This, added to full schedule prices prior to the freight ad-vance, makes prices at most Northern points higher than buyers are yet prepared to pay. There is no combination among Southern producers, but a disposition is apparent to work in harmony and prevent what is deemed unnecessary cutting between different representatives of the same district. INTECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 Philadelphis Inquirer.! NEW YORK, January 1 .- No decided change has taken place in the iron and steel market. A heavy consumption of all kinds of material is in progress in all parts of the country. A large amount of material is under negotiation. Pig iron is particularly strong in all end, or, in other words, the relative positions markets. A pressure has been brought to bear upon Southern conpanies to name lower prices for large lots for delivery during the first six months of the year, but as yet no concessions have been made, and there seems to be no disposition to grant any. The demand for Southern iron is very urgent and the companies there are in a position to dictate terms. Certain large buy-position to dictate terms. Certain large buysure has been brought to bear of the two should have been reversed. The position to dictate terms. Certain large buy-ers in the West are willing to place contracts for iron for the last half of the year if conces-sions are granted. Throughout the North pig iron is very strong and furnace production is maintained at maximum limits. The contem-plated blowing in of new furnaces is reported at several points. Nalls are very strong East and West.

Bar iron manufacturers are well supplied Bay iron manufacturers are well supplied with orders, but there is not the same urgent demand for deliveries after 60 days that was ob-served in December. Skelp iron is strong. Wrought from pipe mills are expecting a heavy demand. The sheet iron makers report ur-gent inquiry. Rivets, small railway mate-rials, tubes and barb wire are all rials, tubes and oard wire are all under active inquiry and some large contracts are about being placed. The car builders are being heard from very favoribly and the de-mand from that quarter will assume large pro-portions, judging from the present indications and inquiries. Structural iron makers re-port an increase in inquiry for material for elevanted railroad work, public buildings, ware elevated railroad work, public buildings, ware-house and factory purpose. One very large contract for shaped iron has just been placed at a Pitthburg mill for a Chicago enterprise. Steel rails are strong at $55 in Eastern and $77 in Western mills. No Discouraging Feature Can be Noticed in Iron at Philadelphia.

PECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. PHILADELPHIA, January 17 .- The number of iron furnaces in blast has been steadily inreasing during the past six months, and 333 furnaces are now in operation with a capacity 174,038 tons per week, while only 285 Iurnaces with a capacity of 141,419 tons were at work in July, 1889. In this State 238 stacks are casting each week 20,494 tons of pig iron. There is a stiff market up on ore, and that helps to sustain the price of pig iron, while the increase in wages of mill hands causes a ten-acity among minutacturers to hold for higher prices. Steel rails advanced on on Thursday in Pittsburg, where the mills are rouning day and night. No advance in the East is yet noted. Shimmerits of ore from tons were at work in July, 1889. In East is yet noted. Shipments of ore fro the East is yet noted. Shipments of ore from Ashtabula harbor to supply the furnaces of the Maboning Valley in Ohio and at Pittsburg amount to 700,000 tons per week. It is interesting to note that while the great mills at Chicago and Joliet, III., comprising the plant of the Illinois Steel Commany, employ 9,247 men, Andrew Carnegie employs at his iron-works in this State 17,000 men. say: In the main the Chlcago market is quiet a hearing before Magistrate Gripp yestersay: In the main the Chicago market is quart A good carload business is going on supplying the wants of the smaller foundries who are compelled to buy from day to day to meet actual requirements. The larger con-sumers are pretty well filled up until March and April, and some even longer. New car contracts that have already been let, or shortly will be let, point to a large inquiry for pig and bar iron from that branch of the strong-lake Superior charced iron is the strongbar iron from that branch of the irade. Lake Superior charconi iron is the strong-est feature of the market, and it promises to remain so for some time to come. Production as shown by report of Jan-uary 1, is at the lowest point for several months and is apparently being reduced rather than in-creased, while domand is very active. It is stated that 52,000 tons have been contracted for use in making steel, this being about one-fifth of estimated output.

A rare instance of brute intelligence was witnessed on Chestnut street the other evening in a dog which was at the wrong end of 825,000 tons. A large portion of this immense the rope; a drunken man was at the right output, the greatest in the history of the greatattention of several men who were passing attention of several men who were passing was first attracted to the pair by the antics would be about $8,150,000, The output for 1888 of the dog. The brute-that is, the four- was in round numbers 5,000,000 tons, of the legged one-was almost a fully-bred pointer, and, when first noticed, was jumping up in the most singular manner, each jump succeeding a tug of the rope in the hands of the man. At times the canine, man and rope would become tangled up in the most inextricable snarl, as the man and the dog made their way up the street. It was in one of these tangles that the mystery of the dog's actions was solved. "Just watch that dog," suddenly said one of the men who were looking on. "He knows more than the man, by Jove!"

The man, dog and rope had just got out o a snarl, when the man gave the rope a vici-ous tug. It was then noticed that the rope, which was about the thickness of a lanyard, was fastened around the dog's neck in a slipknot no collar being around the dog's neck. At each tug of the rope it was plain that the brute-the four-legged one - was almost strangled, and when the strain was removed the dog made his regular jump. One of the onlookers indignantly started to rescue the suffering quadruped when he was stopped by one of his companions, who said: "Let them alone. Just see what the dog will do.

The dog had just completed one of his jumps when it was seen that he had taken the rope in his teeth and thus relieved the strain on his throat. He then trotted along contentedly until the man gave another tug and pulled the rope from between the ani-mal's teeth. This had evidently gone on for some time, to judge by the weariness of the dog. But the animal pluckily tried again and again and succeeded each time in saving himself a choking. "There's a clear case of a dog having more sense thau a man," said one of the group who had followed the couple for a whole square.

Grain, Flour and Feed.

There were no sales on call at the Grain Ex-change. Cereal markets are quiet all along the line. New shelled corn is weakest of the list, the principal bone of contention was as to the proper place to hold the World's Fair. The Board of Directors, it seems, had committed the Exchange to Washington as the proper place for the Fair. Since this committal new light appears to have dawned on the Exchange light appears to have dawoed on the Exchange, and a committee appointed a few days ago of-fered resolutions in favor of Chicaco. These resolutions were apparently the sentiment of the Exchange, but after some carnest discus-sion a motion was carried to let the whole mat-ter lie over until next Monday. Chicago evi-dently has the field so far as the Grain Ex-change is concerned, but Washington and New York are not without friends. The President is understood to favor New York, and one of the leading operators said to the reporter: "I have no besitation in saying that the place for the World's Fair is in the American metropo-ins, namely, New York.
