PASTOR AND PEOPLE.

Two Kinds of Charges Delivered at Installation Services.

SOME THANKS FROM JOHNSTOWN.

Any Person Can Have Something to Say Against the Ministry.

RELIGIOUS NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Installation day having arrived, the congregation are usually, with one accord, in one place. They listen attentively to the sermon preached by some personal friend of the pastor, but to those in the pews the most interesting part of the service is the "charge to the pastor," as they are so anxious that he be provided with the proper ammunition for his warfare. They seem oblivious to the fact that there is also a "charge to the people." If the one be essential, why is not the other of equal importance? If it be well for pastors to take heed how they water the flock, is it not also wise for the flock to follow their shepherd?

But do all congregations realize the responsibility of the pastor's position? as he stands in the pulpit as one sent of God; as he stands at the open grave to speak words of comfort to those who mourn the loss of friends who were so dear and so much loved. This is a reciprocal position, both parties having duties to fulfill and obligations to discharge. The Rev. J. M. Mercer, writing on this subject in the Presbyterian Banner, says: They are to remember that the power and influence of the pastor in the community at large will very much depend on the word they drop here and there as they mingle with men. An unkind word may cripple his influence forever with the children.

Second—It will wonderfully add to the power of his pulpit ministrations and to his pleasure as a Christian gentleman to know that he is among friends.

Third—Remember you have engaged to continue to your pastor the worldly support which you promised. Pay him "on time" as you have agreed. Let there be a happy union of business and religion.

Fourth—Give your pastor spiritual support. You need not tell him you have prayed for him, he will know it. By your presence and attentive listening you will encourage and inspire the heart of your pastor. There is a wonderful inspiration in attentive listeners.

Fifth—Remember that your paster is mortal and that a little rest now and then will do him good.

Sixth—Remember he has no means of knowing when you are sick and in distress save by the messengers of communication or intelligence. If you need him and want him send for him.

Co-operation is the thought to be emphasized. Until the people perform their part the Church will fail to accomplish its work. Our work may be but a small note "in the orchestra of earth and sky," but help to swell the grand chorus, for every note is needed.

***

Ho! Thou traveler on life's highway,
Mother of careless! Young;
Pausing not to watch the shadows
Lowering o'er the mighty throng;
Stand aside and mark how feebly
Some are struggling in the fight;
Turning on THEE wistful glances,
Begging thee to hold the light.

Words of Appreciation.

The congregation of the Johnstown Presbyterian Church, being assembled in their house of worship, which, by the favor of many friends, has been repaired from the damage done to it on the 31st of May, desire to give expression to the gratitude we feel for the assistance we have received. The first day of June found us utterly helpless and destitute. Many of our members were weeping over loved ones who had been so suddenly taken from us, and that, too, with no loved form to lay tenderly to rest, and rest upon it. Those to which sympathizing friends might come to cheer us. We fain would have entered the house of God to see comfort, but it was almost a ruin. Our desolation was complete. The summer has passed by and our time has been fully occupied in searching for our loved ones and in preparing homes for ourselves. We could not do more. But the generosity of our brethren has done what was beyond our unaided, and to-day we have our beloved church, made comfortable and attractive as a place of worship, and hither we come to find divine consolation.

From the fullness of our hearts we wish to give expression to our gratitude for these acts of kindness. Money has come from all parts of our land, in sums always generous and helpful, and why we cannot all personally go to the donors, we desire, through the medium of the press, by which our appeal for help was made, to express our appreciation of the kindness received. Our earnest prayer is that both churches and individuals who have ministered to us in temporal things may receive from our common Lord richer blessings in spiritual things; and all that we have received we humbly dedicate to the service of our blessed Master.

REV. W. H. MCFARLAND, D. D., has just completed 30 years pastorate at Cambridge, O. He has preached there 2,500 times, 280 sermons as chaplain in the army, 300 sermons in other places, making 3,080 altogether; 1,324 times he has attended funerals, 28 in 4 days at one time. When he began his labors there were 70 members, now over 350, having received 1,056, and baptized 501. The contributions have been $130,000. Certainly he deserves to hear the "well done."

REV. C. H. SPURGEON makes "John Ploughman" say to ministers: I never knew a good horse that had not some odd habit or other, and I never saw a minister worth his salt who had not some crochet or oddity. Now there are some bits of cheese that cavillers smell out and nibble at: the first is too flowery, the second too dull. Hear me, if all God's creatures were judged in this way we should write of the dove's neck for being too tame, shoot the robins for fighting sparrows, kill the cows for swinging their tails, and the hens for not giving us milk. Where is the man to beat a dog? It is easy to find a stick; and any fool can have something to say against the best ministers."

