It is officially stated that Guy Hecker will be appointed manager of the local National League club on Saturday. He still has my $200 advance

It may now be accepted as a fact that Guy Hecker, the famous Sir Guy, will be manager of the local League team. A meeting of the club directors will be held on Saturday to settle the matter, Director Converse being expected in the city that day. A majority of the directors have already declared themselves in favor of Hecker for the management and if all goes well Guy will have charge of the team.

Speaking of the matter yesterday an official of the club said: "I have always favored the appointment of Hecker. He is an experienced man, a good, all-round ball player and has an excellent business faculty. President Nimick never bad met Hecker until a day or so ago, but ofter their first meeting Mr. Nimick is considerably impressed with the Oil City ball player.

A MAJORITY FOR HECKER.

"A majority of the directors favor Hecker. and 1 think that he will be unanimously elected. At any rate, you can say for me that except something that nobody expects hap-pens Hecker will be our manager."

The appointment of Hocker will give gen-eral satisfaction, as he has had a good career as a ball player, and is yet in his prime. He started professional ball playing in 1882, when he left the Oil City club and went to Louisville at a salary of $75 per month. He soon ranked among the best pitchers and hitters, and to-day he is an excellent all-round man. He managed the Louisville club some time, and the only time that club cleared money was under his management. He is a first-class judge of young ball players, and a few years ago wrote a book on "The Art of Pitching." He is also a genial gentleman, and is well respected by all ball players. The directors on Saturday will also deter-ball players. The directors on Saturday will also deter-mine whether or not the club will go on its Southern trip. Opinion on this matter among the officials is still equally divided. Referring to the matter yesterday Secretary Scandrett said: "I don't think there will be any trip, and in fact I don't think a trip is needed."

WANTS KILL OR CURE

Mr. Scandrett was asked his opinion regarding the reported efforts of President Johnson, of the Cleveland Players' club, and President Robison, of the National League, to have the schedule of games so arranged as to keep the two teams from being in Cleveland together, Mr. Scandrett said: "I don't favor any such deals. Thi conflict has begun, and th sconer we find out what the result is to be the better. It is simply a question of the survival of the st, and we may as well fight it out now as later." Speaking on this question, Manager Hanlon said: "The new League will probably have its schedule completed this week, and the old League can make one to please itself. Cer-tainly matters could be made smoother by having the clubs of one League in the East on holidnys and the clubs of the other League in he West. But we ask no quarter, and we will go khead independently and fairly just as we have done in the past."

The League club, as at present made up, contains some good ball players. There isn't any use in trying to deny that Beatin is a great pitcher. He is one of the very best in the country, and there is every reason to believe that he will be even better next season than he was a year ago. "Do I intend to proceed against Beatin legally? "Now, as to my team. I've strengthened it on inst hase, and I hope in the field. I shall keep four out-fielders through the season, so that in case any of them shall be disabled we will have a man ready to fill in. I intend to have three good catchers, not counting Snyder, who may or may not play next summer. He will be kept on the team whether he plays or not. I shall also have another good pitcher, and I hope to secure Robinson for the short field. All this talk about him not wanting to come here is poppycock. He has never intimated to me that he doesn't want to come to Cleveland. But if he should object to playing here, why I shall get some equally good man to fill the va-cancy. I may as well say right here that Pete Browning will keep sober next season if he re-mains in the Cleveland Brotherhood team. I shall not have a regular manager of my club. mains in the Cleveland Brotherhood team. I shall not have a regular manager of my club. I look upon managers as very expensive lux-uries. One of my players will look after the team's business affairs on the road, and my Secretary, Mr. Coleman, will have charge of the finance of the organization. For the rest, the captain of the team will be held respon-sible."

The supply is about equal to the demand. Most of the consumers are stocking up as they fear trouble with the workers. The conference on February 3 is looked for to effect a settlement if the miners' representatives are not extortionate in their demands. The H. C. Frick Coke Company have in operation all their ovens in the region save 170 ovens at Standard mines, near Mt. Pleasant, and about 60 overs at Leisenring No.3. The former are idle because of the burning of the slope and the company has a large number of hands rebuilding it. The probabilities are that they will be in operation shortly. ALL CAUSED BY WRECES.

At present I do not think there will be any difficulty and a satisfactory settlement may be made, but if the operators intend to fight, it will be a fight to the finish." Another operator said: "We proposed to the men at the last conference about what we will give them, and I do not think there will be amendments. seats just to one side of the Speaker's desk, while President Carr, of the Senate, ascended the rostrum and called the high court to order. General Goff, accompanied by Hon. W. P. Hubbard, his counsel, came in a little later and took seats reserved for them. The joint session of the two houses sitting as a court to determine the Gubernatorial contest, was finally announced as convened, and Judge Johnson rose to open the argument for Judge Fleming. His speech was an able argument. After very fully recting the facts as developed by the Gubernatorial inquiry during a period of nearly ten months, he likened the present dis-pute to that growing out of the Hayes and Til-den campaign, and said the body he addressed was of the same extraordinary nature as that convened to determine that memorable contest, General Goff and his counsel took copious notes during the speech, which was of four and a half hours' duration. Attempts to work up a boom for Pattison and Wallace were discouraged at the meeting of the Democratic Committee in Harrisourg yesterday. There was little opposition to the re-election of Kisner as State Chairman. Scranton gets the next meeting of the committee. Mr. Foley, of Pittsburg, created some laughter at the expense of Harrisburg.

PRPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 HARRISBURG, January 21 .- Democratic enders, attracted to this city by the meeting of the State Committee, discouraged every attempt to boost candidates for Governor, fearing that such action might result in impairing the organization of the party, which Chairman Kisner says is in excellent shape. Wallace, there were many opinions. The friends of the former urged that the ex-Governor would get thousands of Republi-can votes, while the Wallace men claimed

The Constitution of the United States and the constitution of the Knights of Labor cannot breathe the same air and live. One of them must go down. Which shall it be? Speak, and speak quickly. I have flung to the breeze a standard which says: "Down with Pewderly and his paternal government! "All persons wishing to enroll under this banner send their names and addresses to that the ex-Senator was the man to nominate, as he was a thorough organizer and would conduct the liveliest kind of a campaign.

KISNER'S VINDICATION COMPLETE Chairman Kisner received a complete vindication at the hands of the Democratic State Committee to-day in his re-election by an almost unanimous vote. He had some outspoken enemies on the committee from Allegheny and several other western coun-ties, and various schemes were considered to compass his defeat. One of the great troubles experienced in securing such a result was the failure to obtain the consent of a good man to enter the race with Kisner or the chairmanship. This drawback improved Kisner's chances gradually, and as a final resort to stem the tide which had set in for him, Kisner's op-ponents held a conference and unanimously decided to support James M. Guffey, a mil-lionaire oil dealer of Westmoreland county, who, it was declared, would stand as a candidate for the chairmanship. Mr. Guffey's candidacy was short-lived, lasting only enough to enable Committeeman Kline, of Westmoreland, to present his name and extol his virtues, which he said would give life and tone to the Democratic organizaion of Pennsylvania.

TERRIBLE STRUGGLE WITH THE WAVES.

The Servia Reaches Port After an Encounter With a Hurricane.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 NEW YORK, January 22 .- The overdue steamship Servian arrived to-day. She never made a slower voyage or a more tempestuous one. From the time she left Queenstown at 1 o'clock on the afternoon of January 12, she had a daily fight with fierce and lofty seas and westerly gales. The series of gales wound up in a hurricane that came gyrating off the coast of Nova Scotia on Friday last. It was a common occurrence for the ragged crests of tall seas to fall aboard the ship, covering her decks with ice and crystalizing on her spars and rigging. From noon on Friday until noon on Saturday she made only 142 miles. Her best day's run was 341 miles. She was decorated with frozen spray, dashed over her by the local gale when she steamed up to her pier. The wind at quarantin was so strong that the mail boat was unable to take off the Servia's mail.

The Servia passed, when about 600 miles out of Queenstown, a lot of bullock. They may have come from some cattle ship other than the Erin, which apparently was wrecked much further west. Nearly all the steamships long overdue were reported at Halifax to-day.

Cumbert Withdraws His Contract and Refuses to Piny in Pittsburg.

The unpleasant hitch between Pitcher Ad Gumbert and Manager Hanlon has developed into a very wide breach; so much so that Mr. Gumbert declared yesterday that he will not play in Pittsburg at all. The demands of Gumbert were stated in yesterday's DISPATCH, and Manager Haulon had a short conference yesterday with the nitcher relative to the matter.

terday with the pitcher relative to the matter. The manager mildly pointed out that the con-ditions of the contract were extravagant and certainly could not be granted. Mr. Gumbert then declared all negotiations off and de-manded his contract back. After the conference Mr. Gumberr stated that the contract had been strictly in accord-ance with promises made by Manager Hanlon, and that the latter had retreated from promises held out. Last evening Manager Hanlon emphat-loally denied the above statement. NEW CLUB DIRECTORS MEET.

They Transact Some Interesting Business Concerning the Grounds.

The Directors of the local Players' club held a meeting in Mayor McCallin's office yesterday afternoon. The principal business was to discuss the plaus for fixing up the new grounds at Exposition Park. Several contractors were on hand with their terms to do the work, and some good contractors at that. After considerable good contractors at that. After considerable discussion it was resolved that an architect, the Mayor, Maxager Hanlou and Mr. W. W. Kerr visit the grounds to-day and determine in what position the graud stand will be placed. The object is to keep the spectators as much from the effects of the sun as possible, and the stand may be placed near the corner where the entrance is at present. At any rate it is in-tended to make it one of the best stands in the country, and this can be done without much

CHICAGO, January 22 .- "There isn't one word of trath in the published reports to the effect that Pittsburg is to be dropped and St. Louis added to the Players' League," said Secretary Brunell to-day. "The truth of the matter is that Pittsburg is one of our strongest and will be in this fight to a finish. The Bill Providing for One Considered by What I said in St. Louis has been twisted into a dozen different forms. My actual statement was that I thought St. Louis an excellent base-ball town and that most likely to be recognized in case any break occurs in the Players' League circuit. There is no danger of a break at pres-ent, and so St. Louis is not in it."
