

LOCAL LIVE STOCK

Low Grade Cattle Are a Drug at the East Liberty Yards. BIT CHOICE BEVES AT A PREMIUM

Light Run of Hops and a Steep Advance in Prices Reported.

SHEEP AND LAMBS ARE UNCHANGED.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH DISPATCH, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1930. The supply of cattle for local trade varied very little from that of last week.

While all common and low-grade stock went begging for buyers this week, choice butcher stock and export grades were in demand at a premium on rates of last week.

Veal calves were in fair supply and slow, at a price level which was not materially changed, but markets were scarcely as strong as they were last week.

Sheep and lambs were about the same this week as last, and prices did not materially change, except for very choice stock.

At Chicago receipts have been very large for a day or two past, and prices are firm at a large margin above demand.

McCall & Co.'s Review. The supply of cattle liberal. Market ruled active and a shade higher on good to prime.

By Telegraph. NEW YORK—Beaves—Receipts, 70 carloads for the market, 60 carloads for city slaughterers.

CHICAGO—Cattle, nothing doing; receipts, 60 head through, 30 head on hand.

ST. LOUIS—Cattle—Receipts, 2,300 head; market steady, 300 head on hand.

NEW YORK—Jug iron steady. Copper dull and nominal; January, $14.40. Lead dull and nominal; domestic, $9.30.

Drugs. NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Business, as a whole, is fair, with relative activity.

Chief Higdon said yesterday that the lower end of Forbes avenue and parts of Fifth, Penn and Highland avenues will be paved this week.

Habitual constipation rises to pills and to other dangerous and painful affections, all of which may be cured by the use of Hamburg's Fruit Laxative.
