

FORAKER MORTIFIED.

The Ex-Governor Expresses Sorrow at the Way He Was Imposed On, AS HE SAYS HE WAS BY WOOD.

An Entire Session Given to Hearing the Late Candidate's Story.

THE FORGERY GIVEN TO HALSTEAD.

Who Said He Could Easily Use the Paper Against Campbell Alone.

Ed Henderson had been seeking the appointment of another man. When witness got back to his office on the 13th of September, he examined letters bearing the signature of Messrs. Sherman, Besterwood and McKinley. He also sent for John W. Clements and showed him Governor Campbell's signatures on the paper. Clements said that he usually signed "James E. Campbell," but thought the signature was genuine.

WASHINGTON, JANUARY 17.—

Mr. Wood, the witness, testified that on August 17, 1907, he received a letter from Wood saying that he had made a contract with Wood, who had the contract, and that Wood was to give him the contract. Wood said that he had made a contract with Wood, who had the contract, and that Wood was to give him the contract.

WOOD'S BAD RECORD.

The witness then told of his conversation with Wood. Mayor Mosby refused to appoint the letter Snook Inspector on account of charges against him. The witness heard that the principal charge was that he had a bad police court record.

THE TARENUM MURDER.

Nothing new in the Tarentum murder case was developed yesterday. The employers of the Gilkinley Detective Agency are out on the case, working early and late. They expect a development within a very few days.

THE WRONG MAN.

Three Tustin Street Men Endeavored to Scare Detective Fitzgerald. Detectives went to Tustin street yesterday morning. He spoke to one, who was intoxicated, and threatened him with arrest if he did not leave himself and go home.

ACCUSED OF DESERTION.

The Flowers Bloom No More for Two Disconsolate Widows. Alderman McKenna yesterday sent Joseph Bloom to jail to await a hearing on a charge of desertion.

WOOD IN COLUMBUS.

Witness had notified Wood to be at Columbus September 11, to attend to it. September 11 Wood came to Columbus and brought the forged papers. He had accidentally mislaid this date before.

FORAKER MORTIFIED.

The witness said he accepted the paper without question as to its genuineness. It led to all the mortification he has experienced about this whole matter.

THE STATE OF TRADE.

Unfavorable Weather Continues to Affect General Business.

COLLECTIONS REPORTED SLOW.

Prices on all lines are a Shade Lower Than a Week Ago.

STATUS OF THE SPECULATIVE MARKET.

The Scarcity of Coal Traffic is Injuring the Reading Railroad.

Reports to Bradstreet's and R. G. Dun & Co. show no increase in volume of trade. The weather is believed to be responsible for all trouble.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

New York, January 17.—Special telegrams to Bradstreet's report an irregular movement of general merchandise.

The New York stock market closes dull and firm, without significant changes during the week. The Coalers have been most active.

THE SPECULATIVE MARKET.

The New York stock market closes dull and firm, without significant changes during the week. The Coalers have been most active.

TRADE IS DEPRESSED AT St. FRANCISCO.

At St. Francisco, the trade is steady. Manufacturers at Cleveland are active, but nearly all trade is dull.

WINTER EXCURSIONS TO WASHINGTON.

Division Passenger Agent Smith, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, has inaugurated his midwinter excursions to Washington and Baltimore.

QUALITY WILL TELL.

Of 2,454,400 cases of packages imported during the past ten years, comprising 26 brands, over one-fourth was "G. H. Mumms' Extra Dry," which during the same period was over 200,000 cases in excess of any other brand.

MARRIED.

OVERHOLT-TORRENCE—On Thursday, January 16, 1908, at Trinity P. E. Church, New York City, by the Rev. John L. Taylor, Rev. C. Overholt, of Scotland, Pa., and Gen. TREND, daughter of George A. Torrence, Esq.

DECEASED.

CRAGG—At her residence, 2510 Canal street, on Wednesday, January 15, 1908, at 7:30 P. M., Mrs. JANE CRAGG, in the 41st year of her age.

UNCHANGED CONDITIONS.

Iron and steel are without change in price. Demand is large but supply is ample. The distribution of coffee has been more satisfactory and prices firm.

SOMEWHAT UNSETTLED.

It also appears that the market for bar iron is somewhat unsettled, with a tendency toward concessions, and plate iron is steady.

OUR JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE.

Now is the time to buy a sea-skin garment. Prices lower than they have ever been or ever will be.

B. & B.

Girls' one and two-piece dresses. Prices cut in half and less.

FORAKER MORTIFIED.

The witness said he accepted the paper without question as to its genuineness. It led to all the mortification he has experienced about this whole matter.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

A NEW Floor Covering

BYZANTINE SQUARES

AND RUGS.

This entirely new fabric is now shown for the first time in Pittsburgh.

They are similar to Smyrna Squares and Rugs.

Like the Smyrnas, they are woven in one piece with borders.

Both sides can be used—like Smyrnas.

They are finer in texture and finish than Smyrnas.

The designs and colorings are in high art effects—largely in self-colors, and are soft and beautiful as Moquettes.

They are nearly one-half the price of Smyrnas.

See our window display of Byzantine Floor Coverings.

N. B.—We will finish stock-taking in a few days and will then announce a sacrifice sale of patterns of Carpets not to be run another season.
