"The reason why we have not mentioned the names of Rowe, White and Dunlap along with others in connection with the injunction suits is because we have been making inquiries about their special cases. I am now fully persuaded that we can reach them without trouble, and I'll tell yon how. I will mention particularly the cases of Rowe and White. "Now the money was paid on the thorough understanding that they would be with us for more than one season at least; in fact they signed a contract which stated their services nderstanding we paid the money and on this understanding they were given ene-half of it. They now refuse to fulfill their agreement, al-though they got the money, and if this is not obtaining money by a method of false pre-tenses, I don't know what is. I think we have a good case against them. Dunlap's case is not so flagrant, but it is of a similar kind. He received part of the money we paid for his ser-vices and we expected to have these services a while longer. It seems to me that the public

Colonel Stone, the well-known lawyer, who is interested in the new local club, was questioned regarding the threatened suits. He said: "In the first place, I don't think there will be an r suits entered, but if there are they will be of great benefit to the new club. It will give it any amount of free advertising, and there is no hope of the players losing. Victory will create additional sympathy for the new club and a speedier defeat for the old club. The beaten anyhow, but appeals to law will only accelerate that fatal day. As far as claiming damages is concerned, the old club directors have no case at all even on their own along they have been clair that they ave been losing money, and cer-tainly there is ' law that will give them dam-ages for a losing concern. Their case in all re-

To add to the liveliness of the local situation, Messra, AI, Fratt and Manager Torrerson have secured permission to put a New York and Pennsylvania League club in this city, if grounds can be secured, and Meadville joins the league named. Mr. Fratt returned from Jamestown yesterday, and last evening made the following statement: "At prosent there are only four clubs in the New York and Pennsylv and Eradford.
