No Possible Escape for the Inmates of the Crowded Tenement.

A FINE BUSINESS BLOCK DESTROYED.

Another Fire a Few Henrs Later Causes & Bravy Less

Ten persons were killed, three fatally and others seriously injured in the fire in the Italian tenement house at Boston. The stairways burned at once, and there was no avenue of escape. A business block valued at $200,000 was destroyed by another blaze.

Boston, February 2 .- In July, 44 years ago, nine persons were burned to death in a fire on North street. Boston had not recorded a counterpart in fatality to that disaster until this morning shortly after midnight, when fire broke out in the dwelling house at No. 259 and 261 of that same street. occupied mostly by Italians, and the shocking summing of the disaster is that ten persons were burned to death, three others fatally injured and six more were seriously, if not mortally, burt.

There is a diversity of accounts as to the eircumstances of the origin of the fire, the

The wooden stairway was like a tallow candle and the flames swept up it like a flash. In doing so it lighted up the hallway and shot little forks out through the cracks of the door and soon attracted attention. In a moment more the flames had taken hold on the rear stairways ascending from the same hallway, and thus cut off all escape for the occupants.

The scenes which occurred among the in-mates when they were awakened were of the chancellor is not the creature of any rule."" most exciting description. There was no way for them to get down, and as they as-cended to the attic the flames followed swiftly upon them. Shrieks of terror, greans of agony and cries for help filled the air. Men, women and children filled the windows and piteously pleaded for help, some of the ore venturesome even hung from the windows by only a slight hold on the sills.

In ten minutes the fear of personal safety had subsided. Those whom it was possible to save had been taken from their positions of peril, and the wounded had been taken to places where their injuries could be cared for. It was not until after the fire had been practically extinguished that the interior of what was then but a shell could be ex-

A HORRIBLE SIGHT.

Chief Webber, followed by several fire-men, went into the building at a little after 1 o'clock, and with difficulty ascended to the upper floors. The stairways from the street to the second floor were completely burned away. When the Chief and his companions reached the upper floor a sight that horrified and kneeling as though at prayer.

because the stairs were roaring masses of fire, the terrified victims had evidently rushed to the upper floor in their at-tempts to escape and had there been roasted as though held in a furnace. Two bodies of infants were removed from other parts of the building and the completed list of ten human lives was made up, The injured were removed to hospitals and the dead bodies were taken to the morgue

ANOTHER DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

Following close upon the terrible calamity on North street early this morning came a fire this forenoon which, in an hour's time, almost totally destroyed the Sears building, a five-story marble structure, corner Court and Washington streets, owned by J. for five years. Montgomery Sears, and which at the time of its erection was the finest business building in Boston. At 9.25 o'clock smoke was over the body on January 10. There was seen issuing from the roof and an alarm was rung in, which was speedily followed by a second, and then a third. When the department arrived the flames, as in the department arrived the flames, as in the case of the Thanksgiving Day and recent Summer street configgrations, seemed to Finn, the widow, will endeavor once more have enveloped the whole building.

The solid hard wood finish of the interior fell an easy prey for the flames, and but a few minutes elapsed ere the five stories were on fire from end to end and from side to side of the building.

The walls of the building is about all that is left of it. The loss is upward of $200,000. There is an insurance on the same amounting to $175,000, which will undoubtedly cover the loss. There is, however, a contingent loss in the way of rents, every office in the building being occupied from which an income of $75,000 a year was derived.

Senator Pettigrew, of Dakota, Tells the Interesting Story of How He Secured Election-His Hasty Visit to President Harrison.

WASHINGTON, February 2.-Senator Pettigrew, who was recently seated from Dakota, is a typical Western man. He described the Senatorial contest briefly while sipping his milk punch to-day at a private room in Millard's: "I reckon I knew every man of any importance in the old Territory, and when the old Territory of Dakota saw a chance to read her title clear I found I had practically no opposition, but I found there was a hot fight over the short term of two years. The opposing candidates were Gideon C. Moody, one of the cleverest men among the older Republicans of the Territory, and Judge Edgerton, a leading man of wealth and position and thoroughly identified with the social and industrial interestats of Dakota Territory. My sympathies were naturally enlisted with Gideon C. Moody, a long-time personal friend.

