PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, January 29 .- The representatives of the National League who were present to-day at the reconvened annual meeting at the Fifth Avenue Hotel did not show any great disappointment over the result of the decision in the suit of the New York club against Ward. In fact some of the magnates believe that the effect of that Secision has really done their cause lots of Truthful Jeems Foretells the Disaster of good. They had the matter before them officially and, after a two hours' talk, they resolved to push the Brotherhood to the wall if possible, by bringing suits against them in bossible, by bringing suits against them in bis famous expression when THE DISPATCH bis famous expression when THE DISPATCH bis famous expression when THE DISPATCH reporter accosted him in the Fifth Avenue Another subject which has been agitating the League for some time, that of increasing or essening the membership, was talked over, but only in an informal way. MAY HAVE 12 CLUBS. There are one or two members and probably more who would like to see a 12-club League, shall be left unturned to bring every traitor to their proper senses. The League is now assume in this city of Frederick K. Stearns, the ex-President of the Detroit League club, although it is said that he would not put a dollar in the club if it was readmitted into the organization. Other members want the League to remain as at present constituted while Mr. Soden, of Boston, favors an S-club League if there is any change to be made. At the meeting to-morrow it is quite probable that the subject will be treated officially, and the membership of the League defined for another year tleast.

The representatives at the meeting were: J. Day and C. T. Dillingham, of the New York the steady of the bleague, and J. W. MR. YOUNG REPORTS. Chairman Young, of the Negotiations Committee, presented a report which stated that 800 applications had been received from players, and that quite a number had found engagements. The Special Committee on Law reported at under their direction suits in equity had sen institute in New York and Philadelphia to resaran certain rese ve players from pla ig with any but their respective Leagu cl bs during the season of 1800. That in the . . rdelphia suits the proceedings were being ... in .. for final argument without asking for a preli nin. yinjunction. But in New York a test case had been made with the New York and an application for a prelime tary injunction argued and refused. The report was accepted and the meeting was adjourned until to-morrow orning at 10 o'clock.

The Board of Arbitration had an unusual includes, what the Atlantic members contend, three of their clubs, viz, Lowell, Worcester and AGAINST THE ATLANTIC. The case was argued fully by both organizations, but the board decided adversely to the Atlantic Association. President Shoemaker, of Newark, claimed that under the amendment to the constitution, passed August 30, 1889, and which the Lowell, Hartford and Worcester clubs voted for, no club could resign after the month of November in each year. If they did night. He was well supplied with money sub-the players would revert to the Association. This amendment was passed after the Jersey City club had dishanded, and it was deemed necessary that something should be done to ecessary that sometime should be done to revent just such things occurring in the atture. There was nothing in the amendment conflict with the national agreement, and be cought it was not a proper case for the board consider. In answer to this Sullivan, to consider. In answer to this Sullivan, of Lowell, said the expenses in the Atlantic Association would be so great this season that it would be impossible to keep up their organizations. This, it is said, was about the gist of their defense. When the rival parties emerged from the meeting room the Iaces of the Atlantic Association members were wreathed in smiles. They were very confident that a decision would be rendered in their favor. The Beard, however, decided otherwise, and the Lowell, Hartford and Worcester clubs can go with the New England League and retain possession of their players. session of their players.

SWARTWOOD WINS HIS CASE. The Board received a protest from the Des Momes club, of the Western association. against the signing of Cody by the Cleveland League club. The Board held that there was no way of giving the club relief, and that the present contract of Cody's with Cleveland would have to stand.

Charles F. Swartwood presented an appeal asking that he may be paid the balance of his salary due him by the Hamilton club of the International Association for services rendered last year. The manager of the club admitted that the amount was due him, but he claimed that Swartwood should not ask for the same as he was a patron of the players' bench. Swart-wood in his appeal said he would be just as well satisfied to have his release as to have his money, and the board, without any hesitation, granted the release. The Hamilton ciub made no defense, but it was given ten days to make any if desired. TIM O'ROURKE'S COMPLAINT.

Tim O Rourke made a complaint against the Peoria club, of the Central Inter-State League. He claimed that salary was due him for last year's services. The Secretary was directed to write to the directors of the Peoria club and get their version of the matter. If it is proven that there is ground for the complaint of O'Rourke the board will allow his claim. Charles Bowers, of the Sloux City club, of the Western Association, asked to be released from the club, as he has not been paid in full for the club, as he has not been paid in full for the club askes soon's work. The club made the admission and the club ordered that his release be sion and the club ordered that his release be made at once.

By mutual agreement George F. Duysters, representing the Metropolitan Exhibition Company, and ex-Judge Howland in behalf of J. M. Ward, appeared before Judge O'Brien in Supreme Court chambers and asked for a speedy trial. Both sides appeared anxious to go on with the case as carly as possible, and as Judge O'Brien said in his decision that he would render all the assistance in his power to place the suit down on the calendar on Monday so that it can be reached at the special term of the Supreme Court some time about the middle of February. The Judge who will hear the case will probably be known on Monday next.

Is was said that the men had given way to superstition because the building they sparred in was used as a morgue for the victims of the Brooklyn Theater fire. When Jackson and Ashton learned of this rumor they agreed to simply fool with each other when they had the gloves on, so that there would be no chance for an accidental knock-out blow.

At the conclusion many cheered, and a few were unkind enough to hiss. The display did not cause many to look on Peter as a world beater.

