Will Watch Over the Municipality by Decree of Councils.

THE CHIEF TO STAND THE BRUNT.

The Engine House Lot Assessment Brought Out by an Inquiry.

THE FREE BRIDGE QUESTION BOBS UP

The meeting of Councils yesterday was interesting in many respects to all portions of the city. The increase of 25 to the police force was looked for and needed, although the old rivalry between the Southside and East End was enkindled afresh by the suggestion of the member from the Seventeenth ward that 24 of the 25 new policemen would go to the East End, while the Southside would have to be content with 1.

The letter from Chief Brown to Common Council asking non-concurrence in the ordinance passed in Select purchasing a lot in the Thirty-first ward for fire purposes created considerable talk, and the high price asked induced an inquiry the Southside assessments in that locality which were found to run from $500 to $1,500, and the suggestion that a revision of the assessors' lists based on the prices asked the city for lots was not alone well received but may materially increase the taxes on the next triennial assessment.

Free bridges were also freely discussed. The only one who may have cause to regret the action of both branches of Councils vesterday is Chief Brown, of the Department ceedings.

wards the following ordinances and petione were presented and predinances for grading, paving and curping Boquet street from Atwood to Bates streets; opening Cypress street from Edmond to Matilda streets; vacating Valley street from Long alley to Forty-fifth street; grading and paving Yew street from Mathilda street to a point 275 feet east; grading, paving and point 275 feet east; grading, paving and before the appropriation ordinance was passed. The reports were received and filed.

the Department of Public Safety to employ 25 additional patrolmen was passed unanimously, although Mr. Munroe took occasion to inquire what necessity there was for so many extra policemen. Mr. Lambie called for the reading of Chief Brown's letter on the subject, in which it was stated that there were but two reliaments and supposite street, and opening Closson atreet. They were all approved.

Ordinances for grading, paying and curbing Baum street, Howe street, Sheridan street, 15-inch pipe sewer on Emily street, Howard street, Larimer street and Summerlea street were passed finally.

CAME OVER FROM SELECT whole Thirteenth ward, three in the Twenty-second ward, and in other parts of the city where the population was large and grow-ing there was absolutely no police protecward was accompanied by a letter he had just received from Morrison & Banks, real ight to determine the material to be used in all sidewalks and curbing; also an ordinance requiring the owners of public lots to connect with public sewers by underground sewers. This last ordinance was referred back to the Committee on Public Works for the Chief had proposed buying for $1,706,

We relterate what we have already said, that no lot on Allen avenue or any other, except Washington avenue, is worth more than $890 of McKee place, relocating Cabine: street, $800. We soid a lot 22x106 feet, corner Allen avenue and Freeland street, one square from the lots you agreed upon, for $550 last week and it has been offered at that price for four months.

* * * * We also make the following assertions: The Justice of the Peace, James Bau, of Beltzhoover borough, who executed the deed, states that the lots you agreed to buy were bought for $1,500, and we had the same to sell at $1,400 last summer. The Vierbeller lots were offered to us at $1,500 late in the summer, and no such prices were ever asked until the nivest of an engine house or desire of the city to purchase lots.

To offset this letter a petition, signed by 27 citizens of the Thirty-first ward, was presented, in which it was stated that $2,700 massed finally.

The resolution offered in Select Council The Property of the Class who is the only surwas a fair and reasonable price for the Glass lot, as it was situated on the corner of two good streets, Climax street and Allen avenue, was 50x117 feet in hize, and that in 1873 by the Legislature, be asked to fill the price was no higher than up the board, was taken up.

Mr. Lambie hastened to inform Mr. Nisbet that his evident apprehension that he was being accused of dabbling in the city's real estate purchases was entirely unfounded. He also pointed out that white Chief Brown saked the reconsideration of the ordinance, it was evident that he still believed the lots well adapted to the purpose, and the probabilities were that he would finally decide to buy them after all.

Mr. Warmcastle thought that if the city did not buy this lot for $2,700, the Councils should instruct the city assessors to go over that next of the Thirty-first ward and make a new assessment. He had investistate agents.
Mr. Lambie hastened to inform Mr. Nisover that part of the Intry-area ward and make a new assessment. He had investi-gated and found that this identical property was assessed at less than $800, and the prop-erty all along there was assessed at corre-gated and found that this was assessed at less than $300, and the property all along there was assessed at corresponding values. If the property was worth $2,700, it should be assessed at that.

The ordinance was then reconsidered by a unanimous vote and referred back to the Chief of the Public Safety Department.

An ordinance vacating Columbia street, from Pike street to the Allegbeny river, was next called up. Mr. Keating offered an amendment providing that when Howe, Brown & Co., or the Allegbeny Valley Railroad Company, the present owners of the property abutting on that street, shall cease to use it for manufacturing purposes, then the street shall revers to the use of the public.

Mr. Perry said that Columbia street runs

Mr. Perry said that Columbia street runs from Mulberry alley to the river. From Pike sireet to the river was inaccessible to anybody, but Howe, Brown & Co., who had recently built new furnaces, and required more room for storing their steel. They had been unable to buy any ground, and as this street would answer their purpose they might as well have it.

SHOULD HAVE ENCOURAGEMENT. Mr. Warmeastle and Mr. Keating both Mr. Warmeastle and Mr. Keating both held that a manufacturing concern like Howe, Brown & Co. should be encouraged by the city when it could be done at so little expense. The crowded condition of the lower part of the city had already caused the loss of too much of her bone and sinew, in the shape of her manufactories, and when it could be prevented so easily as in this instance, should be done without quibbling by Conneils. by Councils.

