The County Pays $17,991 to Keep Penitentiary Prisoners.

When the jury presented the verdict in the Mary Murphy case vesterday Judge Collier was surprised, and he promptly told them he hadn't any further use for their services. Captain Mercer says he will demand a new trial.

There was a jury in Judge Collier's branch of Criminal Court yesterday that caused considerable surprise by a verdict they rendered. The case was that of Mary Murphy, who lives in the Fourteenth ward, and was charged by Police Inspector Whitehouse with selling liquor without license and on Sunday. The evidence in the case was positive, yet the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, but ordered the defendant to pay the costs. When the verdict was handed up to Judge Collier, His Honor glanced at it with somewhat indignant manner remarked:

"Gentlemen, this is certainly a most extraordimary wardlet. However, you are in a position to do such things. You are through for to-day and can go home."

The police officials were highly indignant over the verdict, and expressed themselves in terms not very complimentary of the jury. Captain Mercer stated that Mrs. Murphy's Captain Mercer stated that Mrs. Murphy's place was one of the best known to the police in the city, and had been raided by him on three different occasions, and he never got less than 12 men in the house. He further stated that three witnesses had sworn positively to having bought and paid for liquor at Mrs. Murphy's Inspector Whitehouse and Captain Mercer also testified to having seen liquor sold in the house.

The jury's action was freely criticised throughout the Court House, and the general opinion was that the verdict was certainly most case that may prove of interest to a consideration of the Nineteenth ward police station, is highly indignant over the action of the jury in Mrs. Murphy's case. Judge Collier's remarks in dismissing the jury were calculated to make the jurymen's ears burn, and it is not probable that they will be called upon to fill the ardnows and responsi-ble position again for some considerable time. ble position again for some considerable time. The cases against Mrs. Murphy will now be pushed with more vigor than eyer.

CONTEST OVER A SIGNATURE,

The Courts to Decide Whether William M.

Grace Signed His Will. Register Country yesterday awarded an issue to the Common Pleas Court for a jury trial in Election of Officers of the Pleasant Valley the case of the contested will of the late Willisto M. Grace, of Ingram. When the will of Mr. Grace was first brought to the Register's office for probate, it had no signature, and was that had contained the unsigned paper. The will left all the property to Mrs. Grace, the wildow of Mr. Grace.

A caveat was filed by the brother of Mr. Grace, who alleged that the signature to the will was not that of Mr. Grace. Register Conner held several hearings, taking testimony as to the signature. A number of witnesses testified that the signature was that of Mr. Grace, while others said it was not. John D. Flack, an expert, said positively that the signature was not that of Mr. Grace. A motion was made for an issue to the Common Pleas Court for a jury trial and it was granted by the Register.

NEW HEARING ORDERED.

A Separated Wife Who Releases Her Husband Has No Claims on Him.

An interesting decision by the Supreme Court was received at the Clerk of Courts office yesterday. It was in the case of Mrs. Emma Richards against her husband, Thomas Richards, for descriton and neglect to main-tain, heard in the Quarter Sessions Court by Judge Magee. Richards had claimed that he was not liable for the support of his wife bewas not liable for the support of his wife be-cause they had separated in 1886, under a writ-ten agreement to live separate and apart from each other during their natural lives. He gave her goods and money to the value of $250, and she released all claim upon him. Judge Magee, in deciding the case, held that the agreement was valid, but that it did not relieve the husband from the future support of his wife. He ordered the husband to pay her $10 per month and give hond in the sum of $200 his wife. He ordered the husband to pay her $10 per month, and give bond in the sum of $300 to secure the payment.

The case was taken to the Supreme Court, where Justice Clark reversed the lower court in decided terms. In his opinion, he said: "Can a wife, after having by a formal deed bound him to period her to live separate and alone, and absolved him from her maintenance, immediately thereafter enter a criminal complaint, and procure his arrest and conviction for doing what she had bound him both in law and equity to do? It is difficult to see how the wife in such case could at the same time hold her husband to perform the articles, and convict him of a crime for doing so. The absurdity of such a result is apparent. Standing on the deed alone the conviction is unwarranted by the proofs and must be set aside."

MAY SELL THE ROAD.

The judgment of the lower court, in conclusion, was reversed, and a new hearing ordered.

An order was made directing that if the certifi-cates were not paid within 00 days the road should be resold to satisfy them. The time has elapsed, and the certificates have not been paid. The Court yesterday allowed until Jan-uary 22, 1890, for the interested parties to agree on a form of decree for the sale.