ONE cold is sometimes contracted on top of another, the accompanying cough becoming settled and confirmed, and the lungs so strained and racked, that the production of tubercules frequently follows. Many existing cases of pulmonary disease can be thus accounted for, and yet how many others are now carelessly allowing themselves to drift through the preliminary symptoms, controlled by the fatal policy of allowing a cold to take care of itself! On the first intimation of a cough or cold, or any throat or lung trouble, resort promptly to Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, a safe curative of long established reputation, and you may avoid the consequences of such dangerous trifling.

PRAISE FOR BIGELOW.

Judge White Openly Compliments the Chief on His Efficiency.

THAT PEOPLE'S GAS ROW SETTLED.

Mr. Alcorn Will Petition to Condemn Herr's Island Property.

OTHER GENERAL NEWS OF THE COURTS

The argument on the injunction of the city on the People's Natural Gas Company, restraining them from proceeding with tearing up Bates, Forbes and Emily streets for the purpose of laying their mains, came up before Judge White in Common Pleas Court No. 2 yesterday morning. Chief Bigelow, who asked for the injunction, was on hand, with City Attorney Moreland, while Attorney Sol. Schoyer represented the company. After the argument had been in progress for some time, a compromise was made through the efforts of Mr. Bigelow. He agreed to allow the company to go ahead with the work if they would agree to be responsible for any damage suits that might arise, and would agree to do the work within four days, replacing the streets in as good condition as before, and, further, to repave the portions of the streets torn up a second time after the summer weather had set in and the frost was out of the ground. The conditions were all accepted and the matter was settled amicably there and then.

Judge White was so well pleased with the turn the affair had taken that he took occasion to remark in open court that he considered Mr. Bigelow one of the most conscientious, diligent and efficient officers the city of Pittsburg ever had.

Mr. Bigelow's face lighted up as he heard these kind words from the Court, and impulsively he arose, and, walking up beside the Judge on the bench, grasped him warmly by the hand and thanked him for his good opinion.

The situation was so unusual that when the City Attorney saluted Mr. Bigelow as he stood beside the Judge with "How do you do, Judge?" a general laugh ran around the courtroom.

MRS. HAMMERFAHR'S WILLS.

By Her Last Will the Charitable Bequests Would Fail.

About noon yesterday Attorney Friedman filed for probate the will of the late Henrietta Hammerfahr. The document was dated January 1, 1890, and bequeaths $1,000 to the Evangelical Protestant Orphan Asylum, of West Liberty; $100 to the German Catholic Orphan Asylum of the Southside, and $100 to Passavant Hospital. The balance of her property is given to her sister, Amelia Of.

An hour later the Rev. Mr. Ruoff entered the Register's office with another will made by Mrs. Hammerfahr. The provisions were the same as the other, but it had been made in 1887. When Mr. Ruoff learned of the later will he took the second one away. An odd result of the two wills is that by the will first made the charitable bequests would be valid and stand, but by the later will they would fall through. This is owing to the law governing wordd charitable bequests in a will made within 30 days prior to the death of the testator.

A HUSBAND'S RIGHTS.

Mr. McDonald Would Have His Share Under the Intestate Laws.

Judge Over, of the Orphans' Court, yesterday handed down an opinion on a question in dispute concerning the will of Mrs. Margaret McDonald. The will was a noted one, having been contested by the husband, and the case was known as the Irish will case. The will, which left the property to Mrs. McDonald's sister, was sustained, but the husband refused to take under it, claiming his share under the intestate laws. The legatees objected to his claim, bringing forth a paper signed by the husband, agreeing to accept under the provisions of the will.

The husband refuted this agreement, stating that he signed it before he knew the contents of the will.

Judge Over, in his opinion, decided in favor of the husband. He said that when the husband signed the paper he did not know the contents of the will. His rights were not explained to him, and it was therefore impossible for him to make an intelligible election.

CONDEMNING THE PROPERTY.

Mr. Alcorn Will Petition for That Herr's Island Ground.

Assistant United States District Attorney Alcorn yesterday prepared a petition which he will file in the Common Pleas Court to-day, asking for the condemnation of property for the Herr's Island dam. The property in question is a strip about 400 by 40 feet, on the Allegheny side of the river, belonging to Allegheny City. The land, which Allegheny Councils refused to grant the Government, and is wanted for the erection of a supporting abutment for the dam.

AGAINST ONE BRAND.

Suit Entered to Prevent Dealers Making Sales.

Walter G. Davis and others yesterday filed a bill in equity against Meyers & Tate asking the Court to enjoin the defendants from purchasing or selling canned corn having for sale the labels of the Winslow Jones Company, Limited, or the Winslow Packing Company, and that they be required to account to plaintiffs for all profits derived from the unlawful sale of canned corn bearing said label.

She Wouldn't Sell.

