said, we have lost our hold on many of the older boys and young men is because of son would follow his father's example, and if that example does not lead him to the Sunday school it is the father's fault. The boys, he continued, are not thoughtless, as it has been said. A boy will think, and if von can control his thoughts you can control his feet. He must be taught and must have a teacher who can think. The best and brightest material is wanted for teachers.

AN EXAMPLE TO FOLLOW. Mentioning the Catholic Council at Balti-Mentioning the Catholic Council at Balti-ing some hearings before Mayor Pearson, of more, Mr. Jacobs said they had claimed the Allegheny. Arthur Graham and his wife whole world. He admired their earnestness and push, but thought it would be well for Protestants to join issues. They could have a religious trust irrespective of creeds, and it was necessary. We have been told of an impending crisis at the close of the nineteenth century, and it was time every Christian combined. The International Convention, he continued, will meet to hang up a hap of North America and pick out the places needing their aid and go to work to give it to them.

The work should be pushed over the whole world. He referred to the McAll missions in France and pictured their needy condition. They should be helped, and it is desired to put an American Sunday school back of every one of these schools in France. Any Sunday school here can take this position by subscribing for the support of one, and have it report to the American school. In conclusion, he said, they want to place Sunday schools in every part of the world.

LOCAL ORGANIZATION ACHIEVED. At the finish of Mr. Jacobs' address, the organization of the Allegheny County Association was completed. The report of the committee appointed to nominate officers for the association was received, the following nominations being made: President, W. K. Jennings; Vice Presidents

E. S. Gray, W. E. Gillespie, Rev. G. W. Clinton, S. Hamilton, E. S. Morrow, James Blackstone, A. A. Horne.

The report was approved, and on motion those suggested were unanimously elected. The local committee, who have charge of the arrangements for the convention to be held here in June, is composed of E. The morning session was consumed in hearing and discussing Treasurer Bigelow's report, which showed expenditures amounting to $9,582 68, and receipts amounting to $8,197, making a deficit of $1,385 68. The latter amount added to the sum necessary to go into the next convention was fixed at $4,400. To meet this, however, there are pledges amounting to $4,700, so that the convention will meet without being in debt.

The special object of the meeting of the committee is to make arrangements for the sixth triennial session of the convention to be held here next June. That convention will be attended by 1,200 delegates, and it expected that 2,000 Sunday school Allegheny. is expected that 2,000 Sunday school workers will be present, among them such well known men as Bishop Vincent, of the Methodist Eniscopal Church; Rev. AGENT O'BRIEN VERY BUSY.

He is After Glade Run Rooster Pushers, but Attends to Many Minor Cases. Agent O'Brien, of the Humane Society, is certainly in for a decided war against brutal sports. He secured the fining of more than a score of men engaged in the dog fight at McKee's Rocks. He has had two men fined for the chicken fight at Oil City on December 31, and is not through yet with that case. To-day he will go to Warren, Pa., to investigate a chicken fight which was held there December 20. Yesterday Mr. O'Brien received a letter The meeting held last night in the First Presbyterian Church, Wood street, in the interest of the International Sunday School Convention, to be held here in June, 1890, was well attended. W. K. Jennings presided.

Mr. B. F. Jacobs, of Chicago, Chairman of the International Executive Committee, spoke earnestly in favor of Sabbath school work. He urged that a greater interest be taken in the Sunday school. The reason, he said, we have lost our hold on many of the later to the control of the Glade Run Hotel, of which John Baldensperger is the profrom a gentleman in Glade Run, Warren ome of Graham's relatives.

John Huddow and wife were arraigned for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. They were lectured by the Mayor and discharged, and Agent O'Brien told them that if they were ever caught again in the same condition he would feel it to be his duty to take their child from them.
At noon Mr. O'Brien went to Sharpsburg to prosecute a complaint before Justice William Robinson. The wife of R. H. Douglas, a bricklayer, had prosecuted him for cruelty and neglect. The wife is very ill with consumption and has four children. She comes of a good family, her maden name having been Schad. She complained that her husband, though he made good wages, spent nearly all his money for drink, not giving her sufficient to live on. Last Sunday she was compelled to leave him and go to the house of a sister, to procure enough to eat. Douglas was arrested Wednesday evening and spent the night in the lockup. Yesterday he displayed penitence, took the pledge and promised to be good. He was at first ordered to be committed to court, but afterward he was released on his own recognizance and the case held open, to see if he will take care of his family better than he
