

THE BOARD OF SCHOOL CONTROL AND COMMITTEE'S CONFLICT.

A LAW UPON THE MATTER.

The Old Library May Not Be Surrendered by the Board.

COUNCILMEN CLAIM FULL CONTROL.

The difficulty in Allegheny over the management of the Carnegie Free Library does not seem to have been settled by the action of the City Property Committee in approving an ordinance placing the control and management of the library in their own hands.

RELUCTANT TO TALK.

James A. Young, Esq., President of the Allegheny Board of School Control, was asked yesterday what action that proposed to take on the subject, giving as a reason that if he or the other members of the board should take any action...

ONLY ONE CONCLUSION.

"That would seem to imply that only the School Board has the right to levy taxes for the maintenance of the library, and also have full control of the library in their hands. A public library cannot be closed with market or ordinary houses."

THE FIRE ENGINE TEST.

Big Bet on the Amoskeag Engine—Mr. J. Lewis the Third Judge—Date of the Test Made Known.

NOT A POLITICAL MACHINE.

"The bus and cry has been heard that the placing of the building in the charge of Allegheny Council will be a political machine of this kind."

NO MEETING LAST NIGHT.

Mr. Miller Gives a History of the Allegheny Library. The regular meeting of the Allegheny Board of School Control was called for last evening.