A bill in equity was filed yesterday by R. V. Pitcairn against Elizabeth R. Wallace. Pitcairn alleges that he agreed to purchase from the defendant a house and lot on Arch street, Allegheny. He paid $25 consideration money, with the privilege of consummating the sale within 60 days. He afterward made a tender of the purchase money, but the defendant refused to comply with the agreement and sell him the property. He asks for a decree to compel her to keep the agreement and make the sale to him.

BRIDGET COYNE pleaded guilty to selling liquor without a license in Chartiers township.

JACOB METZ pleaded guilty to the larceny of some clothing from a car on the Pennsylvania Railroad. He was sentenced four months to the workhouse.

THE jury is out in the case of R. Niblock against the Pittsburg Natural Gas Company, a suit for damages for a right of way taken through Niblock's property.

HAMPTON MILLER yesterday filed a second appeal from the will of his father, A. H. Miller, the first appeal having been dismissed because the bond was not filed within the proper time.

THE jury is out in the case of Sarah A. Savage against the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company for damages for the death of her husband, who died from lockjaw resulting from a wound caused by the explosion of a firecracker on an excursion train on the Allegheny Valley Railroad.

JOSEPH and Mary Saipert, charged by their daughter with the larceny by bailee of a sewing machine, were found not guilty. The daughter alleged that the sewing machine was purchased for her on the installment plan, with the understanding that when she was married she could take it with her. She got married, but her parents refused to give her the machine and she entered the information.

WILLIAM G. DOUGLASS yesterday entered suit against Thomas Carson and William Frederick for $1,500 damages. He alleges that Carson and Frederick, when excavating and grading Irwin avenue, Allegheny, placed a heap of dirt in front of his house on the street. They allowed it to remain there, and it diverted the surface drainage, causing it to run over his ground, and damage the walls of his house, etc.

—J. W. Wenman, a New York cotton broker, announced his suspension on the Cotton Exchange yesterday morning.

—Boston was scorched again yesterday, the business district suffering from fire to the extent of about $300,000.

—A Brooklyn jury has awarded $5,000 to Dora Klein in her suit for $10,000 against William M. Peas for breach of promise.

—Tom Williams clubbed Manager Hirsch, of the San Francisco Evening Post, because of publication concerning May Yohe, the actress.

—At Huron, S. D., it was 28° below zero and getting colder. Wagon roads are blockaded with snow, but it is thought the settlers will not suffer.

—Five hundred grain porters at London have struck for an advance in wages. As a result of the strike the grain traffic on some docks is at a standstill.

Fire early yesterday morning damaged the piano factory of Christian H. Henning, on Eleventh street, New York, to the extent of $25,000. Fully insured.

—Potsdam, St. Lawrence county, N. Y., had a conflagration yesterday morning, six stores on Market street being destroyed. Loss, $40,000; insurance about $30,000.

—Large fields of ice moved down into the channel between Cheboygan, Mich., and Bois Blanc and the whole mass is frozen solid. This closes the straits about ten days later than last year.

—The results of the German-Czech conference held in Berlin have exceeded expectations. The conference has succeeded in reconciling all the differences between the Czechs and Germans in Bohemia.

—The Senate Committee on Patents yesterday instructed Senator Piatt to report favorably the bill known as the Chase International Copyright bill, which was pending before Congress last session.

—A trader named Roy was kicked to death at St. Francis Riviere du Sud, Montgomery county, Quebec, by a man who afterward fled in the direction of the United States. The murderer is supposed to be a former partner of Roy's, with whom he had had financial trouble.

—Senator Poe has introduced into the Maryland Legislature the Australian ballot law prepared by the Democratic Business Men's Association of Baltimore, with amendments. The amendments provide that the ballot clerks in the counties are to be appointed by the Governor.

—In England the opening of Eton College has been postponed owing to the prevalence of influenza. The disease in a severe form prevails among the officers and crews of the American Squadron of Evolution now in the Mediterranean. There are 180 cases of the disease on board the Chicago alone.

—No trains have passed between Alamosa and Durango, Col., since last Friday. The passenger train which left Alamosa that day pulled by three engines is now snowbound near Cumberes, and all the engines are off the track. Snow plows are at work, and it is expected the road will be opened some time to-day.

—An important memorial to Congress has been adopted by the Nebraska Horticultural Society. It protests against the movement which has lately been organized to secure the repeal of the timber culture act. It admits that there have been frauds practiced on the Government, but suggests a closer inspection and a stricter construction of the law.

—Judge Barrett, in the New York Supreme Court Chambers yesterday, granted an attachment against the property in the State of the San Diego and eastern Railroad of California, and William H. Carlson and William Graves. The writ was granted in a suit to recover $16,480 with interest, on two notes executed by the corporation and indorsed by Carlson and Graves.

