A Happy New Year on the 20th of 'Jancitizens who have Chinese laundrymen in their midst. Yesterday was the Chinese

New Year, and was appropriately celebrat-

The first effort was made by her husband, who represented to Quong Sin that the lady was very ill, and the smoke of the firecrackers penetrated the walls and made her worse. Quong didn't seem to care, and fired off some more crackers, and burned paper prayers before his idle customers with the utmost sang froid, and American matches, made by one of the monopolies con-demned by the labor element of the country.

The good work went on, and the josses were appeared, but the American matron became more irritated, and when the almond-eyed gentlemen commenced to lower big strings of firecrackers from the roof and fire them from the bottom, the Stars and Stripes and the lady got ahead. She stationed herself in the lower story window, and laying the sprinkling hose on made herself mistress of the situation. Every time a fresh bunch of firecrackers was ignited next door the lady poured a stream of water and of eloquence on the subject, and put the subject, i. e.,

Secretary Scandrett Tells of the Salaries of Local Players.

THE SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

Walter Hewitt talks interestingly of the sharp practice of the new League officials. Secretary Scandrett tells what Carroll and other local players received in salary last year. Ad. Gumbert promises to sign a Brotherhood contract to-day.

SEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. WASHINGTON, January 20 .- "Sharp practice is the order of the day with the Brotherhood," said President Walter Hewitt, of the Washingtons, to-day. "And I mean't from personal experience and not During a conversation, Cusick, who is an at-I speak from personal experience, and not from hearsay. Some time ago I went North to visit some of the players who were with me last year, and among those with whom I conversed was Ferson. There was no beating about the bush, but I told him plainly that I desired his services for the season of '90, and I inquired if he was ready to talk

This sum seemed to please him, but I did not propose to hurry him and told him to take a couple of weeks to think the matter over, and let me know at the end of that period what I might expect from him. Two weeks rolled by and I did not receive a word from Ferson, but it was subsequently stated that he had gone to the Brotherhood and told them of my offer. They at once proposed that he should work for them at the same figure, and that is Ferson's explanation of how he came to be in the ranks of the Brotherhood. While on the same journey I met Hov but he seemed imbued with the idea that the boys wanted him in the Brotherbood, and he declared his intention of sticking

A Good Offer From New Orleans for Mc Bride and O'Leary.

John Quinn, of this city, received a telegram yesterday from the Secretary of the Young Men's Gymnastic and Athletic Club of New Orleans, stating that that club would give a purse of $850 for a battle between McBride and O'Leary. Mr. Quinn, in behalf of McBride, at once accepted the offer. He wired Mr. Sweeney, O'Leary's backer, pointing out the gain of the two men fighting at New Orleans.
Buffalo offers only $500, and Mr. Quinn shows that the winner, if the battle takes place at New Orleans, can get $700 and the loser $150 from the purse. The latter figure, he claims, will pay expenses. It is likely that the two men will fight at New Orleans.
If the fight takes place there, it is probable that Jack Fogarty and Sailor Brown, who was

SOME POINTED WORDS.

Old Sport Galvin and Scandrett Discuss the Two Clubs' Prospects.

Secretary Scandrett, of the old club, and Jimmy Galvin, now signed with the new club, met on Fifth avenue vesterday afternoon and had a friendly exchange of opinions regarding the prospects of the two clubs. Mr. Scandrett was so certain of the results of the conflict that he would not admit of any possibility of the old club's defeat. He said:

Mike Cleary, Donovan and Muldoon in Mississippi Law's Grip. PEPECTAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

NEW ORLEANS, January 20 .- William Muldoon, Mike Cleary and Mike Donovan, arrested for participating in the Sullivan-Kilram prize fight last summer, reached Purvis to-day in charge of Mr. Jayne, the agent of the State of Mississippi, who arrested them in New York, There was no one at Purvis to take charge of them, and a deputy sheriff had to be telethem, and a deputy sheriff had to be telegraphed for. They were then surrendered to the deputy, in whose charge they remain.

The absence of the leading merchants of Purvis prevented bonds being given, but it is thought that bail can be obtained to-morrow, when the prisoners will be released. They will go to New Orleans, returning to Purvis when their case is called for trial. They seemed somewhat disturbed at first. Muldoon explained that he did not know what State he was in until a tew hours before the fight. He announced his intention to plead guilty and trust to the clemency of the Court. Colonel J. B. Deason, who represented Kilrain when on trial here, will act for Muldoon, Cleary and Donovan.

HEENAN'S FRIEND.

Jim Cusick Pays a Short Visit to Pittsburg

Acquaintances. Jim Cusick, brave old Cusick, was in town vesterday for a few hours. He was returning from the funeral of a relative, who had been buried in the West. Old-time patrons of the ring know of Cusick, who was behind J. C. Heenan, in the latter's memorable fight with tendant at Delmonico's, New York, and has been for years, argued that fighting to-day is not worth the name compared to the battles of old times, for instance when Sayers and Heenan fought in 1860. Mr. Cusick is now 59 years old, and is worth $40,000. He is one of the old-timers, who has made good hay in summer time. Old Jem Ward always had a very high opinion of Cusick as a man, and particular as an honest business man. Cusick's presence al-ways recalls old times to old timers.

Pittsburg Foiled.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. CINCINNATI, January 20.-Negotiations for the purchase of the release of Charles W. Marr, the crack all-around player, were con pleted to-day and Columbus has turned him over to Cincinnati, Louisville and Rochester were the last clubs in the Association to waive claim to his services and they did so merely to prevent him from carrying out his threat to join the Pittsburg Players' League team.

Their Salaries.

