HER DOWER IS SAFE.

A Queer Family Jumble Decided by Judge Hawkins, Orphans' Court.

A MAN MUST NOT DESERT HIS WIFE

And Hope That Her Subsequent Actions Will Abrogate Dower Rights.

JAMES I. BENNETT FILES A CROSS SUIT.

Allegations of a Fraudulent Sale of Graff, Bennett & Co.'s Property Made.

An interesting dower right case settled by Judge Hawkins yesterday emphasizes some new points in marital matters. James I. Bennett wants the Graff, Bennett & Co. sale set aside and a receiver appointed, alleging fraud on the part of Judge John H. Bailey, assignee of the defunct firm.

Judge Hawkins, of the Orphans' Court, yesterday handed down an opinion in the matter of the claim of Mrs. Theresa Beilstein against the estate of her husband the late George P., better known as "Whitey" Beilstein.

At the death of Beilstein the claimant, who had not been living with Beilstein for years, came forward and asked for her widow's dower. Beilstein, for a time previous to his death, had been living with another wife, and Reinstein's sons and executors resisted the claim of wife number one.

They alleged that she was never married to him and further, that if she had been, she had lost her right of dower by deserting him and by improper conduct.

THE RECORDS MISLAID.

In the testimony taken in the case, the claimant, whose maiden name was Barbara Kleitz, of Allegheny, stated that she was married to Beilstein in 1865. She was 15 years of age, and he was 16½ years old. They lived together for about 2½ years when not being able to get along together, he left her and went to Baltimore. She stated that they were married by Alderman Donaldson, now dead. Her marriage certificate was stolen from her trunk by Beilstein and no mention of the marriage could be found in Alderman Donaldson's records. Beilstein though never divorced was married twice, afterward.

THE JUDGE'S OPINION.

Judge Hawkins, in his opinion, held that the claimant was entitled to her dower. He said that both had, after their separation, lived improperly, and their marriage was never legally dissolved, and unless her claim as a widow was barred under the statute providing that if a wife willingly leave her husband, etc., she shall be barred forever of action to demand her dower, she was entitled to a distribution.

The evidence showed conclusively improper conduct, but not that she left Beilstein willingly, or that there was a voluntary separation.

It was held by Judge Hawkins that a man who leaves or deserts his wife places her in a defenseless condition, and that misconduct on her part was a logical sequence of such desertion. The dower was awarded to the woman.

FRAUD IS ALLEGED.

James I. Bennett Filed His Cross-Suit Asking That the Graff-Bennett Sale be Set Aside—Startling Allegations Made.

James I. Bennett, of the firm of Graff, Bennett & Co., yesterday filed a cross bill in the suit brought by creditors of the firm, assigned on February 21, 1888, to F. H. Miller. He afterward resigned and the Hon. J. H. Bailey was appointed assignee.

Assignee Bailey afterward sold the firm's property to James Pickands, J. W. Friend and J. M. Bailey for $25,050. This sale Mr. Bennett claims was fraudulent and void. There were persons present at the sale who intended to bid in good faith for the property, but they were approached and by paying money to them and other inducements were deterred from bidding. The property thus went to Pickands, Friend and Bailey at a price grossly inadequate and less than it was worth. It was worth at least $500,000 above all liens against it, and the defendants, it is believed, have already realized $200,000 on it. The conduct of the parties to this sale, it is asserted, was a fraud.

The balance of the property is not sufficient to pay the firm's debts, and enough could not be realized to pay more than 20 per cent of their debts. The conduct of the parties was unknown to Bennett, and he asks that the sale be set aside, and a receiver of the firm appointed, etc.

CRIMINAL COURT GRIST.

Dr. Baker Acquitted and Several Miner Offenders Justiced.

JERRY LOVITT pleaded guilty to assault and battery on his wife and was sentenced 30 days to the workhouse.

MARGARET WILSON, charged by J. C. Williams with selling liquor without a license and to minors, was found guilty.

DANIEL PEFFER, alias John Carney, convicted of stealing two hams, was sentenced nine months to the workhouse.

IN the trial of Dr. J. H. Baker, of Homestead, tried for attempted malpractice, an acquittal was rendered. The suit was brought by Frank Coulin, of Homestead.

THE jury is out in the case of Fred Miller and Thomas Taylor, tried for the larceny of a lot of handkerchiefs and other articles from the store of J. J. Joyce at Mansfield.

IN the Criminal Court yesterday Archie Moorhead pleaded guilty to felonious assault on Fred Silvus by snapping a revolver at him. He was sentenced three years and six months to the penitentiary.

A TRIO OF DIVORCES.

Freedom Granted to Couples Who Chafed Under the Matrimonial Yoke.

A divorce was granted yesterday in the case of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Beatty against Sherrard Beatty. Infidelity was alleged. Mrs. Beatty, it was stated, had to leave her husband because he could not support her. He was afterward expelled from the Bethel Presbyterian Church, of Allegheny, for immorality.

Divorces were also granted in the cases of A. E. King against J. G. King and E. Harlan against F. Harlan, both for desertion.

Manual Labor Exempted.

Judge Magee yesterday handed down an opinion in the case of John Hasley against W. W. Wilson. The case is an appeal from the judgment of Alderman Gripp, awarding $100 in an attachment on wages for wages. Judge Magee held that a judgment for wages for manual labor was subject to no claim for exemption, not even when wages are attached, and affirmed the judgment of the Alderman.