—The Mexican Consulate at Laredo, Tex., has prepared a report of the exports and imports at that port for the month of December last, which has created somewhat of a sensation in business circles, owing to the unprecedented increase over any former month's business. The exports to Mexico were $770,000, and the imports from Mexico were $360,000, making a grand total for the year of $10,500,000, which it is increase of $2,000,000 over that for 1888.

—A bad wreck occurred on the Kansas City, Ft. Scott and Memphis Railroad. The engine of the west-bound local freight left the track, carrying five loaded cars with it. The engine turned over, catching Engineer O. R. Howland, Fireman R. C. Morrison and Brakeman T. C. Hughey under it. Brakeman Widdowson was caught in the wreck of the cars and sustained severe internal injuries. Herman was instantly killed; Howland had a leg broken, and Hughey was frightfully scalded about the head and hands.

"THEY DO NOT SPEAK AS THEY PASS BY."

What does it mean? Why, simply this: Mr. Smith has been under Dr. Jones' treatment for Dyspepsia and overwork for nearly a year and has paid him several fat bills, although he never got any better. One day a friend of his had been cured by, insisted on Smith's getting a bottle of Rogers' Royal Nerve-fine. He did so under protest, saying he had "taken gallons of patent medicine with the result of doing more harm than good." But he made a mistake. Rogers' Royal Nerve cured him in less than two months, and now he says Dr. Jones is an old ignoramus and Dr. Rogers a benefactor to his race. This is why Mr. Smith and Dr. Jones "don't speak as they pass by," and this is but one of thousands of similar cases.

FOUR DOCTORS FAIL.

DR. SHAFER.

Mr. William Hurley, living at No. 131 Seventeenth street, Southside, has had an experience that almost baffles description. The diseased condition of his kidneys caused a puffy appearance under his eyes, his skin was very yellow, his feet and legs would often bloat, he had a very severe pain in his back and kidneys, which at times was so sharp that it seemed as if a knife was cutting through them, and he would often feel very stiff and sore in the morning. His urine was high-colored, his appetite poor, and he had feeling of gas rising after eating. His aches and pains continued to grow worse until there was hardly a spot in his body free from pain.

He says: "I had four doctors, but all failed to give me any relief. When I began treating with the physicians of the Polypathic Institute I had not been able to work for five months, and often was not able to walk or get around in the house, except by crawling on my hands and knees. After taking their medicines for four weeks I became greatly improved, and at the end of two months was entirely cured. I could not ask to feel better than I now do." Dr. Shafer's address is:

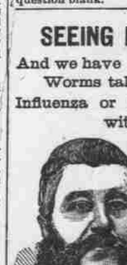
Mr. Hurley is well-known in Pittsburg, and his many friends will gladly testify to his condition and his complete cure. All forms of kidney and urinary diseases, chronic diseases and surgery successfully treated.

Office hours, 10 A. M. to 4 P. M., and 6 to 8 P. M. Sundays, 1 to 4 P. M. Consultation free and strictly confidential. Patients at a distance treated with success by letter. Write for a question blank. ja7-TTS

SEEING IS BELIEVING

And we have got them. 64 Tape Worms taken in 52 weeks.

Influenza or "La Grippe" cured without fail.



I permanently located in Allegheny City one year ago for the purpose of convincing the people that I have a cure for all the curable ailments of the human family. Since then I have cured 64 persons of tapeworm; the last five I treated and cured were:

Fred Gebhardt, of Apollo, Pa., who had been treated by five doctors that failed to relieve him. He came to me on the 8th of December last, and in two hours I removed a tapeworm, measuring 184 feet. On the same day came a lady who had taken 14 doses for tapeworm, but all failed. I cured her in a few hours. On December 15 I treated Chas. Lampus and a small child of Mrs. Gross, of Spring Garden ave., Allegheny, for tapeworm, being successful in both cases; and on December 20 I removed a large tapeworm from Charles Mauche, Bennett station, Pa. They will all testify to the mildness of my treatment.

In reference to the head of a tapeworm I will state that it is no cure unless the head is removed. Call at my office and I will show you hundreds that I have removed, head and all. Since I am here I have cured hundreds of cases of catarrh, stomach, kidney and liver troubles, and many of rheumatism, falling fits, paralysis, eczema, hemorrhoids and secret diseases. I also cure cancer without the aid of knife.

My remedies are 10 in number, and will become standard family medicines whenever they are given a trial. One especially I call your attention to. That is my SYSTEM RENOVATOR, a combination of 19 different roots and herbs that work in harmony on the human system and lay a foundation for the cure of all chronic diseases, and will cure seven cases out of ten of them. Call for Dr. Burgoon's System Renovator at all drug stores. If they have not got it send to 47 Ohio st., Allegheny, Pa., for it, and you will save money, suffering and your lives.

I will refund your money if you ever had its equal in your family. Send stamp for circular to DR. BURGOON, 47 Ohio street, Allegheny City, Pa.
