OTHER GENERAL NEWS OF THE COURTS

Miss Lizzie Bender yesterday received a verdict for $2,000 damages in her suit responsible for the scheme, having conceived the idea some time ago. He secured the inof promise of marriage. The case was tried before Judge White; E. Y. Breck, Esq., appearing for Miss Bender, and James H. Porte for Dignal. Both parties lins, in explaining the scheme yesterday, are residents of the Southside, and are said: young and good looking.

Dignal at a ball in Salisbury Hall nine years ago. He was attentive to her until December 22, 1888, when the alleged breach occurred. She stated that he promised to marry her on three different occasions. The last time was about four years ago at the bouse of Mr. Cruikshank, Nineteenth street, South-

Mr. Cruiksbank, at whose house the promise was said to have been made, testified that he had heard Dignal say: "Let is the only girl i will ever marry." Mrs. Cruikshah testified that he said he was going to get married to "Tieste".

"Lizzie."
Mr. Breck placed in evidence a number of letters written by Dignal to Miss Bender. Several were read to the jury, and their contents were full of love, etc. One letter was dated Harvard, Ill. It concluded with: "Think of your love to-day, for I am over the hill and far away." It also stated that the writer sat under big cedar tree, and the wind blew through his

a big cedar tree, and the wind new through whiskers.

This concluded the plaintiff's testimony. The defense oftered but little evidence, and that regarding but minor details. The arguments of counsel were brief, and the case went to the jury. It was out but a short time, and returned a verdict of $2,000 for Miss Bender.

Mr. Porte at once made a motion for a new girl.

The pictures for the art loan exhibition for the opening of the Carnegie Library, in Allegheny, are being received. The first lot has been received, and more are expected in a day or two. Those already received are being kept carefully under lock and key, with a special watchman on duty constantly. Access to the gallery is refused without distinction. Mr. Scott is very determined that those who have so kindly loaned their pictures shall not have cause to regret doing so through any act of his. The committee that will arrange the pictures will begin their work in a day or two, and until the gallery is completed it will be closed to all applicants.

AN AGREEMENT FOR A WILL.

Brice Shtelds Claims John McKny's Signature Was Secured by Fraud.

document was filed in the Register's office yesterday for probate as the will of the late John McKay. The paper is in the form of an agreement, one clause of which is offered as testamentary. It has already been objected to, Brice Shields having filed a caveat in which he alleges that if the signature of John McKay was attached to the paper it had been obtained by fraud.
The agreement is one in which McKay sets forth that he purchased the Common Gold Mine for the benefit of his brother, Wm. Mc-Kay, of Fresno county, Cal. He desded it to Wm. E. Brown, of San Francisco, who was to Wm. E. Brown, of San Francisco, who was to open and develop the mine and form a stock company. The capital was to be $1,000,000, divided into 100,000 shares. The clause offered as a will provided that Wm. McKay was to pay to John McKay, the decedent, $5,000 for his expenditures in procuring the mine. In case of John McKay was death, before it was paid, however, Wm. McKay was not to be required to pay the $3,000 to his estate, but it was to be deducted from his proportion of the decedent's estate before his share was paid to him. The estate before his share was paid to him. The paper was signed by John McKay, W. F. Brown and Wm. McKay, and witnessed by W. B. Santley and John W. Pearson.
