INTERESTING BASEBALL NEWS

The New York police authorities have rived here to-day, from Williamsburg, Kan., where, for three days past, he has been trying to sign Charley Bennett, Boston's great catcher, for the Boston Players' League team.

"Bennett has had several letters from John Clarkson who is doing all in his power to induce his aid catcher to break his pledge to the player. The Boston League people are equally anxio is to secure Bennett, and have made him an offer of a heavy bonus—a large increase in salary—but they won't get him."

the Pittsburg Brotherhood club. The conference was of a pleasant nature and while Gumbert did not sign at once he talked so satisfactorily that Manager Hanlon is confident that the East Ender will be a colleague of Galvin and Staley.

Manager Hanlon also had a conference with Catcher Quinn, of Braddock. Quinn has signed a contract to play with the Brocklyn Brotherhood club, but Mr. Hanlon has been in communication with John M. Ward regarding Quinn, and as a result Mr. Ward states that if the Braddock player is willing he can play with Pittsburg and he can have his release from Brocklyn. Quinn is willing to do this and it is certain that he will play here. Manager Hanlon expects to make a star battery of him and Gumbert.

Many at first awowed they would open for business to-day in spite of Superintendent Murray, but the "players" could not find one place doing business when they went around to invest their money on a favorite horse.

Since Judge Gildersleeve's decision last spring against the poolseliers, they have been doing a sly but profitable business. This is the first time since then that there has been a general closing up of these "banking houses," as the proprietors sometimes smilingly callithem.

A sporting man who "plays the hosses" regularly was met in front of a poolitoom on Park Row this noon. The door was firmly fastened, and knocks and kicks were unavalling. As the disappointed sport walked away disgusted, he muttered that it was all a bluff on the police to chiain more money from the bookmakers for protection.

Foreing Notes.

It has come out in a London law court that Ernest Benzon, the "Jubilee plunger," did not even write the book entirled "How I Lost £250,000 in Two Years," which is simply a narrative of his own folly, but he took great pride in being credited with its authorship. The gentleman who really wrote the book testified in substance that "Jubilee" was too lazy even to tall the story of his idiotic career. to tell the story of his idiotic career.

A Good Purse Offered.

A telegram was received in this city yesterday to the effect that the new athletic club at Now Orleans had agreed to offer a purse of $550 to McBride and O'Leary if they will fight their battle at the club named. The two pugilists are to fight within six weeks at 122 pounds to a finish for $500 a side, and John Quinn, of this city, is interested in McBride.

The latter is willing to accept the club's offer, and it is expected that O'Leary will also be willing. The purse and stakes will aggregate $1,150, and the winner will receive about $1,000 the total amount. Jack Fogarty is training McBride.

McBride.

He Wants Compensation.

Speaking of whether or not he will play in Pittsburg Ad. Gumbert said yesterday: "Personally I don't want to play in Pittsburg. I would rather play in Chicago, because when a player is in his own city all his little shortcomings or mistakes are criticised to an extraordinary extent. People really think they have a right to reast a bome man at any stage. However, if terms satisfactory to me are offered I may play in Pittsburg."

It may be remarked that Galvin is a "home man," and he secures as fair treatment from Pittsburgers as any player in the profession.

The Ripper is Wanted.

Parties interested in the local fighting dog Sullivan called at this office yesterday and stated that the dog can be matched at once to fight Jack the Ripper, the Woods' Run dog, for $300 or $500 a side. A forfeit of $25 to make the match was left at this office, The supporters of the first-named dog want a match made at once, or desire to hear no more about the Ripper.

The County League.

The annual meeting of the Allegheny County Baseball League will be held at Al Pratt's store, Wood street, next Wednesday evening, to square up accounts and elect officers for the next 12 months. An effort will be made to have the Our Boys Club, of the Southside, become a member of the League. The East End Athletics will be made up almost the same as last year.

INFECIAL TRIEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.!

NEW YORE, January 3.—Pool selling on the races received a check last night when Superintendent Murray notified the proprietors of the poolrooms that they must close their establishments to-day or suffer the penalty. This edict caused much consternation among the 30 odd pool sellers who have their headquarters below Chambers street. ### FARMERS LOSE THEIR RIGHTS.

Handreds of Oil Leases Surrendered Owing to a Misunderstanding. [SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] BUTLER, December 3.—The Supreme Court's recent decision in a case appealed from Washington county, involving the validity of an oil lease, is creating a great deal of discussion in oil circles here, as it gives life to leases supposed to have been long since dead. The usual forfeiture clause is to the effect that if drilling is not commenced at the time specified or rentals paid when due, the lease is null and void, and not binding on either party. In the case referred to the lessor refused to accept non-payment as a forfeiture of the agreement, and brought suit to recover the rental. The Supreme Court holds that this clause is for the sole benefit of the lessor; that he can, on the failure of the lessor to overly with the conditions of the agree. reasor; that he can, on the failure of the lessee to comply with the conditions of the agreement, either declare the lease void or collect the rentals for the term of years named in the agreement, but the lessee cannot take advantage of his own negligence to declare the lease forfeited.

Hundreds of old leases are being returned to landowers in this county, and receipts taken for the same. The farmers generally did not know their rights under the decision, and supposing the leases to be no longer in force, accepted them in nearly every instance. A new form of agreement is being used by operators to avoid this difficulty. In it the lessee binds himself to cancel the contract on the surrender of the lesse, asthis seems to be the only means left by which the lessee can conclude the con-tract.

WHAT THE STRIKERS SAY.

A Committee of the Men Make a Statement of the Matter. A committee of the strikers called at THE DISPATCH office yesterday. They stated that they were not engaged in a losing fight and the chances of their winning now are better than ever before. They have assurances from 20 labor organizations pledging them financial support. Each organization say they will put up $100 apiece to have the men win the strike. Notwithstanding the fact that the company's officials stated that they have more men than they wanted, the strikers say they are still asking them to come back to their positions. When the men went to the pay window for their money they were solicited to return to work. The strikers also state that the fact of 20 or 30 farmers being placed on the cars does not scare them one bit. They also claim the company has already discharged some of the new men on account of incompetency.

Others, they claim, "had the decency to quit" when they learned how matters stood.

Five of them left the company yesterday

The strikers also claim that the patrons of the line made it so warm for James Duddey, gripman of car No. 16, that he asked to be transferred to another car and was yesterday put on No. 22. This is the man who, they claim, organized them and was one of the first to refuse to go out. The men say they have no enmity against Chief Engineer Davis, but in some cases he is not acting squarely with his old employes. They say they were misinformed about Mr. Davis snatching the badge from one of the strikers. The man who says his badge was taken now refuses to make an affidavit to that effect.

A Serious Mistake Corrected. Much mischief is done in treatment of constipation. The common opinion is that all the indications are fulfilled if medicine forces unloading of the bowels. A great error, Medicine simply cathartic, corrects no morbid condition, consequently their use is followed by greater costiveness. A remedy to be effectual and permanent must be composed of tonic, alterative, corrective and cathartic properties. These qualities are admirably combined in Dr. Tutt's Liver Pilis. They cure chronic constipation and all the sufferings that result from it. They give tone to the intestinal mucous membrane, stimulate the recretions and correct imperfect action of the stomach and liver.
