bay. He identified the defendant in the court room as the same man, but had nover scene him before or since. He saw the couple go into the house, and about an hour after came out again. David Gass, a farmer, of Bennett township, saw them together on Federal street, Allegheny, but saw nothing unusual in their conduct. Mrs. Hall, a sister of Cornelius, was put on the stand. She was very positive in all of her tostimony, and told of how she had seen Ham-bay and Mrs. Cornelius in the Allegheny Parks one night in spring, some three years ago. It was between 10 and 11 o'clock at night. An-other time she saw Hambay assist her onto a tireet car, going to Allegheny. Mr. Marshall, is cross-examining hor, asked her how she came to be in the parks, at 11 o'clock at night. came to be in the parks at 11 o'clock at night. She said she was on her way home to Ridge arenue, with her son, a boy of about 15 years. She did not know how Hambay was dressed; whether he had on a stiff or soft hat, or what was the color of his coat, but she could tell the color of his eyes. She was not asked what they were. When asked whether they were stand-ing on the grass or sitting on a bench, she said they were sitting on a bench; and when asked what kind of a bench; she said they are seen the benches in the park, haven't you?" She was allowed to go, and court ad-journed.

"squire Longhrey's Wife Wants a Separation, Charging Him With Abuse.

Suit was entered yesterday, in Common Pleas No. 1, by Mary A. Loughrey, the wife of 'Squire Loughrey, of Coracpolis, for divorce. The ground for the action is alleged cruelty, neglect and barbarous treatment. It is alleged that on October 31 last Longhrey abused and threatened to kill her. He charged her before their children with infidelity, and abused and threatened to kill her. He charged her before their children with infidelity, and had also made the same statement to strangers. On December 1 of last year she left him on ac-

On December 1 of last year she left him on ac-count of abuse. The testimoup in several divorce cases was filed yesterday. That of Edward Davies against Frances Davies showed that the couple were married in November, 1870, at Diangatice church, Monmouthshire, Wales, and had lived together for 19 years, coming to America in 1889. They had several children, one of whom, David Davies, testified to his mother's conduct with a Mr. Thomas while they lived in Wales. They had been in America but six months when his mother borrowed money and sent itso Thomas to come to America. He came and bearded with them, and the intimacy was con-linued. Thomas had to leave the city. Shortly after Mrs. Davies took her trunk and left their home one night, since which time they have not seen her.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. OFFICIAL-PITTSBURG. Rheumatism. BEING due to the presence of uric acid in the blood, is most effectually cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Be sure you get Ayer's and no other, and take it till the poisonous acid is thoroughly expelled from the system. We challenge attention to this testimony :-

"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great discomfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertise-ment in a Chicago papar that a war had ment in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing combeen relieved of this distressing com-plaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months, and am pleased to state that it has effected a complete cure. I have since had no re-turn of the disease."-Mrs. R. Irving Dodge, 110 West 125th st., New York.

"One year ago I was taken ill with inflammatory rheumatism, being con-fined to my house six months. I came out of the sickness very much debili-tated, with no appetite, and my system disordered in every wey. I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and soon recovering my numbealth.