"But the question was, What shall we do with Edgerton? We promised to make him a Judge of the United States Court in Dakota. His answer was, 'Boys, that is all very well, and I'll make the deal, but are you quite sure you can deliver the goods?' I olution to be offered last session that no candidate for judicial honors should be con-

" 'The point is well taken,' answered the urbane Senator from Vermont, 'You get Mr. Harrison to send Judge Edgerton's name to the Senate, and I will take care of his confirmation, and,' with a sigh, 'we generally confirm some old tellow to please a friend and then re-establish the limit at 60 years.. I hastened back to the White House and found the President willing and ready to send Judge Edgerton's name to the Senate, and that is how Gideon C. Moody became the senior Senator for Dakota, and Edgerton became a United States Judge."

Chicago Tribune. J "Spike" Henderson, the old-time singer who used to travel with Frank Lumbard have been digging them since as the tubers and who died last week, made a singular bargain shortly before his death. Entering bargain shortly before his death. Entering a saloon where he was accustomed to entertain Harry Hildreth, Dignan, the undertaker, and others, he was at once called on for a song of which he was the author. "Spike" shook his head, saying that he felt the shadow of death upon him. His looks did not belie his words. But Dignan

The long line of carriages drew a motely crowd to the scene.

"The funeral ceremonies included the singing of "We Need Thee Every Hour" by a quartet of which the deceased had once been a member. WARM AUGUST'S FISH

Skip Up From the Waters of the Gulf Into Connecticut's Rivers.

NEW LONDON, February 2 .- It is the inconsistent that happens in Connecticut this season. Bluefish have skipped into all down East waters from the Gulf Stream and are almost as plentiful and quite delicious as if the time was August or October, instead of being the first month of the year. A good many bluefish are being taken right off New London harbor, and in their voracity have driven off many of the small fish. A big lot of smelts were taken in the Thames river this week. They are six weeks ahead of the season. All sorts of migratory fish are said to be two months ahead of time.

A good many farmers did not harvest all their potatoes and turnips last fall, and enough to be worth something. Horace Barber, of Windsor, pulled a lot of his neg-lected turnips this week and found that the tops were green and thrifty and the bulbs twice as big as they were last November. One of his neighbors dug a lot of potatoes at the same time. Raccoons have been plentiful all the winter; so also have been all kinds of snakes. A big coon was shot by a party of hunters at North Sterling last week. At Lebanon the other day the Lilly boys killed a black snake that was five feet and one inch long. Not far from the spot where the snake was killed was a light patch of snow, over which the serpent had just crawled, and got chilled in so doing. Conductor Cady, of the Farmington avenue line of street cars at Hartford, got off his vehicle and killed a red adder a day or two ago. At Essex, in the Connecticut river valley, E. G. Salter drove about the streets selling horseradish, freshly dug, and snow was falling at the same time. Salter said radish was good for the grip. Horseradish is about two months ahead of time in the Nutmeg State. Weedon, of New London, sold dandelion greens from his vegetable cart this week, and at the same time boys were skating on a neighbor-ing pond. Weedon advertises "dandelion greens" in the local papers.

PRAYERS AND DITCHES.

The Two Are Growing Incompatible Among

Heathen Worshipers. SILVER CITY, N. M., February 2 .- The day is not far distant when the last prayer for rain will be offered up to a hideously formed pottery god in New Mexico. Year after year, from the earliest history of the Territory down to the present time, rude images have been besought to send rain to keep growing crops from being dried up by the scorching rays of the midsummer sun. This practice is con-fined to certain tribes of village or Pueblo Indians and a few Mexicans.

But the practice of praying for rain is rapidly losing ground. While no amount of explanation would make these people understand that they can regulate the water supply at will, the sight of an irrigat-ing ditch and the distribution of water by a system of irrigation at once revolutionizes their ideas. Many of these Indians who live along the Rio Grande, and have learned how to irrigate their land, own fine vineyards, and generally excel in the production of grapes in that section of the Cerritory where they are found.

