successes to our eventful career. We have brought thousands of new recruits under our glorious banner of economy and reliability, and the recent enlargement of our building makes ours not only the leading, handsomest and most centrally located, but also the largest Outfitting Establishment in Western Pennsylvania.

THE NEW YEAR opens most auspiciously for us.

Enjoying better facilities than ever for catering to our large and critical clientele, we shall be prepared to carry on our vast business on even smaller margin than before, and thus not only continue to undersell all competitors, but undersell them to a greater extent than heretofore.

WE SHALL continue our "Daily Card of Reason" during the ensuing year and invite a careful perusal of the same by all thinking newspaper readers, feeling confident that they will but serve their own interests in accepting this invitation.

And, now, we shall conclude by wishing one, all and everybody

and many returns of the day.
