

Controller Speer and the Commissioners are well satisfied with the condition of the county's finances. The riot bonds mature in 1900, the Court House bonds in 1900, and the last of the bonded debt, the old railroad compromise bonds, in 1913. Not taking into counsideration the growth of the county in value, it is in such shape that the debts can all be paid as they reduction instead, and Commissioner Mercer ated there was no reason why, in the course f time, the millage could not be reduced to 1 dll in case nothing unforemeen should happen.

An Explosion in the Chartiers Block Coal Mine Being Investigated.

The case of the Commonwealth versus E, W. Powers was placed on trial in Criminal Court yesterday. The charge against Powers was isdemeanor under the State laws in not having a fan and other ventilating apparatus in operation in the Chartlers Block Coal Mines in go. South Fayette township. The real prosecutor in the case was James Blick, a State Mine In-In the case was James Buck, a State Mine in-spector. The prosecution was represented by D. R. Jones and John W. Cox, Esqs., and the defense by Messrs. Marshall and Powers. Mr. Blick when placed on the stand testified that on May 10 there was an explosion in the mines, which was caused by noxious gas. He had often visited the mines and found gas in the nit the pit. Thomas Miller testified he was pit boss at the Chartiers Block Mines, and that the mines gen-erated dangerous gas all the time he was there. There was a fan at the mines, but it was often tanged while the second seco

MRS. BLIND OWES THE BOY.

The Polley of Making Parents Guardians is | both are more or less soiled. Not Approved.

Judge Over, of the Orphans' Court yesterday handed down an opinion in the matter of the ustate of Frederick Santer, a minor. Santer's estate of Frederick Santer, a minor. Santer's father, Frederick Santer, died in 1869. His taken at Aufrecht's Elite Gallery, 516 Marwidow was appointed guardian of their son, ket st., Pittsburg. Mrs. Elizabeth Blind. She practically acted as saministratrix of the estate, and in her final necount claimed that the estate was indebted to her in the sum of $1,520 69. This was for the maintenance of her son and ward, bills, etc. The son filed exceptions to his mother's ac-count, and the case was heard before Judge Over. In his opinion, he retured to allow Mrs. Hind for the bills alleged to have been paid by her, as she could not give any evidence or information concerning them. He also allowed her only a part of her claim for maintenance, giving her $150 per week for three years. At that age his steplather took charge of him, and sent him to school, and after school worked him on his blace until he was 18 years of age. He became one of the family, and they couldn't chaim for his maintenance. In conclusion he finds Mrs. Blind $129 with inter-ent in debt to the boy's estate instead of it in debt to her. This reactions the find of it in est in debt to the boy's estate instead of it in debt to her. This case shows the disady Gebt to her. This case shows the disadvantages and litigation that resulted under the old habits of the Orphans' Courts. A course of policy recently adopted by the Orphans' Court is not to appoint parents as guardians of the estates of children, and it is doing away with much confusion of accounts and resulting in trouble for the courts to settle.

Oliver Bros. & Phillips' Steam Hammer Will Continue to Work.

In the case of Rhey against Oliver Bros. / Phillips in action for damages for trespass caused by working a steam hammer, in which Shiras & Dickey were attorneys for plaintiff and W. B. Rogers attorney for defendant, a verdict was given for defendant. This case is one of peculiar interest as in volving a very nice point of law, or rather in its interpretation, and important from a gen-oral standpoint, because it is the first decision ever given in this county in favor of a defend-ant, though within the past decade the records abow that several cases of a similar character have been decided for the plaintiff. The point ase was returned for the city. The action was rought to recover for wharfage fees, the de-endant being a squatter on city property. tained. A VERDICT of not guilty was returned yesterday in the case of W. H. Walter and Charles Grabsky, who were tried for conspiracy in bonds, in 1913.
