MUST HE NON-PARTISAN. The temperance women of Pennsylrania who how the original principles of the W. C. T. U., and believe in prolibition as the sure destroyer of the saloon, can and ought to place their or-gamination, and the new cues to be formed, on the non-partisan platform. Unless it is so de-sired, they who will not follow the partisan standard may not surrender the talismanic words, "W. C. T. U." They were born of that charity which "rejoiceth not in injuits, but rejoiteth in the trath," and rightfully belong to those, who, following the broad, generous teachings, which is years ago, "with malice to prome and charity to all." founded the organiza-tion, and are not now "cribbed, cabined, con-sting and are not now "cribbed, cabined, con-sting the trath will give the world notice that it is, in fact, as in name, non-partisan. There being two sides to all questions, a call was made on Mr. J. A. McConnell, of Allegheny, yesterday afternoon for his views on the causes leading to the dissen-sions in the ranks of the W. C. T. U., and Beat Muslin I the statements made in the above circular. Mr. McConnell is an enthusiastic prohibitionist and keeps well posted on the doings of the W. C. T. U. He said:

POLITICAL PREJUDICES THE CAUSE.

I believe these people are honest in their purposes. I believe they think they are doing what is best for the temperance cause, but I believe their political prejudices have warped their judgments and they are deceived in the believe their political prejudices have warped their judgments and they are deceived in the case. This trouble dates back to 1882. In fact, earlier than that, the W. C. T. U, organization commenced taking action by passing resolutions in their county. State and national conventions appealing to all three political parties to declare positively in favor of prolibition as a principle of the State and nation. They continued that policy all over the United States, and in some sections they petitioned the partles to adopt the prohibition parks in their platform. — "That led up until 1883, when the women of the National conventions. As an incentive for the political parties to adopt the prohibition present of a demand and presented it to the various national conventions. As an incentive for the political parties to adopt prohibition, it was always widely and popularly believed in the Northern States that the Republican party was in sympathy with the temperace senti-ness of the point, hewever, it turned out that be influence of the liquor interests was no occurs adopted. How one is not fill just as certain that the Democratic party would adopt the plank. Few of the women antio-to the fill parties were intimidated, and be influence of the liquor interests was no erther adopted here the National Conven-tion of the Prohibition party, and it was there monitous adopted. Now, the women had pledged their word and honor to support adopt the resolution. The National W. C. T. U, and the resolution. The National W. C. T. U, and the resolution. The National W. C. T. THEY ARE INDEPENDENT.

"The facts show that the parent W. C. T. U. organization is absolutely independent and nor partisan, because in its national capacity, i supports the Prohibition party, and in the States it indorses whichever party adopts prohibition. The circular seems to be intended to hibition. The circular seems to be intended to convey the idea that the trouble within the ranks of the W. C. T. U. is something new, when in fact dissensions have existed for years. The recent national convention did not indorse the Prohibition party-they simply reaffirmed their former action." As to the alleger refusal of ministers to read W. C. T. U. announcements, Mr. McConnell and: 22 cents.
