FRAUD IN OKLAHOMA

High Government Officials Connived at Illegal Land Entries.

THE TOWN SITE FOR GUTHRIE

Secured by Collusion With the United States Register.

EVERY ACRE OF CHOICE TERRITORY

Selected and Surveyed Before the Date Set for the Public Opening.

The investigation of the entry of lands in Oklahoma has resulted in some startling disclosures. Not deputy marshals alone, but much higher Government officials, were guilty of collusion and fraud. Names and particulars in each case are furnished by the inspector.

KANSAS CITY, January 21 .- Cornelius McBride, the Inspector of Public Lands, who was ordered to Oklahoma by Secretary Noble to investigate the alleged claims to town sites, lots, and sections of land there, is an attorney of this city. Until to-day he has refused to be interviewed on the result of his investigation, but now, inasmuch as the Senate has ordered the report printed, he regards the seal of secrecy removed, and talks freely of the contents.

When he first entered the territory and before the President's proclamation opening it to settlement took effect, he was surprised to find that the anticipated troubles between various bands of settlers and boomers was

BASCALITY EVEBYWHERE.

"I had not been in Guthrie long," he continued, "before I discovered that it was not bloodshed, but rascality which the Department had to fear. Secretary Noble telegraphed to me to look carefully after the horde of Deputy United States Marshals who were reported to have gone into Oklahoma under the guise of their office, and who had taken up claims. I at once telegraphed to Mr. Noble that it was not the deputy murshals who were most to blame, but higher United States officials. "I found that John I. Dill, the Land Register,

"I found that John I. Dill, the Land Register, and C. M. Barnes, Receiver, had connived to allow their friends and relatives to come into the territory before they had any right and enter the choicest land. Major Pickler, who went to Oklahoma with the same authority I had remained only inside of the land office while I was on the outside watching the proceedings and getting names, witnesses and transactions for our report. The results of our observations are all given in my official report, which contains revelations which the public ought to know, notwithstanding the fact that they compromise men high in official authority.

COLLUSION TO DEFRAUD.

"I was in the Territory six weeks. I found that John I. Deli, the Land Register, and C. M. Barnes, the Land Receiver, had connived to allow illegal filing of claims. General Clayton and Barnes were fellow townsmen. Clayton under the guise of a deputy United States marshal, went to Guthrie on Saturday before the opening on Monday, and on Sunday he surveyed the section of land out for the town surveyed the section of land out for the town site of Guthrie, and made a plat. Mark D. Cohn was selected to enter this plat. He, too, was in the Territory before he had any right to be, and by the grace of Land Receiver Barnes a brother of Land Register Dill was also on the ground before the opening, and by the grace of his brother's official position, Dill and Cohn were selected to make the first entries. Coin were selected to make the first entries.

"They prepared themselves with powers of attorney from a number of persons, including soldiers, to enter. By the request of Register Dill and Receiver Barnes three men were appointed Deputy United States Marshals to guard the door of the Land Office on the morning of the opening These men were personally known to Dill and Barnes. It was understood that Dill and Cohn were to be allowed to enter the soil first, Dill and Cohen sat on the steps of the land office waiting for the hour of 12 o'. At to come office waiting for the hour of 12 c'. -k to come so that they could enter their lant.

"P. Dyer, of this city, wh. went into the Territory, as a Wells, Fargo Express Company's agent, expected to be the first man to make an entry. He, too, was at the door ready to enter, and in reality would have been the first man had it not been for the preconcerted plan to have Dill and Cohn enter first, When the door was opened these three deputy marshals shoved Dyer aside and permitted Dill and Cohn to go in.

A WHOLESALE ENTRY.

"When they finished entering they had filed claims for every section of land which touched the section set apart for Guthrie but one, which was held by a lawyer named Walton, a brother of Senator Walton, of Colorado. This filing also included Clayton's plat of Guthrie. All these charges I make in my report and there is no question about the correctness, for I give witnesses by whom all I sav can be proven. "General Clayton, Dill and the rest knew who was, and came to me each with his open ste Clayton told me that unless the town by him was allowed to be entered rould flow in the streets of Guthrie.

made by him was allowed to be entered blood would flow in the streets of Guthrie. I told Clayton his entries might go on file, but neither his nor other illegal entries would ever be approved by the Government. Clayton made a lduff about the acre reserved for the Land Office. He said its survey should be made to conform to his plat. I ordered a survey of that acre made by a Government official, and it was made irrespective of Mr. Clayton.

