THE following named officers have been hor orably discharged in arders: Lisutsnant W. L. Donachs, of Company A. Tweifth Regiment; Captain B. W. Harper, of Company H, and Captain E. M. McCombs, of Company C. Eighteenth Regiment.

A MEETING of the Brigade Examining Board will be asked for shortly, to act on a number of candidates elected lately. General Hastings' decision of a week ago materially changes the manner of conducting elections now, and will necessitate more frequent meetings of the beard

ADJUTANT GENERAL HASTINGS reversed his decision relative to officers being commis He deliver that the first decision was made by an error, and that no other officers need expect their commissions without appearing before the board.

OFFICERS of the Fourteenth Regiment are disgusted with their rating for the last in-spection, as they have been placed at the bot-tom of the list in the Stats. Colonel Perch-ment claims that if his regiment had been in-spectsel at Johnstown he would have been very close to the top of the notch.

A MERTING of the inspectors of rifle practice of the Second Brigade will be held at Washington, Pa., on February 22. The meeting has been called by Major Hazlett, brigade ord-mance officer, and plans for the couling season will be discussed and suggestions of various kinds relative to rifle practice will be brought

THE marksmen and sharpshooters' medals issued by the State for the qualified riflemen of the past year, arrived in this city last Fri-day. They will be distributed to the proper owners during the ensuing weak. The target practice expense allowances of $50 per com-pany will not be forwarded until some time in April.

THE thirty-fifth anonal parade of the Wash Into infrartry will take place on the 2nd (Washington's birthday). The company has accepted an invitation from Pride of the West Council, American Mechanics, to be their es-cort on that day. They will have the right of the Allegheny Division with the Great West-ern Band, pain or sickness. "To begin with, it was a slight cough that trcubled me; my nose would be stopped up on one side or the other. My throat would have a raw, uncomfortable feeling. That was called catarrh of the head and throat by those whom I consulted about it. I tried by every means I knew to get rid of that, but instead of getting any better the trouble seemed to be extending all the time down into my chest. "I found myself losing flesh steadily. Sometimes I would pick up for awhile, and

I would think I was getting better, but then in a little while I would find myself falling away faster than ever and a good deal worse than I had ever been.

Mr. J. M. Ift, 68 Grant alley, Allegheny,

"There was a constant dropping from my head to my throat. It was especially had when I laid down. Often I would have to sit up in bed in order to get my breath. The mucus would gather in large quantities in my throat, almost smothering me. I could not sleep, and would get up more tired than when I went to bed. Until a short time ago I was working on the Manchester Street Railway. When I went to work in the morning I would have to cough

This is perhaps Mr. King's first effort in painting the rough textures of the surface of oranges; at any rate, it is not a pro-noncoed success. It is true there are some pleasing features about the work, such as are characteristic of the artist's style of handling, but the plottere, as a whole, must be rated below his usual standard of merit. In striking con-trast to the above mentioned ploture is the painting of a pan of rosy red apples, executed by the same artist. In this ploture the fruit has been handled in a manner approaching perfec-tion, and is is wonderfully true to nature in its coloring. coloring.

"Have you been benefited by their treat-ment?" "Indeed I have, I feel like a different person from the one I was when I first went to them. The dropping in my throat has ceased. I can now see to read without my eyes hurting me. My stomach trouble has left me and I can now eat a good meal. I enjoy my food and have no trouble retaining it. For years I had no sense of taste or smell. I could eat cayence pepper and not know what I was enting. Now I have these senses in full, and can distinguish the taste of each article of food. I am getting stronger and arise in the morning feeling re-freshed and invigorated. The chance is my condition I owe to Drs. Copeland & Blair, and anall be glad to verify this statement at any time." ras inspected last night at the barracks or Penn avenue, by Colonel Smith, accompanied by several members of his staff. Hickman, Pa. The statement given below is from one of the patients residing out of the city who was treated from the office of Drs. Copeland & Blair. The gentleman in question is Mr. Will-iam Barnes, of Hickman, Pa, a thriving town on the Pitusburg. Chartiers and Youghtogheay Bailroad, about 15 miles out from Pitusburg. During a recent conversation with the writer, he said: "Five years ago my trouble first made its appearance, and it continued to grow steadily worse until I was at last in a very serious condition. My head and nose were first stopped up, and there was a dropping from my head to my throat. I would get up in the moring feeling more tired than when I went to bed the night before. I could eat burt little, and enbat I did eat laid like a heavy load on my stomach. SICK READACHE_Carter's Little Liver Pills. SICK HEADACHE_Carter's Little Liver Pills. "I was advised while in this condition to try Drs. Copeland & Bialr. I had read of the great good they ware doing, so determined to see them.
"The result has been a great surprise to me. I improved rapidly from the very first. I soon required my sense of smell and taste. I have no more trouble with my heart or pains in my chest. I can eat well and feel refreshed by my sleep. I can work all day and feel good at my recovery to Drs. Copeland & Blair, and shall be glad to speak with anyone about my case."
