The International Conference Sure to Result in Failure.

PIERY LANGUAGE IN FRENCH PAPERS.

Emperor William's request to other countries to join in an international conference to discuss labor problems is not received with favor. By many it is believed to be merely an electioneering scheme. In France even the invitation is regarded as an

1BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCE.)

LONDON, February 8 .- [Copyright.]-The young Kaiser has once more given Europe something to talk about, His rescripts on the international labor question have kept tongues wagging in all languages for days past, and the opinions expressed are as diverse as the nationalities. If the Imperial Socialist expected all the world to go into raptures over his proposals he has been wofully mistaken.

Even in Germany there has been no enthusiasm, despite semi-official assertions to the contrary. The working classes are skeptical as to the practical advantages to be gained by an international conference, and would prefer to see the Emperor putting his beautiful theories into practice by allowing their trades unions to fight matters out with employers in free British and American fashion.

WHAT THE WORKERS WANT.

If the Kaiser would only tell his bureauerats and policemen to cease their vexatious interference in industrial disputes, questions which would worry so-called Statesmen for generations, would, it is urged, soon be settled. German politicians generally are uncharitably enough disposed to think the grand rescripts are simply electioneering dedges concocted in view of the new Reichstag elections on the 20th inst. by Prince Bismarck and his young master, forgetful that the same strategy was tried in 1881 and failed, as it will probably fail now. The remarks of foreign critics are either sool or altogether disrespectful. Here in England the newspapers have managed to drag in the question of free trade, as is their sustom in most things and the Kaiser is warned that unless Germany be prepared to abandon its present protectionist policy, his international labor plans must fail. The mere fact that the United States has not even been invited to join the labor confer-ence is to British critics sufficient to defeat it beforehand. In Austria the critics are politely skeptical, in Eussia the imperial reformer's scheme is openly and loudly ridi-culed and in France, as might have been culed, and in France, as might have been expected, there is almost a universal howl of derision.

IMPERTINENT PRESUMPTION.

"We will not," says La Lanterns, echoing in this matter the opinion of nine Frenchmen out of ten, "pause to point out the impertinence of the presumption put forth by the German Emperor to make us interfere in the settlement of German workinterfere in the settlement of German workingmen's interests, and above all of himself interfering in the interest of French worklagmen. The idea of France negotiating with Germany on any matter whatever is absurd. You must first begin by restoring to us Alsace and Lorraine which you have extorted and the millions you have filehed, and bow down before the right you have trampled under foot. Then, perhaps, we may condeseend to consider the matter."

It is extremely doubtful whether the conference will ever meet. Austria and Italy might send delegates in order to please their might send delegates in order to please their powerful ally, but, curiously enough, they have not been asked. Switzerland has al-ready convened a labor conference to meet on the 5th of next May and the President of the confederation informed your Berne cor-respondent to-day that if the Federal Council takes his advice they will not withdraw fficir invitations. President Carnot dare not accept the Kniser's invitation in the present state of popular opinion.

A RUSSIAN OPINION.

The Crar thinks the working classes are already pampered to a daugerous degree, and has a large and hearty contempt for imperial or any other kind of socialism. England accepted the Swiss invitation, but in such a half-hearted manner, and with such important reservations, that the Government is to be questioned and denounced in Parliament. Any delegates that might be sent to Berlin would doubtless be simi-larly handicapped, and might as well remain Little Belgium may consent to send to Berlin, but the conference reduced to such vided for. Five of the fishermen were marmicroscopic proportions would scarcely active and leave five widows and 30 orphans, cord with the Kaiser's love of display. The present indications, therefore, are that the fathers, three mothers and 13 small sisters onference will be stillborn.

A dispatch from Berlin upon this subject says: The obvious futility of the general propositions touched upon in the rescripts has led to the report that the contract has led to the report that the conference will ignore the subject of minimum wages and limit itself to the consideration of the industrial employment of women and children; the connomic and other aspects of Sunday labor, and the eight hours for a day

NO PRACTICABLE END. There is no authority for this report, which There is no authority for this report, which implies that the project of the rescripts has not to a point where a regular programme has been drawn up. That is not the fact. But even if the schame should get thus far and then be restricted as thus suggested, it is considered that no practicable end could be reached.

The semi-official press admits that this surresment upon the accordance of the Liberals will at least pull down the hostile majority almost to the vanishing regime. implies that the project of the rescripts has got to a point where a regular programme has been drawn up. That is not the fact. But even if the scheme should get thus far and then be restricted as thus suggested, it is considered that no practicable end could agreement upon the agenda of the conference, upon the true basis of negotiation and the limitation of inquiry, will in consequence of the differences of system in various countries be where the real difficulty points, but the private opinion in all official circles is that no conference will ever meet.

If any important fact is to flow from these decrees, it will be from that part of them which proposes international changes, new labor legislation and the reform of the rela-

A POPULAR MURMUR. Stumm, who, next to Krupp, is the largest employer of labor in Rhineland, is likely to preside over this commission. Its projects will be examined by the Council of State before they are submitted to the Reichstag. The Council of State is not a body that possess in any great degree the confidence and good will of the populace and workingmen murmur at the socion that it is first to sit in judgment upon the laws that are to initiate the cornucopia.