"When I finished my report I recommended the removal from effice of Land Begister Dill. Receiver Barnes and United States Marshal Jones, of Kansas. Jones is the only man who had been removed up to the present time. United States Marshal Needles, of Arkansas, has been abused on account of his relations with the opening of Oklahoma. Needles actions were those of an honest man. There were many hundred blank appointments of deputy marshals printed, and many of these filled out and Needle's name forged to them. He found them in large numbers. There was any quantity of fraud in opening Oklahoma, and I trust the investigation instituted by Congress will result in showing up the ceility narries. If this is done the trust. obtained by Congress will result in showing up the guilty parties. If this is done the title of a large quantity of city property will be under a cloud, and it will be a long time before the titles are perfected."

LEE'S BIRTHDAY.

Expressions of Northerners on the Dead Confederate General-General Schofield and Admiral Porter Pay High Tribute to His Character.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. RICHMOND, VA., January 21 .- An afternoon paper here requested a number of prominent men all over the country for some sentiment appropriate to Lee's birth-General Schofield says: "I will say that it was the well-known character of the Southern soldiers, of which that of General Robert E. Lee was the highest type, which made it possible for the Union army to regard the Confederates not as rebels, to be either punished or pardoned, but as worthy antagonists, worthy to be-come trusted friends when they had laid down their arms."

Admiral Porter writes: "General Lee accepted the situation after Appointtox in the true spirit which characterized all his actions, and I felt sure that when he died he had the respect of every Northern soldier and sailor, to say nothing of the thousands of citizens who admired his private char-

ENGINEERS' SOCIETY MET.

The Academy Scheme Indorsed - Annual Election Held. The Western Pennsylvania Engineers' Society held its regular monthly meeting last gheny. evening, with J. A. Brashear in the chair. The tenth annual report was read, showing a mem-bership of 836, and receipts for the year amounting to $1,727 74.

amounting to $1,727.74.

The sub-committee, composed of Messrs. George A. Macbeth, C. C. Mellor, Charles Davis, John D. Shafer and Dr. W. J. Holland presented the report on the academy previously published in THE DISPATCH.

Mr. Brashear offered a resolution for the receiving of the report. Mr. W. L. Scaife said that some citizens were about to apply for a charter for the Academy, and only wanted to know if, when provided with a home, the societies would occupy it.

The resolution was adopted and the representatives of the Engineers' Society continued on the committee. sentatives of the Engineers' Society continued on the committee.

Resolutions on the deaths of Captain W. R. Jones, of Braddock, and Henry C. Dickenson were read and adopted.

The annual election of officers resulted as follows: President, W. L. Scaife; Vice President, Phineas Barnes; Secretary, S. M. Wickersham; Treasurer, A. E. Frost; Directars, R. N. Clark and W. G. Wilkins.

Mr. Brashear concluded his term as president with a paper giving a review of the present status of refined instrumental measurements.

Mr. Brashear announced that the arrange-ments had been completed for Prof. Menden-ball's lecture at College Hall, of the Pittsburg Female College, on Eighth street, next Satur-day evening. Prof. Mendenhall is in the coast and survey service of the United States, and will lecture on weights and measures.

DECISION IN THE ANDOVER CASE. The Finding of Ex-Governor Not in Favor of Either Side.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.1 SALEM, Mass., January 21 .- The finding of Ex-Governor Robinson, special commissioner in the Andover case, was made known this morning. It is not in terms for or against either side, merely reporting what the commissioner considers facts as proved. Those are chiefly that the Rev. Dr. Eustis was not personally hostile to Prof. Smythe, that he was not subject to undue influence from the outside; that he was intelligent and conscientious and gave heed to all the evi-dence to the end that he might render a just decision.

The Supreme Court has now to decide upon the legal right of the Board of Visit-ors to dismiss the professors, and this will involve the question as to whether their teaching is in accordance with the creed on which the seminary rests.

The newest idea in our overcoat department is a $5 counter, and what a wondrous lot of fine men's overcoats is heaped on it for to-day's sale. We took a number of our very fine all-wool, ribbed and plain overcoats, made with a velvet collar and satine sleeve lining, together with several lots of ulsters for those who prefer heavy garments, and marked them at $5 for to-day only. They are worth seeing. P. C. C. C., Cor. Grant and Diamond sts., opp. the new Court House.

What comes under the head of these two words, Luxuries or Necessities, in the line of House Furnishing Goods. In the latter case, only those things that are actually necessary for ordinary housekeeping. In the former, all those things which have a tendency to beautify a house and not only make it comfortable, but elegant as well. Some years ago, as you will often hear older people say, "When we went to housekeeping we only had this and that, only the bare necessities of life," because, when they bought the goods they had to pay cash for them. But now