KILLED HIMSELF IN PRISON.

Suicide of Willis Gaylord, a Heavy Railroad Stock Manipulator.

PHILADELPHIA, January 3.—Willis Gaylord, for many years a heavy manipulator of railroad securities and organizer of railroad corporations, committed suicide some time last night or this morning, in a cell in the untried department of the county prison here. When the keepers went their rounds this morning, Gaylord's cold corpse was discovered in his cell, and Sheriff Krumbhaar, who had the custody of the prisoner, was at once notified.

Gaylord was put under arrest on a warrant issued on the 18th of November last, in a suit in assumpsit, involving a claim of $30,000, the plaintiff being one Frederick A. Babcock, of New York, with whom Gaylord had been interested in the negotiation of $515,000 of New Orleans, Baton Rouge and Vicksburg Railroad bonds.

Quality Will Tell.

Of 2,454,504 cases of champagne imported during the past ten years, comprising 26 brands, over one-fourth was "G. H. Mumm's Extra Dry," which during the same period was over 200,000 cases in excess of any other brand.

To-Day the Last Day.

Before we take our yearly inventory (Monday next we start taking inventory) we have concluded to sell all the goods we possibly can before Monday, and the only way to sell plenty of clothing is to cut prices to pieces, which will be done at our store to-day. Attention, Landlords!

A very important matter to look after this time of the year is the engagement of a reliable agency to manage the renting of your houses. The well-known firm of Black & Baird have increased their facilities in this branch and are more than ever prepared to give special attention to the management of properties and estates in Pittsburg, Allegheny and suburbs. By the uniform system they have adopted, better results are obtained than by the owners. Monthly settlements, with itemized statements, are forwarded promptly.

GREAT JANUARY

Mark-Down Sale of Cloaks.

Now in full blast at Kaufmanns'. Ladies, don't come unless you want to save money. On some garments the reductions are one-third off, on others fully one-half off, and every cloak, wrap or jacket guaranteed perfect fitting and tailor-made.

A Claim That'll Bear Investigation.

Kaufmanns' great January reduction sale of cloaks is the only genuine affair of the kind in the city. Its announcement created a stir everywhere, while its many imitations (look into the stores of the dry goods dealers and be convinced) fell as flat as a pancake. The best bargains yet in Newmarkets, jackets and plush garments are on the list for to-day at Kaufmanns'.

Telephone Building in Allegheny on Fire.

At 3 P. M. yesterday the fire department of Allegheny was called out to subdue the flames raging in the basement of the telephone building, 123 Sandusky st., Allegheny, but as the stock of the well-known firm of Echols, McMurray & Co., situated in the same building, was neither damaged by fire nor water, they will still continue to sell organs at $44 and pianos lower than any house in the two cities. Call, examine the stock and be convinced.

U. P. WOMEN AT WORK.

A Meeting of Considerable Importance Held Yesterday—The U. P. Aged People's Home to be Placed on a National Scale.

An adjourned meeting of the Woman's U. P. Association was held yesterday afternoon in the First U. P. Church, Allegheny. It was presided over by the President, Mrs. H. C. Campbell.

The meeting was the regular one, which should have been held in December, but had been postponed for various reasons. The secretary reported that the Children's Home was in a flourishing condition and had 40 inmates.

Mrs. Campbell gave an entertaining account of how Christmas and New Year's had been spent in the Home by the children.

The Hospital Committee reported a new constitution and by-laws for the government of the U. P. Children's Memorial Hospital, which was adopted. It was also reported that the hospital had an indebtedness of about $500, which, it is hoped, will be wiped out shortly.

The committee on the outlook for an aged people's home reported, through Mrs. Hill, that they had given the subject much thought, and had finally concluded to make it a home for aged U. P. people, residents of the United States, and that they favored the sending of a letter to the session of each church in the General Assembly, calling for the indorsement of the project, and the appointment of two members from each church to raise funds.

These suggestions were unanimously adopted, and the Committee on Constitution was instruted to go ahead with the work and fix the price of boarding and also at what age inmates would be taken.

On motion, it was decided that the money derived from the annual entertainment, which will amount to over $2,000, be divided equally between the Children's Home and the Memorial Hospital.

The next meeting of the Association will be held on the fourth Friday of this month in the Seventh United Presbyterian Church on Forty-fourth street.

WE are grieved to note the death of a promising young man, Charles E. Faulder, and his many friends will miss him from his class in the Allegheny High School. After a sickness of four weeks with typhoid fever he quietly passed away Friday afternoon about 4 o'clock, remembering in his last moments his classmates at school.

HE HAD CONSTANT PAIN.

DR. SHAFER.

Mr. A. D. King, of Twenty-third street, this city, had a constant, dull, aching pain in the small of his back and kidneys, and more or less pain all over his body. His urine was very high-colored, with a brickdust sediment. He had a burning sensation in his hands and feet, and, as his disease further advanced, his appetite failed, and what he did eat soured on his stomach, causing much eructation of gas. His skin had a yellow color; he could not sleep, was constantly tired and finally became so weak as to be unable to attend to any business.

After becoming cured he states: "This is to certify that I have received treatment from the physicians of the Polypathic Medical Institute, at 420 Penn avenue, and am entirely cured of my disease. "A. D. KING."
