AN HONEST ELECTION.

Whether It Can be Best Secured by Federal Supervision or Not.

PASCO AND CHANDLER DISAGREE.

They Pass a Few Pleasant Little Remarks About the '76 Affair.

THE CIVIL SERVICE LAW UNDER FIRE.

Charges Against the Commission Detailed and Con sidered.

The debate on Federal control of elections commenced yesterday in the Senate in earnest. Senators Pasco and Chandler had a little tilt over the 1876 decision in Florida. The charges against the Civil Service Commissioners are stated in full.

attempt was to be made to seize the electoral machinery of the States. The power of the general Government over State elections had been sparingly exercised in the past. No political party would have dared, before the war, to enter on a political campaign with a plank in its platform claiming the right to exercise control over elections in the States. It was only being inaugurated States as inferior to Northern States. The the Sterrett Union or the Day Nursery message of the President, he said, had contained no syllable in favor of free and honest elections, except as to the suppression of the votes of colored people at the South. There was no evidence before the country of any such suppression. None had been communicated to Congress. It was simply a matter of interence. He presented some election statistics from Eastern, Western and Southern States, to prove that "the silent voter is increasing in every section of the country.

THE OLD WAY FOR HIM.

In conclusion, Mr. Pasco stated that his voice and vote would be given in favor of standing by the methods of election which had come down from the days of Washington and Jefferson.

Mr. Chaudler said there was one citizen of Florida who will not come North to testify concerning political outrages, and who might be termed a "silent voter." That man was John Burr, a colored citizen of Madison county, Fin., who, in October last, having been to Jacksonville as a witness concerning political outrages, was killed on his return to Madison county by the Demo-crats of that county on account of the testi-mony which he had given. He also re-minded Mr. Pasco of other political mur-dem and outrages in Florida mine ac for ders and outrages in Florida, going as far back as 1881. If there was any one State that needed the benefit of a Federal election law in connection with Congressional elections it was the State of Florida. He submitted to the Senator (Mr. Pasco) whether he had not better, under the circumstances, waive his objection to national interferences and to the passage of a national election law that would, at least, secure elections in Florida that would be-for once in the history of that Sinte-both honest and peaceful.

HIS STATE IN '76.

Mr. Pasco expresses the belief that the elections in Florida, ever since the memora-ble one of 1876, were as fair, as peaceful and as quiet as they were in New England. It was not surprising that there were some irregularities then, because the Senator (Mr. Chandler) had been one of the principal agents in the Florids election fraud in 1876, and the demoralization resulting from that had not entirely disappeared.

The allusion to his course in Florids in 1876 was taken up by Mr. Chandler, who denied the charge that he had then ap-pronched the Chairman of the State Cansterrett Union Will Meet To-Day-Offices Held by Those Against the W. that there is no ill feeling existing between the members of the W. C. T. U. and those of the new alliance, everything points to a lively meeting of Sterrett Union in Allegheny to-day, in which there is likely to be some very spirited discussion. At the last meeting of the union the managers of the Day

Nursery, who are members of the union, asked to be released from further control of the institution. This was refused by an almost unanimous vote, but it is claimed that there were many irregularities about the voting. The question will be raised to-day by one of the managers, as to where the union gets its authority to count proxy votes, as it is claimed about 20 of these were cast and counted when the vote was taken on the motion for the release of the board. It is

WASHINGTON, January 20,-Mr. Pasco also claimed that members of the union who to-day addressed the Senate on the para- never saw the Day Nursery before were taken to that meeting for the purpose of regraph in the President's message relating to Federal control of elections. He said the is said to be that the members of Sterrett Union were fearful that if the board was released there would be a dispute over the $2,000 which was made through the work of the Day Nursery and which had been in-vested in the name of Mrs. Stevenson, the President of the board, as trustee. These matters have been creating a feeling among the women, and while they have not allowed strife to enter into the meetings, the States. It was only being inangurated now. It had been a fact that, since the war, Republican leaders had treated Southern the new alliance who hold office either in tend to hand in their resignations to day, and probably will. But the members on the other side claim that this will be unnecessary as Miss Willard, the National Pres-ident, has issued a manifesto declaring vacant all the offices held by those who have declared themselves against the W. C. T. U. This will bring out another point which may be raised as to the right of the nonpartisan women to attend the meetings of the union they have forsaken. This has already been answered, however, by the statement that the women have not ceased to be members of the union, and will not until they resign, or the time for which their dues are paid expires. The Board of Managers of the Day Nursery met yesterday atternoon, but nothing was given out for publication. The meeting was a secret one. It is understood that the board discussed the matter of the $2,000, and what disposition should be made of it. It was reported that the Advisory Board had been consulted, and it was learned from them that if the board ceased to control the Day Nursery the money would revert to the Sterrett Union. It was stated by a member of the beard last evening that the managers will unite in insisting upon a release and if it is still refused they will all resign. There is some talk that in case things take that turn a new Day Nursery will be established on a larger and more extensive scale. Marriage Licenses Granted Yesterday. Residence.

Recognize No Competition.

HAVE NO RIVALS IN POPULARITY.

We stand alone as the only absolutely One Price Cash House in our line of business in Pittsburg and we tower above the small fry like the giant oak in a forest of saplings.

One of Pittsburg's most conservative citizens asked us the other day for THE SECRETS OF OUR GREAT SUCCESS. We gave it to him, and for the benefit of the scores of thousands of the readers of The Dispatch, here they are, just as we gave them to him:

First: We represent matters truthfully to our patrons.

Second: We are strictly one price dealers.

Third: We aim to handle reliable goods only.

Fourth: We treat every one alike, rich or poor.

Fifth: We name lowest prices in the city.

Sixth: We guarantee all we sell to give every satisfaction or we cheerfully and promptly return purchase money.

Seventh: We keep goods to suit everybody.

Eighth: We say what we can do and we do what we say.

We have dealings with all classes of people from the good, plain, every-day laborer, his wife and children, who come trudging to our store on foot in all sorts of weather, to the millionaire, the millionaire's wife and millionaire's children, who visit our establishment in well appointed equipages. To everybody we are polite, attentive and courteous, to all prompt and liberal in our dealings. They each speak good words of us because of our fair, liberal and honest dealings with them. With us it has always been not how much we could get for our reliable goods, but how low we could sell them for.

You Read Other Clothiers Advertisements,

Of course! Many of you have responded to them, and what have you found them to be in the main? Words, idle words. Braggadocio and sensationalism find no place with us; our store is the home of TRUTH! We are indebted neither to shrewd advertising, nor good location for our good name. Our location is what we ourselves have made it.

"Discount," "Sacrifice" and "Bargain" Sales have sprung up on all sides this month. In this connection let us impress it upon you that we're alive to the situation. No odds how low Overcoats, Suits, Pants, Hats, Caps, Furnishing Goods or Footwear are offered elsewhere, you are always certain of finding the same things (but of better quality) here for less money. Don't allow your foresight to be blinded by the dust the clothing "fakirs" kick up.

the Commissioners Are Stated in Full.

WASHINGTON, January 20 .- The House Committee on Reform in the Civil Service met to-day to hear arguments on the resolution introduced recently by Representative Ewart, of North Carolina, to investigate the charges against the Civil Service Commission, and the bill introduced by Representative Houk, of Tennessee, to repeal the civil service law, and to regulate and improve, classify and properly apportion the offices and employes of the public service to the States and Territories. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physi-cians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint and com-pletely restored my health."-Jease M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was rec-ommended to me for catarrh, I was in-clined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little ben-efit, I had no faith that anything would efit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emaciated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and re-ferred me to persons whom it had cured of catarrh.
