IN A HISTORICAL VEIN.

The first national meeting of the Scotch-Irish societies was held at Columbia, Tenn., in last May. At that meeting Robert Bon-ner, of New York, was elected President. In his annual address he ascribed the in-ception of the movement to Mr. Thomas T. Wright of Florida. The Tennesseeana ererted every effort to make the initial meeting a success, and the occasion was productive of the greatest unanimity of sentiment in the matter of bringing into closer connection the Scotch-Irish of the nation. The objects of the national movement are social and historical. Through its members dats in regard to lineage and American achievements of the race are to be compiled, Princeton College being the repository for all matters historical.

On May 29, 30 and 31 the exercises will be general in character, addresses being experted from some of the most eminent orators of the nation. Further details of organization and reports of an interesting nature will be received. There will be the best of music of a type embracing both Scotland's bards and Ireland's minstrels, the details of which are now being arranged under the auspices of the Executive Committee. As regards the place of holding the convention several offers are now under consid-eration. The sub-committees on entertainment, railroads, welcome, finance, etc., have been appointed, but have not yet been snnounced. Colonel Echoia stated that the task of raising $10,000 to cover current expenses, including a grand banquet, has been an easy one, Andrew Carnegie ' personal contribution having been the neat sum of $1,000.

AFTER OLD TIME MANNERS.

The Covenanter mass meeting, to be held on the evening of Sunday, June 1, will be a huge affair. It will probably be held at the main building of the Exposition, which will doubtless by that time be arranged tor the series of summer concerts now almost assured. The matter of the use of the building will be attended to during the present week. The service will be a curiosity a -cording to the modern acceptation. The Psalms of David, House's version, will be

FAMOUS PEOPLE INVITED.

Invitations to be present have been sent to President Harrison and his Cabinet, a num-ber of Senators and Congressmen, such leading divines as T. DeWitt Talmage, Rev. Dr. Phillip Brooks and some of the most eloquent members of the bar of the nation. Among those of national reputation who will be in attendance upon the sessions of the congress are the following:

the congress are the following: Dr. McCosh, late President of Princeton Col-lege; Dr. John Hall, of New York; Alex, K. McClure, Vice President of the Congress and editor of the Philadelphia Timez; Robert Bon-ner, President of the Congress; ex-Governor Andrew Curtin, of Pennsylvauia; Dr. Goetchins, of Charleston, S. C.; Dr. MacIntosh, of Fhiladelphia; Dr. Paimer, of New Orleans; Judge Pressly, of Edgefield, S. C., who tried John Yeidell, and who is, by the way, a nephew of the famous Dr. Pressly, of the Allerbeau John Yeldell, and who is, by the way, a nephew of the famous Dr. Pressly, of the Allegheny U. P. Seminary; A. C. Floyd, Secretary of the Congress; C. W. McKeehan, of Philadelphia Secretary of the Pennsylvania Scotch-Irish So-ciety; George W. Childs, of the Philadelphia Ledger; Andrew Carnegie; Hon. Proctor Knott, the silver-tongued Kentuckian; Prof. McCloskie, of Princeton College; Hon. William Wirt Henry, Patrick Henry's graudson; Col-onel Colyar, editor of the Nashville Banner-American; Postmaster General Wanamaker; Corporal Tanner, Hon. Benton McMillin, Ten-messee, and hundreds of others of Scotch-Irish geneology who have made name and fame on American soil.

It is an interesting fact that at the first session of the congress, a Pittsburg woman, Mrs. Sara A. Leitch, contributed a most interesting paper upon the subject: "The Sharon Tragedy; an Incident of the Irish Rebellion in 1798." Interest having been aroused in the matter, a large number of valuable historical contributions are expected at the forthcoming congress.

A Good Reason.

Dr. J. C. Anthony, of Odell, Neb., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives good satisfaction and is a big seller." The rea-son it sells so well is that people who use it find it so much superior to any other medicine they have ever used that they persuade their friends and neighbors to try it. No one troubled with a cough or cold can use it without benefit. It does not suppress a cough, but loose and relieves it, entirely freeing the system from the effect of a cold and leaving it in a natural and healthy condition. TISU