The amendment was passed, and the ordi-nance was reterred for reprinting.

The following ordinances were passed finally:

finally:

Opening Larimer avenue from Station to Broad streets; opening Gloster street from Vespucius to Renovo streets; opening Duff street from Wylie to Webster streets; opening Duff street from Wylie to Webster streets; opening Perry street from Wobster to Bedford streets; opening Blair street from Lowry to Renovo streets; opening Conrad street from Penn to Breed's Hill streets; opening Braden alley from Meadow to Everett streets; establishing grade of Wilmot street from Boquet to Ward street; locating Fresco alley from Ward street to Meyran arenue; locating lows street from Imampart to Alequipps streets; establishing the grade of Water street from Grant to Smithfield streets; sower on Braddock avenue; locating Smith street from Eyth's property line to Hazelwood avenue; grading, paving and curbing Perry street from Wylle avenue to Webster avenue; grading, paving and curbing Miffilin street from Main street to Friendship avenue.

Alex. Ferguson, Esq., has been retained by the citizens to take charge of the matter and secure the right of way for the steps.

The following business was messaged from Select Council, and concurrence asked: An ordinance authorizing the Chief of the Department of Public Safety to engage 25 additional patrolmen; a resolution asking the Chief of the Department of Public Works to secure estimates on the south end of the Point bridge. The landing will be enposite the end of Cawley street, located across the tracks of the Panhandie road, for the purpose of preserving egress and ingress for the people who live on the side of the hill above the railroad.

THAT ENGINE HOUSE SQUABBLE.

Chief Brown's letter requesting the reconsideration of the ordinance authorizing him to pay $2,700 for a lot in the Thirty-first ward was accompanied by a letter he had of the Department of Public Works to secure estimates on the resolution of Butcher 1 and the repairing the Chief the Department of Public Safety the right to engage one additional lineman; a resolution relative to the free bridge and Singer, Nimick & Co., and so the Department of Public Works the control of the Department of Public Works to secure estimates on the resolution of Butcher 2 and Shad.

When Mr. Ferguson visited the County Commissioners' office he discovered that most of the property over which the steps are to be located is owned by Alex. Nimick and Singer, Nimick & Co., and Shad.

the Chief had proposed buying for $1,706, and that Mr. Coster intended to use the lots himself, though he felt satisfied that $1,700 was full value for the property.

The agents' letter continued: We reiterate what we have already said, that so lot on Allen avenue or any other, except washington avenue or any other, except washington avenue, is worth more than $800 or establishing the grade of McKee place, relocating Cabine: street, so so and Freeland street, one square from the lots you agreed upon, for $550 last week, and he lots you agreed upon, for $550 last week, and nearly so desirable, being smaller, uneven and located in a much inferior place, their not courteous on the part of any member to value being over $1,000 less than the Glass lots. Accompanying this petition were affidavits from John Alger and Albert Vienheller, two well-known property bolders of the Thirty-first ward, who each declared that the Glass property was fully worth gapized, and it was hardly right to ask the $2,700, and that they each owned property in the vicinity of the Glass lots, but while theirs were smaller they would not take $2,700 for them.

Councils now to put new life into a body that never had life, and ask them to appraise property, not what it was 17 years ago, but vastly greater in value.

Will Consider Legal, Equitable and Financial Bearings. A BIG KICK AGAINST THE INCLINE

The citizens of Duquesne Heights are on the warpath. A meeting of Thirty-fifth ward citizens has been called for Friday evening to consider the matter of erecting steps from the top of the hill to Carson street. The people who are at the head of the movement claim to be forced into this action by the iron-clad rules and independ-against the 6-cent fare. It is said this is the only incline in the city where a 6-cent fare is charged. The company has always MCALLISTER & SHEIBLER, Shav. & Atwood st. argued that the corporation lost money for quite awhile after the erection of the incline, but the citizens claim it is making money now, and the company could well afford to reduce the fare, and the movement to erect steps is one to force a reduction of either fare or traffic. Another cry raised is that the incline stops running at 12:30 at night, and does not start again until 2:30. This is claimed to be a great inconvenience, especially for the millmen, a large number of whom live on the heights. Some are supposed to go to work at 2 o'clock, and they either have to lose a heat or walk down the hill.

WHAT AN ORIECTOR SAVE Frank Gordon, one of the citizens interested in the scheme, said last evening. "The feeling is general all over the ward that the incline people are not doing the right thing by the citizens. The proposition to erect the steps is favored unanimously, except by those who are interested financially in the incline. We only need about $800 or $900 to put up the steps, and a few of us while and secure the right of way for the steps. He was engaged all day yesterday examining the properties over which it is desired to erect the steps. It is the Intention to start at a point about 700 feet east of the top of the incline and come out 150 feet above the south end of the Point bridge. The benefit to their people. It is proposed to erect the steps at their own expense and donate them to the city if the latter will agree to keep them in repair. The incline people say it is a political dodge on the part of the citizens to defeat Mr. Holliday, who is also interested in the incline. Mr. Gordon denied this statement. He said the citizens had held a caucus and indersed S. McCombs in opposition to Mr. Holliday, but it was not because the latter is concerned in the incline.

The Duquesne Heights citizens are proceeding in about the same manner as those of Mt. Washington did a few years ago when concessions were secured from the Monongahela Incline Company.