The chamber of an old coal mine is Judge White's course in refusing to allow him directly below the foundations, and the School Board, recognizing the danger, has concluded to have the chasm filled in. A well has been sunk some 75 feet to the old gallery, and the workmen are busily putting in earth and stones to make assurnuce doubly sure against any possible cavein, which would endanger the lives of some 400 to 500 children. A member of the Ward School Board said when speaking of the matter yesterday: "The building is periectly safe; we are satisfied on that point. HEROIC TREATMENT

Needed in Settling Up the Affairs of an Insolvent Firm-Goods to the Amount of $300,000 Disposed of Fraudulently.

CHICAGO, January 14 .- "This case needs eroic treatment," said Attorney Levy Mayer, in Judge Collins' court to-day. "Simon Deimel is beyond the jurisdiction of the court. How soon the others will be there no one can tell." The case under consideration was the alleged fraudulent failure of the Deimel Bros., and Mr. Mayer proceeded to outline the results of yester-day's investigations. "One of the parties to this traud," said Mr. Mayer "has made a confession of his part in the transactions, and tells how he was approached and asked to take possession of goods. It is utterly impossible for us in view of the complicated and honey-combed condition of affairs, to get at the bottom of this huge swindle in a day. Since June 1, 1889, they, without collusion, have purchased from $280,000 to $300,000 worth of goods, which they have stored in a warehouse and borrowed money thereon. I ask that this property be turned over to the receiver."

Mr. Mayer asked that Ellison and Florscheim be made parties defendant and that the injunction be extended to them as well. He also asked that the American Parlor Frame Company be included as a part of the property of Deimel Bros. Judge Collins said he should not at present make any change in the injunction issued by Judge Peyton, which would stand until to-morrow norning.

In the meantime the Court said he would expect to hear from Receiver Frank A. Helmer, and should expect a petition from him saking for action in the matter. Mr. Mayer said he should ask to-morrow for Mr. Helmer's removal or for the appointment of a co-receiver.

Senator Farwell, however, con-cluded that if there was no statesmen in Indiana willing to be thus honored, it was best for him not to have anything to do with the club, and he refused to acknowledge the paternity thrust upon him. I am going to tell you of the extraordinary change your CUTICURA REMEDIES, performed on me. About the 1st of April 1sst I noticed some red pimples like coming out all over my body, but thought nothing of it until some time later on, when it began to look like spots of mortar spotted on, and which came off in layers, secompanied with itching. I would soratch every night until I was raw, then the next night the scales, being formed meanwhile, were scratched off again. In vain did I consuit all the doctors in the country, but without aid. After giving up all hopes of recovery, I happened to see an advertisement in the newspaper about your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and purchased them from my druggist, and obtained almost immediate relief. I becam to notice that the scaly cruptions gradually dropped off and disappeared one by one, and have been fully cured. I had the disease thirteen months before I began taking the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and in four or five weeks was entirely cured. My disease was excema and psoriasis. I recommended the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and the four of five weeks was entirely cured. My disease was excema and psoriasis. I recommended the CUTICURA REMEDIES to all in my vicinity, and I know of a great many who haye taken them, and thank me for the knowledge of them, especially mothers who have babes with scaly cruptions on their heads and bodies. Great Improvement.

It is not many years ago people travelled on horseback or by stages; now fifty miles an hour is not fast enough for them. Formerly people wrote letters that were weeks in teaching their destination; now the telegraph flashes thought around the world. Formerly doctors bled their patients for nearly every complaint; now they use advanced science of the highest order. Prof. Austin Flint, of Believue College, says; "The judicious use of alcoholic stimulants is one of the striking characteristics of progress in the practice of medicine during the last half century." Prof. Henry Mott, Ph. D., F. C. S., says; "By a most careful analysis I have found Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey free from adulterations or foreign substances, and it deserves to meet with great success." The well-known Dr. R. W. Hutchinson, of New York, says; "I highly recommend Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and prescribe it extensively in my practice." Rev. B. Mills, of Princeton, Iowa, says; "I have used Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey with great benefit to my wife, who is a confirmed invalid. I know from experience it is a pure and most valuable medicine. I am also using it in the case of my son, who is threatened with consumption. The catarrhal secretion that dropped from his head into his throat was so tenacious and hard to raise that in the morning it would often gag him and cause him to feel sick at his stomach. His hearing became dull, he took cold very easily, had no appetite in the morning, and as his food did not digest properly, gas formed in his stomach, causing pain.