It is said, therefore, that the Emperor will reorganize this body. It is new composed of 80 members, 50 of whom are officials or Generals, and there are only eight men in it, of whom Miguel is one, who have any knowledge of industrial subjects. The Emperor was a propriet on this body a cerperor proposes to appoint on this body a cer-tain number of workmen to saist in these deliberations. For this he has a good pre-cedent in the Prussian Economic Council, 15 members of which are workingmen.

HELPING THE SOCIALISTS. The effect of the decrees upon the electoral canvass is that they actually tend to help the Socialists party. This is a surprise, because it did not look crees were played as a great stroke in the game for votes seemed to be confirmed by the staggering effect they had at the first moment upon the Socialist propaganda, for they seemed to make socialism itself unnecessary.

But the sober second thought is to the effect that the decrees are an imperial recognition that socialism is right and wise, and that what it proposes is necessary for the country, and thereupon people say: "If this is what we need, it is better to have this great reform carried out by its friends, and why should we now abandon them to put the good cause into the hands of those who hitherto have always been its enemies?"

A SIGN OF VICTORY. decrees as the monument of their victory over the Chancellor, whose repeated denunciation of their ideas as purely chimerical are now forcibly quoted against him. Vollmar, speaking at Munich, said that the party hailed with rejoicing the prospect of improvement and progress revealed by the Emperor's attitude, but insisted upon the necessity that Socialists must close up their ranks in order to make sure the realization Hence the Socialists accept the Emperor's ranks in order to make sure the realization of the Emperor's promises.

Herren Bebel, Singer and Liebknecht held a consultation before permitting the authorized criticism that appeared in the Berliner Folksblatt. They agreed upon an article in the same vein as Vollmar's speech and advised the workingmen to accept with welcome the approaches from the throne that approved and justified their own theories, but to accept all this with an ulti-mate reliance upon their own strength; to trust the Emperor, but to keep the party together.

The first practical conclusion drawn from The first practical conclusion drawn from the rescripts is that labor candidates will take the place of importance lately assigned to the Cartellers in political combinations; and the Cartellers are uneasy at this prospect. The Kolinsche Zeitung takes a cool view of the facts as they stand now, and is also of the opinion that the imperial maneuver will not have the slightest effect in reducing the Socialist votes and other in reducing the Socialist votes, and other papers predict an inevitable large Socialist gain.

Since the publication of the decrees the Since the publication of the decrees the Socialist Central Committee has increased the number of its candidates, and now contests 210 districts. The campaign, all worked by this committee from Berlin, is a display of marvelous activity, energy and intelligent. Through its perfect organization an abundant supply of money has been provided, and the richer districts assist the poorer ones. Many contributions of money have been received from outside of Germany, and the largest of these are from America. Many workingmen are candidates in the coal region.

The Record-Breaking Speech Made Ther

[BY CARLE TO THE DISPATCH.] LONDON, February 8 .- Dr. Thomas Door Orosby caugh: a Tariar when he brought about the arrest of Jerome Hopkins for libel in sending him abusive poetry on pos-tal cards because Crosby refused to pay his subscription to one of Hopkins' concerts. Hopkins was tried at the Old Bailey before a jury yesterday, and though he was found guilty and compelled to enter into his own recognizances in £100; and to find one surety in £50 to keep the peace, he had fun enough with Dr. Crosby to compensate for all his Hopkins addressed the jury for two hours keeping them, the Judge, the spectators and even Dr. Crosby's counsel in a continuous roar of laughter, while the doctor himself writhed in his chair and doubtless wished from the bottom of his heart that he had paid the guinea when his tormentor asked him for it. It was such a scene as Old Bailey never witnessed before, and when the case was concluded a throng of bewigged English barristers crowded about the American musician, offered their congratulations and advised him to give up music and devote him.

IN CABLE TO THE DIS ATCE. LONDON, February 8. — Sir Thomas Brady, the Irish fisheries commissioner who administered the fund raised four years ago for the relief of destitute fishermen along the Irish seaboard, informs me of a sad tragedy on the north coast among the beneficiaries of the fund. Fishing is at all times a hazardous pursuit on the eastern and northern coasts of Ireland, for storms arise so suddenly that boats never dare venture far from shore. But during the great Atlantic storm last month it was courting death to venture out at all. However, nine fisher-men of Rosykill, in Donegal, pushed by ne-cessity to earn bread, ventured off the coast into the mouth of Lough Swilly during a

The boat was dashed to pieces at the foot of the clift on Fanad Point, and all her occupants lost. By this accident 54 women, helpless old men and children have been left unprovided for. Five of the fishermen were married and leave for wideward 30 explanation.

My catarrh, which had troubled me so long, had begun to affect my lungs, and they pained me very much, especially when I coughed or raised up the offensive discharge which seemed to so fill up my windpipe and bronchial tubes, that I found it often difficult to breathe. I coughed more or less both day and night. It would often hurt me to breathe, my breath became short, and I felt a tight op-pressive feeling in my lungs. I often felt a pain in my left side. My food would sour on pain in my loft side. My food would sour on my stomach, giving me a full, uncomfortable feeling after eating, with belching of gas. My hands and feet were cold and clammy. I could not walk any distance, or up a hill without getting out of breath. I had many other aches and pains and also suffered from those diseases peculiar to women. In fact, I grew weaker and weaker until I felt as if I did not care whather I lived or died as I would be an inwhether I lived or died, as I would be an in-valid the remainder of my life. I tried several doctors, but I found no relief. Reading of so doctors, but I found no renet.
