

WHERE DEATH LURKS.

Two Dead Wires Found in Decidedly Dangerous Positions.

BIGLOW WILL BURY CITY WIRES.

Sam Duncan says it will cost $3,000,000 to rid us of wires.

NOW IN THE HEART OF THE CITY.

The discovery of dead wires appears to be a popular amusement just now, in the same manner as "blundering" was made fashionable in London and then in the English reflector, New York.

Some more important cases have come to light within the last 24 hours, and whether the dead wires reach the sight of public knowledge first, or a light wire, is a very serious question.

One can be found strung on Fifth avenue, making the danger line just opposite Oliver, McClintock & Co.'s place of business.

These facts, brought to the attention of Chief Engineer of the Department of Public Works, together with the knowledge that the city atmosphere is stratified by dead, which in conjunction with the living wires, may be a serious matter.

It is thought that the possibility of getting the wires underground in that time, said:

I think that if the proper time is adopted to do, which may not be the best time, it can be done within the specified time or anywhere near it without practically discontinuing service.

THAT INSURANCE CONVENTION.

A Movement for a Meeting of Agents Which Will Be Held in the City.

Agents Give Their Views.

The following telegram was received by THE DISPATCH from Harrisburg:

A State convention of insurance agents will be held in the city on the 15th inst. for the purpose of perfecting an organization to prevent placing insurance at lower rates than local agents are authorized to charge, and to prevent adverse legislation.

Mr. Edwards, of Harrisburg, representing the Liverpool, London and Globe, when interviewed upon the convention said:

"I have received an invitation to attend the convention, but no explanation of its objects. The movement is an entirely new one to me, nor can I ascertain anything definite in regard to it by inquiry among insurance men here.

"There is an organization, and a very thorough one known as the 'Middle Department,' which has been in active existence for a number of years. It is composed of special agents who inspect risks and adjust losses. They have annual meetings which are usually held in Harrisburg because of central location, though they sometimes meet on the seashore."

Mr. King, President of the Cash Insurance Company, on being questioned said:

"I know nothing whatever of the proposed convention. Occasionally agents come here to place insurance at lower rates than the schedule fixed by the company, and take risks perhaps below regular rates. I cannot exactly understand how a convention could effect anything from the simple fact that anyone having a license can take insurance at any rates they see fit. Our recognized insurance men here are all members of the Board of Underwriters, and charge the same rates. They are honorable men and would not place risks at rates lower than the schedule fixed by the company."

Several other gentlemen who were interviewed on the subject concurred in the opinion that it was merely a proposed meeting of local agents, and that nothing of the kind is being done in this city.
