He speaks of these nen dictating how he shall run his road. No questions had ever been raised between the men and the management as to the running of the road or anything else. Now, as to the main question, Mr. Elkins states he never asked when he employed a man whether he helmed to a labor orranization. The exact he belonged to a labor organization. The exact contrary to this is true. Mr. Eiklins never em-ployed a man without asking that question, and when he was informed that the party did

WHAT JONES SAYS.

The following are the affidavits: fruit crop in this section, and he said he did not think all fruit was killed, though early varieties might be. As to the "aftermath," the term may as well be applied to fruit as to grass, His Honor thought it would not amount to much. He had seen a small crop of grapes once after the regular bloom had been killed by frost, but he said it was a poor one.

W. D. Moore, Esq., said he did not think any great damage had been done yet. Mr. Moore is regarded as specially qualified to talk on subjects of this kind.

The following are the affidavits:

Vatentine Jones says: On Sunday, December 22, 1859, Mr. Datis, the Superintendent, got on my car and said, no, sir, 1 did belong, but an suspended; he then said twell, don't you join and we will take care of you, and he got off the car. On Monday morning Mr. Cavanangh, boss gripman, got on my car and said. Jones, what's the reason you didn't join the K. of L.? I said just because I couldn't. He said we will run this road non-union, it always has been and always will be, Mr. Ekins' orders are to run 15 cars, and if we can't run 15 run it, and if need be run one car, without a union man being on it, then put them all in the stable and let them stand.

Inquiry was made at the store of John & R. A. Murdoch, and a gentleman stated that so far no damage of consequence had been done.

"But," said the inquirer, "some people say they have seen peach trees in bloom."

"Have you seen them?" was the Yankee-like answer. The inquirer replied that he

Thomas Clisham—I was one of the first men that handled the grip on the Fifth avenue line, was hired in Philadelphia in the main office on Walnut street, below Fifth, was asked by P. A. B. Weldner whether I belonged to the Knights of Labor, to which I replied I did not. Then I was informed if I did I would not be hired and sent to Pittshupe. On Saturday, Becember 28, I reported Informed if I aid I would not be nired and sent to Pittsburg. On Saturday, December 28. I reported sick, and in the afternoon about 5 o'clock I went to the office and reported for Sunday. I was in-formed everything was ail right, to so to work Sunday morning. On Sunday when I reported Superintendent Davis informed me that he could not the road without me. You follows think by run the road without me. You fells forming an organization you can run this road, and I'm going to show you that you can't. He said he was not opposed to the organization, but the Colonel (?) meaning Ekins, was, and he was sorry that I had anything to do with this organization. I made application for a recommendation and received the following:

A GOOD RECOMMENDATION.

I said to McDowell I guess I can get off to-day, as I have missed. He says, yes, I guess you can. Mr. Dayis wants to see you. Mr. Dayis came in and said, I'm very sorry, Steward, but we will have to dispense with your services. We have a combina-tion here and it works to suit us and we don't like to break it up. I remarked that I was sorry to lose my position. He said he was sorry, too, but it you fellows had come to me the night after you joined the organization and told me about it I if you fellows had come to me the high sater you joined the organization and told me about it is would have fixed it all right. I said to him that i was not sorry for connecting myself with this or ganization, and he said in a very gruff way. "You ain't," and I said, no, sir, and I left the office, HARRY A. SYEWARD.

I took car No. 18 from Oakland to relieve the regular man for dinner, and on my return the dispatcher called me into the power house and told me Superintendent Davis wanted to see me. I went into the office and Davis asid, "I're been informed that you belong to the Knights of Labor." I said, well, there is no use lying about it, I have joined the Knights. Mr. Davis then said, well Remley. I'm very sorry, we've tried to keep you out of this. and if you want to stay here you will have to pull out of this organization or leave the employ of the company. BUSINESS CHANGES.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP-Notice is hereby given that the firm of Casparis & Neeb, of Fairfield county, O., has been dissolved by mutual cousent, S. Casparis retiring. All debts due the said firm will be paid to Frank C. Neeb, who will also pay all claims against said firm.

S. CASPARIS.
F. C. NEER.
In retiring from the firm of Casparis & Neeb I herewith recommend Frank C. Neeb to my friends and the patrons of the late firm.
JANUARY 6, 1890. S. CASPARIS, jal5-98 DISSOLUTION NOTICE-

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore substating between J. L. Somers, W. H. Williams and W. H. B. Bulger, under the firm name of Somers, Brother & Co., has been this day dissolved by mutual consent and agreement. All debts owing to the said partnership are to be received by said W. H. Williams and W. H. B. Bulger, and all demands on the said partnership are to be presented to the said Williams and Bulger for payment.

J. L. SOMERS,
W. H. WILLIAMS,
W. H. B. BULGER.

Having purchased the interest therein of J.
L. Somers we will continue the wholesale produce, fruit and commission business of Somers, Brother & Co., under the firm name of Williams & Bulger, at No. 659 Liberty avenue, Pittsburg. The financial resources and general management of the old firm will continue practically unchanged, and the policy which secured for and has retained to it a leading position in the produce trade of this city will be closely adhered to.

W. H. WILLIAMS, W. H. B. BULGER.

In severing my connection with the above gentlemen, and withdrawing the name "Somers, Brother & Co." from the produce commission business, I desire to thank the many friends and customers of the house, through whose liberality and constancy during 14 years of busy existence, it was enabled to achieve a marvelous success. Assured that they will perpetuate the policy of promptitude, conservation and equal justice, upon which the house is founded, I cheerfully ask for my successors the continued confidence and generous favors of old patrons and the public generally.

Respectfully, J. L. SOMERS.