Until recently Americans in this Territory paid very little attention to fruit raising and agriculture. The tilling of the soil was left almost entirely with the Mexicans and Indians. Americans generally became interested in mining or stock raising, but since it has been shown so conclusively that no section of the United States is better adapted to grape growing and fruit raising in general than many sections of New Mexico, American enterprise has begun to assert itself. Large irrigation companies have been formed, irrigating canals are being storage reservoirs Callucio to the Mercer street station, as the | are being built. Millions of acres of land Callucio to the Mercer street station, as the murder occurred and the murderer was captured in Captain Brogan's precinct. Captain Brogan complimented McNealy, and told him he was entitled to the prisoner, so he was returned to the Prince street station.

Callucio said he thought Bilvestro was going to draw a pistol when he fired. Silvestro had an old, unloaded and worthless French revolver in his pocket. The men were entire strangers to each other. Neither in a single season on the same piece of

A crop of corn and another of wheat are frequently grown on the same piece of ground, the wheat being harvested before the corn is planted. Four crops of alfafa are raised without trouble a in season, and Americans in the Territory are rapidly becoming convinced that agriculture and fruit raising is more profitable than stock raising. The slow-going methods of the Indians and Mexicans will have to give way to American progress and the pattern and in the statement of the statemen can progress, and the pottery gods will soon be forgotten, while irrigating canals will furnish an abundant supply of water for crops under the management of large comcanies, which will sell water to landowners along the canals or use it to irrigate land belonging to the company, as the case may be.

THE BIBLE AGAINST ANNEXATION,

A Canadian Preacher Says Great Britain Will Lose No More Colonies. INPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCHA

TORONTO, February 2.-The Rev. Dr. Wild, a Congregational minister here, preached to-night on the subject: "The Danger and Folly of Advocating Annexation." He said the destiny of all tion." He said the destiny of all nations was fixed by God, and it was folly to suppose Great Britain and the United States had been overlooked. The United States was the tribe of Manassah, and it was clearly fore-told, years ago, that Manassah should leave Ephraim and become a great and independent nation. But the United States was the only colony Great Britain had ever lost or ever would lose.

DRESS GOODS

Our grand Bargain Sale of as the new importations are now

Such Double Width Imported and American Dress Goods and Suitings and Novelties at 25, 40, 50 and 75c the ladies say they have never seen. 50-inch Suitings and Mixtures at 25, 40, 50 and 75c; these are at rear of store adjoining the bargain 50-inch Imported Goods at $1,

One case 16-inch Silk Plushes at 25c; just half price, but they are all Terra Cotta shades and they'll real value $1 50; their equal you

27-inch Black Silk Costume Velvets (or to make velvet sleeves or trimming if you wish) at $2 50 and $3; too many of these fine goods and the "surplus must be reduced;" the Velvet and Plush Shelves must be emptied to a great extent to make room for the New India and Wash Silks, of which we open 200 pieces to-day, surpassing in distinctness of style, quality, and coupled with our usual low prices, are worth your attention. Fashion predicts a large demand for the new Wash striped India Silks and Surahs, and deservedly so, as these goods are very stylish; others beautiful in their elegant simplicity. Some $13 50 Paris Silk Novelties marked down to $5, and some ther lots of choice $1 50, $2, $3 and $4. Dollar Black Silk Armure Royales at 75c. One case Black Silk Surahs at SOC. 24-inch Black Silk Surahs at prices, for fine goods, that are much less than you can buy them for in April or May. Elect for yourself whether this is a good investment or not. We invested in several thousand yards, because of the great bargain, and we propose turning them out at such prices as will make a stir this week at the SILK DEPARTMENT. Fine, elegant 24-inch Black Surahs will do it, and the bargain Black Silks shall assist if prices and quality will accomplish it. They have goods and prices to be found never failed to do so with us in the past 20 years, and we know they > won't now. The complexion of the Dry Goods business, so tashion says, is "Scotch;" it has been quite "English, you know," for some time. We open to-day some advance styles of Dress Goods and Suitings that are French, German, Scotch and English, our own direct importations, and one particular lot that are 50-inch Scotch Cheviot Stripes, made in America, and when they are made here we believe in saying so. The remarkable part of it is 50-inch wide at 50c, new and stylish; if they had come across the water or had a foreign ticket on they would sell at $1 25, and there will be goods sold this season at $1 25 and $1 50 that have no more style and possess no more merit than these do. If you prefer the $1 to $3 kind they will be here, and some are opening to-The Cloak Room Bargains-no, not that-sacrifices that are selling hundreds of fine garments daily, this week is to be effective in clearing the Cloak Room.