Joe Coburn said: "He will be a puddin' for John L. Why, he never had such a snap."

THE COUNTY LEAGUE.

Greensburg Applies for Admission to the Local Buseball Organization. Manager Myers, of the Greensburg Baseball Club, was in the city yesterday conferring with Secretary Barr, of the County League, relative to Greensburg's admission to the League. Mr.

"We are anxious to get into the League, but we will require a privilege. At present the home clubs in the League keep all the receipts home clobs in the League keep all the receipts and pay the expenses of the visiting club. This will be costly to us, as Greensburg is so far away. We will, therefore, agree to pay one-half of the visiting club's expenses."

Secretary Barr couldn't say anything definite on the matter, but he intimated that the Oakland club is now anxious to remain in the League, and if it does there will be no chance for Greensburg. The general desire seems to be that the League consists of six clubs, and the following wish to remain: East End

Athletics, Braddocks, Homesteads, Etna Stars, McKeesports and Oaklands. The latter not having inclosed grounds, however, may drop

SOME STRONG THREATS.

May be Sued. President Nimick, of the local Nations League Club, made one or two somewhat start-ling statements last evening. When asked if it was true that the directors of the club intended to sue the stockholders of the new club for damages he said:

it was more in the way of a joke than anything else. However, I may say that we have been and are talking about the matter seriously. The truth is some of the directors not only de-THE SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

The officials of the new League club are not at all concerned about the contemplated suits. They state that they are not surprised at any of the bluffs made by defeated people. The directors of the new club unanimously declare that they are ready to meet any legal bomb that may have been lost sight of so fat. They claim, and with some degree of force, that all these legal actions only popularize the new League in the eyes of the public.

Several of these would-be chainpions, with considerable bombast, announced that they would meet me in a proposed regatta, the probability of which was never certain. John Teemer and others evaded the direct challenge in this way."

He is due in Sydney March 3.

A TRACK DIFFICULTY.

Expesition Park May Not be Ready for Priddy and McClelland. There is tikely to be some difficulty about securing a track for the big race botween Priddy and McClelland. An official of the Exposition Park stated yesterday that the track will probably not be in suitable condition for a race on March 1, owing to the changes to be made for the new ball grounds. It is expected that the track will be broken up in one or two places the track will be broken up in one or two places on that date.

The park authorities, however, state that in the early part of April a new half-mile track will be finished in the park. If there is at all any likelihood of the old track not being in condition for the race in question the parties concerned probably ought to meet as soon as possible to arrange matters satisfactorily.

Speaking of the race last evening John Quinn, McCllelland's backer, said that he will insist that only the runners, with each an attendant that only the runners, with each an attendant, and the referee be on the trackifrom start to

HANOVER'S CHANCES.

An Opinion as to How the Great Race Will Run.

Hanover's name appears among the nomina-tions to many of the stakes of the New York, Coney Island and Brooklyn Clubs, and the fact has aroused a great deal of conjecture as to whether he could be considered a dangerous candidate. When Hanover ceased racing in August last, at Westchester, it was because he was in a very bad way. He had a badly bowed was in a very bad way. He had a badly bowed tendon, and it was generally given out that he had run his last race, and the Dwyers were ready to sell him for stud duty. Mr. Haggin did not want him, and it is well-known that there was some sort of a proposition made to Major Thomas to take him, but it fell through. Speaking of Hanover the other day to a racing man the question of Hanover's chances in the races of the coming season came up.

"I think it very doubtful if the old borse will do much good for himself and the Dwyers," he said.

"Do you doubt his training?"
"Well, from what Dr. Sheppard said last summer, I.do. He said the horse's tendon was badly bowed, and it was the very leg that was operated upon the year before when he was "But he has been nominated for a great many

"But he has been nominated for a great many stakes."
"Yes, but so is every horse as long as there is a chance of his standing. Owners and trainers, too, will stick to a horse as long as he has two legs left. Beside, the Dwyers had always a weather eye to unloading their crack horses for stud purposes. To leave a horse out would make him dead to the world. But by nominating him in the stakes keeps him before the public, and makes him more salable; and then there's always a chance of getting a short race or two out of him. Great horses can often win short races half trained, merely on their superior speed."—Spirit of Times.

MR. A. K. NORRIS, A well-known gentleman of Sharpsburg, re-siding on Eleventh street, and employed at the extensive steel works of Messrs, Spang, Chalfant & Co., of Sharpsburg, has passed through an eventful experience. His catarrh caused a stuffed-up feeling about his nose and eyes. The catarrhal secretion that dropped from his head into his throat was so tenacious and hard to raise that in the morning it would often gag him and cause him to feel sick at his stomach. His hearing became dull, he took cold very easily, had no appetite in the morning, and as his food did not digest properly, gas formed in his stomach, causing pain. He often felt dixsy and lost flesh. He tried various treatments, but without success. He also used local treat-ments, but his disease gradually grew worse. In this condition he began treatment with the physicians of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute, 323 Penn avenue, and became cured by their constitutional medicines, which are always curative and permanent in their action. He can be seen at either his residence or place

Mr. John V. Hartman. "I was afraid of consumption. I had a constant hawking and spitting. I coughed and felt a soreness and pain in my lungs. My throat became sore and ulcerated, breath short. I lost flesh, and had night sweats and many other symptons. It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to the hundreds already published, to my complete cure by these physi clans.

"I now weigh more than ever before and feel well and strong.
