The Old League May Yet sale to-day: Have Eight Clubs.

WHAT NICK YOUNG SAYS.

Ad. Gumbert Agrees to go With the Boston Players.

THE SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

President N. E. Young, of the National League, states that two League schedules may be made out, one for eight and the other for ten clubs. Ad. Gumbert agrees to go with the Boston Players' club. Pitcher Blair is seriously ill. Spalding talks about Gumbert's case. PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, February 13 .- The next official bulletin issued from League headquarters will contain a call for the meeting of the Schedule Committee in Cleveland, O., on March 4. President Young says the coming meeting is similar to that recently held in New York City, as it is simply an adjourned meeting of the League at which any business relating to the national game may be transacted. In addition to arranging the schedule for the coming season the appointment of the staff of umpires will be announced and all of the preliminaries for opening the campaign will be arranged. AN OFFER WITHDRAWN.

Mr. Young has just received a letter from Mr. Howe, of Cleveland, stating that the League club in that city has withdrawn its offer to sell out to Detroit and proposes to remain in the League, sink or swim. Mr. Brush has written to Mr. Young assuring him that there is nothing in the rumor floating about in base-ball circles to the effect that the Hoosier team is to be transferred to New York. Mr. Young does not hesitate to say that he expects to hear all kinds of sensational reports concerning the membership of the League until after the March meeting is held and the playing schedule is promulgated. NO SUGGESTIONS MADE.

He says he has not received a word or a suggestion from any member of the committee on the subject, and he does not know whether they are making up the schedule for eight or ten clubs. They may prepare two separate schedules to enact either emergency, and it will be competent for the League to determine which shall be adopted. As the coming meeting is really a continuation of the annual meeting, the membership can be changed if necessary and any other legitimate husiness in consary and any other legitimate business in con-nection with the League, present or future, may be transacted.

It is evident from Mr. Young's remarks that if there is any deal on foot he is not aware of it, and he does not like to believe that he would be ignored if anything of the kind was contem-plated.

KICKS A LITTLE STRONGER.

Old League People Scaring a Point on the Brotherhood.

NEW YORK, February 13.-Director Walter Appleton, of the New York League Baseball Club, returned from Elmira this morning, and to a crowd of newspaper men hinted that Dan ous second baseman would sign a League contract and play in his old position this season. Mr. Appleton said also that Mike Kelly will sign a League contract within two weeks. Among the Players' League men there is a disposition to stamp the whole affair as a League bluff, designed to work distrust among the players and thus weaken their or-ganization. "Dauny is as solid as a rock," said a Brother-bood man, "and as for Mike Kelly, the League magnates can't touch him."

League adherents on the other hand declared that if Richardson had not positively signed he had given his word to Mr. Appleton to stand by the old club. In baseball circles here there is ensiderable talk about the members of the Players' League now in this city and in Chi-cago. It is noted that these old players are ap-parently resting on their "reputation," as ball-players, and that they are all in high flesh and living "sumptuously every day," while the League Chicago team headed by Anson are stready in perfect form, and are on the road "playing bali." It is also said that it will be impossible for the Players' League men to get in "ball form" by the time the season opens, and that many of them will commence the season.

WHAT SPALDING SAYS.

He Thinks That Combert is a Little Too Greedy.

CHICAGO, February 18 .- Relative to the report that Pitcher Gumbert had refused the Chicago club's offer Mr. Spalding said to-day that he had a conversation with Gumbert at the Pittsburg depot while he (Spalding) was on his way West from the League meeting. He offered Gumbert the same salary that he re. ceived last year, which was $2,500, or about $70 a game for every game he pitched.

"I consider this," said Mr. Spalding, "a lib-eral salary, and told Gumbert that I would not pay him more, although he intimated to me that he would sign for $3,500. Gumbert is placed in a peculiar position. He has too in-telligent an idea as to the kind of contract he wants should be conclude to sign with the Brotherhood, and is a little too greedy to sign with us. Possibly be may decide to accept my with us. Possibly he may decide to accept my offer of $2,500, though I believe I have secured as good man in young Blair, who pitched last season in Hamilton."

WILL BENEFIT PATRONS.

A New Entrance Gate for the Old Club Ball Grounds. The directors of the old League club of this city are figuring on making an entrance gate and turnstile at the Pennsylvania avenue corper of Recreation Park. This will enable patrons of the ball games to leave postoffice corner on the electric cars and be at the ball grounds in 9 minutes. Undoubtedly this will be a great advantage to the patrons of the National League games.

