that the Imperial Property was Confiscated.

BRAZIL NOT IN THAT BUSINESS.

The New Republic Gaining in the Affections of the People.

LAST WORDS OF THE EXILED EMPRESS.

WASHINGTON, December 29.—The following telegram, received this morning by Mr. Valente, the Brazilian Minister, from Mr. Ruy Barbosa, the Minister of Finance, shows to be untrue the statements repeatedly made that the provisional Government of Brazil had confiscated property belonging to the Emperor.

ALL PROPERTY SAFE. Mr. Valente said that the Government had taken great precaution to insure the safety of everything belonging to the imperial family. A careful inventory had been taken...

NOTHING COMPULSORY. There was nothing compulsory about it. The Government supposed it was conferring a favor on the Emperor's family, and it was not intended to follow their own inclinations...

ALAS, BRAZIL, BRAZIL! The Last Words Uttered by the Banished and Dying Empress. OPORTO, December 28.—Dom Pedro has received many telegrams of condolence on the death of his wife, the Empress, from one of Queen Victoria. When it became evident the end was rapidly approaching, the ex-empress was advised to summon a confessor...

A HUNGARIAN FIGHT. Terrible Combat With Whisky Bottles. Between two brothers-in-law. Officer John Snyder was on hand yesterday afternoon just in time to prevent what might have been a murder. Michael Bloek and John Schmidt are two Hungarian brothers-in-law, the first named living on Jones avenue and the other on Sixteenth street...

FOUND FROZEN IN THE ICE. A Woman Suffered Because She Was Swindled Out of $1,000. LAWRENCE, Mass., December 29.—About noon today the body of Miss Sarah F. Nichols was found frozen in the ice of the Merrimack river, about a mile above the upper bridge. The body was drawn ashore by the police. Miss Nichols disappeared from Lowell Christmas Eve. She resided in Belvidere and was recently swindled out of $1,000 by Charles Metcalf. This caused despondency and led her to suicide.

ROBERT GARRETT'S HEALTH. His Friends Alarmed by Recent Reports of His Condition. BALTIMORE, December 29.—Mr. Robert Garrett is in very poor health. At times he is very much depressed and occasionally becomes very excited. He is still at his country home, "Uplands," near Calonsville, Md. His friends have not been encouraged by reports from his physicians, especially as he has been unwell of and on for more than two years.

CRUSHED BETWEEN BARGES. A Laborer on the Steamboat Sam Brown was Crushed Between Barges. Daniel Moody, a laborer, employed on the steamboat Sam Brown, was brought to the Mercy Hospital yesterday, suffering from three broken ribs and internal injuries. He was lying up a pair of barges at Lock No. 2, when he fell down between them, getting badly squeezed. His recovery is doubtful. Moody is 30 years old, single and lives at Wheeling.

Not Successful Revolution. CITY OF MEXICO, December 29.—Telegrams from the Republic of San Salvador received here today state that the revolutionists in the department of Guatemalan are retreating before the Government troops sent against them, and that the revolution is of no importance.

To Dispel Clouds. Headaches and fevers, to cleanse the system effectively, yet gently, when constive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to purify the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without the use of any cathartic, use Syrup of Figs.

A FATHER'S REVENGE.

He Attempts to Shoot a Prisoner Who Had Attacked His Daughter—Parole New Object for a Killing.

BRAXTON, Ind., December 29.—James Dahlgren, a prisoner in jail here, charged with forgery, had a narrow escape yesterday afternoon from being shot by the angry father of a girl he attacked some weeks ago, and to-night extra guards are on duty at the prison during a lynching party in town. During the past month his wife and daughter have been attempted or committed in the neighborhood of Coal City. Several of these crimes had been kept secret by the parents or other relatives of the women and girls interested, all parties being desirous of concealing their names.
