

TILT IN THE SENATE.

Swords of Sarcasm Drawn and Wielded by Messrs. Call and Plumb.

THE SENATORIAL LIE PASSED.

Mr. Plumb Thinks He Ought to Confront His Florida Colleague of

FALSEHOOD, AT THE VERY LEAST

Mr. Call Responds That He Will Not Follow Such Mean Methods.

Senators Plumb and Call had a tilt in the Senate yesterday, in which some sharp language was used and the lie passed not quite so politely as is usual in that august body.

WASHINGTON, January 14.—

The resolutions heretofore offered by Mr. Call, in relation to the claims of Florida under the swamp land grant, and in relation to the alleged unlawful selections of lands in Florida, were taken up today in the Senate and Mr. Call addressed the Senate on them.

MR. PLUMB REPLIES.

Mr. Plumb replied to Mr. Call. He said that the United States had granted to the State of Florida more than half of the lands within its limits. The State contained about 40,000,000 acres, and more than one-half of that had been given to the State for various purposes.

MR. CALL'S ANSWER.

Mr. Call replied to Mr. Plumb. He would resign his seat in the Senate if he were to bring forward such a complaint against his own State, after being too cowardly to proclaim it on the stump in his own State.

MR. PLUMB'S REPLY.

Mr. Plumb went on to say that Mr. Call had made some serious charges, and he would not allow the Senate to be misled by the title to certain railroad lands in Florida.

MR. CALL'S ANSWER.

Mr. Call replied to Mr. Plumb. He said that he would not move, Mr. President, by this extraordinary example, to follow his bad manners by his honorable colleague.

TO THE LEVEL OF THE MANHOOD CHARACTER OF THE SENATOR FROM KANSAS.

Mr. Dolph, as a member of the Committee on Public Lands, made an explanation and justification of the action of that committee in the last Congress with respect to a resolution of Mr. Call on the same subject.

PAYING THEMSELVES.

An Amusing Scene in the House—The Silliest Defalcation as Seen Through Different Spectacles—Salaries

TO BE REFUNDED OR NOT?

WASHINGTON, January 14.—In the House today Mr. Adams called up the Silliest Defalcation, accompanied by a bill appropriating $75,000 to reimburse members for losses incurred through the Silliest Defalcation.

MR. HEMPHILL'S ANSWER.

Mr. Hemphill, of South Carolina, advocated the adoption of his bill permitting members to bring suit in the Court of Claims for the recovery of their salaries, and opposed the bill of the majority.

MR. BUTTERWORTH'S ANSWER.

Mr. Butterworth—Has my friend any doubt that he is entitled to pay? Mr. Hemphill—Not at all, because I have it.

MR. BUTTERWORTH'S ANSWER.

Mr. Butterworth—But it is a fair division of labor for virtue and as to make the sacrifice? Mr. Hemphill—No, it is not a fair division of labor for virtue and as to make the sacrifice?

MR. BUTTERWORTH'S ANSWER.

Mr. Butterworth—But it is a fair division of labor for virtue and as to make the sacrifice? Mr. Hemphill—No, it is not a fair division of labor for virtue and as to make the sacrifice?
