THE TICKERS STOP.

New York Bucket Shops Deprived of Their Stock Quotations.

A QUIET CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP

Of the Commercial Telegram Company's Plant, it Being Bought

BY THE CHIEFS OF THE POSTAL CO.

Haliday.

The Postal Telegraph-Cable Company has swallowed the Commercial Telegram Company of New York. As a result, yesterday the New York bucket shops' tickers were stopped and great excitement was caused. It is said the tickers were deprived of their quotations by order of Mr. Mackay himself,

PERCIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, January 16 .- The Commercial Telegram Company's "tickers," on which stock quotations are furnished, were stopped abruptly this morning. The company merely sent out a notice, dated to-day, saying that the service would be disconthough for the present because they had been sold out by the Sheriff. Inquiry was made at the office for further details, but no one in authority could be found. There was a notice on the doors saying that the prop-

A. B. Chandler, the President of the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, was finally found by a DISPATCH reporter. Mr. Chandler said that the Commercial Telegram Company had been sold out by the Sheriff and bought in by Messrs, Mackay and Platt on December 24; that since that time the service had been conducted by the Postal Company. The discontinuance this morning had been for the purpose of "starightening out matters," and Mr. Chandler hoped that a new contract would short time, and the whole litigation over the

Mr. Chandler's assertions.

On the Consolidated Exchange it was said by one of the members that few stock quotations were to be had in the early hours, although the Consolidated brokers say they are in no way dependent upon the stock exchange for quotations. Some sharp brokers made money, they explained, by finding out from the Stock Exchange what the actual prices of certain stocks were; as the quotations posted on the consolidated board were considerably "out," they thus reaped considerable benefit from their knowledge. One made $162. Before an hour had passed, however, the quotations were correctly

Members of the Consolidated Exchange were of the opinion that the Stock Exchange had come to the conclusion that they were only obliged to furnish the Commercial Company with quotations, and as it had been sold out by the Sheriff, the Exchange had shut down on the service, not being obliged to furnish the new owners quotations. Several officers of the Stock Exchange were seen, but none were willing to talk on the subject. Mr. Ely, the Secretary, declined to answer any ques-

A BUCKET SHOP HOLIDAY.

All the bucket shops in New street and Broadway had an unexpected holiday at 10 o'clock. Their tickers were dumb, and the anxious "operators" surrounding them could not for a few minutes understand what the ilence meant. It was said later that the plant of the Commercial had been sold by the Sheriff (yesterday, it was said) to satisfy a judgment, and that John W. Mackay was the purchaser. When it became evident that the bucket shops would have no quotations a panic seized the operators. In Todd's Exchange hundreds of excited men surrounded the buckers, desky arking all brokers' desks, asking all manner of questions. All was confusion and uncertainty. The brokers acting for Mr. Toud offered to accept any margins that might be put up, and stated that all contracts would run as usual. This assurance seemed to satisfy the

At Stockton's, Dixon's and other bucket shops in New street, there was the same exment. It was commonly said that if the commercial had gone out of business the bucket shops would have to stop. Later in the day it was said at the offices of the Commercial Telegram Company that the tickers had been stopped on direct orders from Mr.

An Argument on an Intervention in the Original Suit to Recover From Stockholders the Amount Due as Unpaid on Stock-Many Points Brought Out-Decision Re-

An argument was beard before Judge Ewing in Chambers, yesterday afternoon on an application to intervene in the suit of J. W. Johnson and others against the Markle Paper Co. The original suit was brought to recover from stockholders in the company the amount unpaid on their stock in order to meet creditors' claims against the Margaret McMasters owned $33,000 worth of stock in the concern, on which she owed $19,000. A decree, however, was made, ordering her to pay on $11,000, as that was the total sum of the claims of the plaintiffs.

The plaintiffs in the suit did not comprise all the creditors of the company, and others, Joseph Benedict, W. H. Parsons and Robert Monroe & Son filed applications to be allowed to intervene and share in the funds to be collected from the celinquent stockholders and distributed. They asked that the case be referred back to the master for a new decree and a pro rata distribution among all the creditors. The total indebtedness of the company, it is claimed, amounts to over $20,000, while only $11,000 was represented in the original bill. In the argument before Judge Ewing yesterday Joseph Benedict was represented by attorneys W. S. Purviance and Joseph Stadtfelt, and W. H. Parsons by Messrs. Cassidy and Richardson. Their application was resisted by attorneys C. C. Dickey and S. A. McCung for the original plaintiffs, who did not wish the security of their position disturbed, and J. S. Ferguson and E. Hartje for the Markle Paper Company, the defendants.

A. B. Stevenson and James McLaren, Esqs., have entered suit for damage, on behalf of C. Walker, against the Pennsylvania Bailway Company. The allegation is that plaintiff got on the train at Irwin to go somewhere and did not shut the door after him when he entered the car. A brakeman ordered him to do so and he refused to comply. In consequence of his refusal, Walker alleges that he was forced to become what his name implies and put to his refusal, Walker alleges that he was forced to become what his name implies and put to inconvenience and mental and physical pain. He contends that he was a guest of the company and, having paid for accommodation, was not obliged to shut doors.

The same attorneys have entered suit for damages acainst Charles and William Downey, asking $5,000 damages for the alleged beating of John Gregg. Charles Downey is the proprietor of the only saloon m Duquesne, and William, a brother, was barkeeper. As a monopoly of the saloon business in Duquesne is considered a big thing, it is probable the defendants will have a balance on the right side of the ledger, no matter what the result of the suit may be.

It is alleged that in 1884 Knipschild purchased from Ross a butcher shop, etc., at No. 2623 Penn avenue, agreeing to pay $1,500 at the rate of $39 per month. Knipschild took possession and made the payments regularly, öying in 1888. or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, or than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, the mindone or more, and sometimes all, yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust of constitutions. Ignored, because but little understood, by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charistans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved of it this side of the grave. It is time, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his Radical Cure has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is instantaneous in affording relief in all head colds, sneeding, snuffling and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the bead, sweetening the breath, restoring the senses of smell, taste and hearing, and neutralizing the constitutional tendency of the disease towards the lungs, liver and kidneys. well-known gentleman of Sharpsburg, siding on Eleventh street, and employed at the extensive steel works of Measrs, Spang, Chalfant & Co., of Sharpsburg, has passed through an eventful experience. His catarrh caused a stuffed-up feeling about his, nose and eyes. The catarrhal secretion that dropped from his head into his throat was so tenacious and hard to raise that in the morning it would often gag him and cause him to feel sick at his stomach His bearing became dull, he took cold very easily, had no appetite in the morning, and as his food did not digest properly, gas formed in his stomach, causing pain. He often felt dizzy and lost flesh. He tried various treatments, but without success. He also used local treat ments, but his disease gradually grew worse. In this condition he began treatment with the physicians of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute, 323 Penn avenue, and became cured by their constitutional medicines, which are always curative and permanent in their action. He can be seen at either his residence or place of business, and will gladly tell anyone further about his condition and cure.