Last evening Secretary Scandrett, of the old dub, was asked what Carroll and others received as salaries last year, all told. He said: "Carroll got $2,500; Galvin, $3,000; Manl, $2,000 Fields, I think, $1,800; Kuehne, $2,000; Dunlap, $5,000. Morris' season was broken up because he was released, being no use to the club. If these salaries are continued, all right. Carrol is worth his money; that's all I have to say Figures and performances speak for them selves."

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATUR. 1 SYRACUSE, N. Y., January 20 .- Early in 1889 Fred S. Pratt, of Favetteville, Opondaga county, met Mrs. Evelyn Hustis, of Brocklyn, and the acquaintance ripened into frendship. The first meeting was at the office of the young man's father, who is a New York broker. Mrs. Hustis, it is alleged, obtained a divorce from her husband in the expectation that a marriage with Pratt would follow. In July of last year she went to Alpine-on-the-Hudson and the young man spent the summer at the same resort.

While at the summer resort she alleges that he borrowed money of her and that he he took her diamond earrings, which she valued at $300. She also charges that there were some things missing from her trunk, and that he asked her to say nothing about it, as he might be suspected. Mrs. Hustis is now suing for her property or its equivalent in money.

The Ohio miners' convention met yester day at Columbus. The delegates generally favor the union of the National Progress sive Union and the Knights of Labor. The contest for the Uniontown Postmastership waxes warm. A large pottery was destroyed by fire at Wellsville.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.1 COLUMBUS, January 20,-The annual convention of District No. 10, National Progressive Union of Miners, which includes Ohio, convened to-day, and considerable business was disposed of in the way of hearing reports and the appointment of commit-tees, which consumed the forenoon session.

This afternoon President Chris Evans read his annual address. It favors one open or-ganization for the miners of America; is a new comer to town, from West Virginia. He is said to be a relative of Quay, and has a strong letter of recommendation from the Senator. He is acquainted with Steve Elkins, and through him secured the indorsement of Sec-retary Blaine. Ganz is a good Republican, and has but little expectation of winning except as a dark horse. heartily in favor of supporting the proposition made to create a defense fund to be used in strikes; favors eight hours as a day's labor, and restriction of the daily output of mines. Suspension at stated intervals is also one of method that will give relief.

The roll was called and each delegate called upon for a five-minute speech, to describe the upon for a five-minute speech, to describe the situation in districts represented. There were 40 delegates present, and the general sentiment seemed to be in favor of one open organization and an eight-hour day. Most of them favored a defense fund, and opinions were divided on the subject of a suspension of work at stated intervals. A few of the delegates said they were instructed to vote for a defense fund if there was one organization. The following subjects will be discussed by the convention and acted upon: The creation of a defense fund to assist in the establishment of better prices for mining during the coming year, the putting into practice of the eight-hour day, the consideration of the proposition made by joint representatives of N. D. A. 135, K. of L., and the N. P. U., by which the two organizations are to unite forces.

The National Progressive Union and the National District Assembly 135, K. of L., will meet Wednesday. Those two organizations will take action on the proposed amalgamation and select a time and place for holding the joint session. There seems to be but little doubt among the N. P. U. and K. of L. people that the amalgamation will be made, as both are in favor of it and consider that the joining Constable Gallagher arrived while the fight was in progress. He ran into the crowd, and, pulling out his revolver, commanded the belligerents to throw down the stones. He threatened to shoot. This had the desired effect, The fight stopped. Gallagher and three other constables then placed the ringleaders of the Polish faction under arrest.

COLLIDED WITH A BRIDGE.

A Steamer Meets With an Accident, and Her Pilot is Badly Hurt. -

PRECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. PARKERSBURG, January 20 .- Last night at 11 o'clock the Pittsburg and Cincinnati packet, Louis A. Sherby, ran into the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad bridge which crosses the Ohio Ohio Railroad bridge which crosses the Ohio river here. The river was very high, and the beat was attempting to pass under the bridge and got something fastened in her wheel, disabling her rudder. The boat swung under the shore span, her smokestacks striking the span of the bridge. One of the stacks fell on top of the pilot house, mashing it to pieces and knocked the pilot. Amos Davis, senseless. Every pipe on top of the boat was swept clean and all the woodwork and fron trimmings are gone.

Davis, it is thought, will die, being internally injured and terribly cut by the broken glass in the pilot house. The damage to the boat is $5,000. She left here to-day for Cincinnati in tow of the steamer W. N. Chancellor for repairs.

Witness met Wood later on, and they talked about the ballot-box bill. Wood wanted a letter to Governor Alger from a prominent Ohio man, to help him along. He said that McLean had the contract, but for Washington, D. C., yesterday to attend the fourteenth annual Potters' Convention which that he could not get the letter. Witness afterward told Governor Foraker about the existence of the paper described by Wood.

WOOD VOTED FOR HARRISON.

Seeing Wood again, he (Wood) wanted vitness to give him a letter to the Mayor to help him out in the smoke inspectorship. Witness said Wood was a Prohibitionist, and (witness) would only help a Repub-lican. Wood declared he had voted for Harrison, and finally witness said he would not give him a letter to the Mayor, but would say something for him. Witness did see the Mayor, and told him that Wood was a fine mechanic; but he could not give him a letter, as he had affiliated with the Prohibition party. Witness, meeting Wood again, was told by the latter that he had been to Washington and had gotten that ballot-box paper and given it to Foraker, as he could not find witness. Wood said he had got the paper from Wellman, Mr. Mc-Lean's private secretary. September 28, witness met the Governor at the Gibson House and asked to see the paper.