Manager Hecker arranged dates for exhibition games as follows: With the East End

Athletics at Recreation Park, April 2 and 3; with Wheeling at Recreation Park, April 9 and 10; at Wheeling April 11 and 12. The plarers of the old club will report next month, and each as he reports will commence active GUMBERT FOR BOSTON.

The Young East End Pitcher Joins the Boston Pinyers' Team.

An evening paper yesterday stated, on what appears to be reliable authority, that Ad Gumbert has arranged to pitch for the Boston anxious to remain in the new League and doubtless Boston has made terms with Chicago about his release. Boston will get a very good about his release. Boston will get a very good and promising pitcher and batter.

Gumbert would have made a good member for the new local club and it is a pity that a very unfortunate difference prevented his signing with Manager Hanlon. The latter claims that everything could have been fixed had Gumbert only talked to him, Hanlon, instead of talking to many others.

Carroll's Sensible View. Fred Carroll talked very pointedly and forcibly about the McKean case yesterday. Carroll supports the opinious of Ward, Brunell and supports the opinious of ward, firthell and others, which are to the effect that the new League can get along without McKean or any man of his tendency of mind. If McKean is reinstated, there is no reason why a man like Tucker should not be induced to return to the

Some Big Objectors.

BUFFALO, February 13.-The principal feature of the National Trotting Association to-day was the discussion on the Alcryon-Nelson case. Upon the petition of Messrs. Morey and Smiley, for the horse owners, Judge Corlett granted an order for P. P. Johnston, as President of the National Trotting Association, and the association to show cause before a special term of the Supreme Court, to be held in this city on February 24, at 10 A. M., why they should not be judged guilty of contempt on taking their action yesterday suspending the horses and owners from the association until the injunctions were dissolved. The order was served on President Johnston this evening.

Dempsey a Favorite.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 13 .- Dick Roche of St. Louis, bet $1,000 against $900 on Jack Dempsey against Billy McCarthy, but there is little betting on the match, because the ad-mirers of the Australian are looking for odds. Dempsey weighs 158 pounds, but McCarthy will be the heaviest man. The latter has proposed that two instead of fourounce gloves should be used. Dempsey is agreeable and Major Audrews and Major McLaughlin will put the mat-ter before the club. McCarthy is confident of winning, and cabled his friends in Adelaide and Melbourne to back him. He believes Dempsey is overrated.

TO UNITE AGAINST MR. DELAMATER Representative Culbertson Believes That the Field Will Combine,

A number of Pennsylvania appointments were made yesterday. W. H. Underwood was named as postmaster at Washington, instead of Blaine's relative, Samuel Ewing. This may have a bearing upon the contest for Surveyor.

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) WASHINGTON, February 13 .- The President to-day sent to the Senate several nominations to postoffices in the western part of Pennsylvania, all of which have been previously indicated in these dispatches. He settled the fight over the Washington, Pa., Postoffice by nominating Congressman Ray's man, William H. Underwood. This is the office to which Secretary of State Blaine cesired the appointment of his relative, Samuel Ewing. Mr. Ray does not know whether this support was withdrawn from Samuel and transferred to his brother John, who is understood to be desirous of occupying the position of Surveyor of Customs at the port of Pittsburg. But if Mr. Blaine was really anxious to have one of these two relatives appointed to one of these respective positions, Mr. Underwood's appoint-ment to-day may complicate the situation with regard to the surveyorship, Mr. Ray is congratulating himself on having safely landed his man after a delay of four months, and is not troubling himself about the effect his success in this case may have upon the appointments in another part of the State. Mr. Robert McWhinney's nomination as postmaster at Homestead was also in the list, and Mr. Ray is not anwas also in the list, and Mr. Ray is not anticipating any trouble over his confirmation. Both of Representative Watson's recommendations, mentioned in these dispatches last night, were acted upon favorably and Messra. Wm. M. McKim and Henry H. Evans will soon be dispensing stamps and money orders at the Oil City and Tidioute postoffices, respect-ively. The nomination of Josiah Keller to be postmaster at Somerset is in line with the recommendations of Congressman Scull. It is in place of the nomination of Mr. Postlethwaite, which was withdrawn on accounof that gentleman declining the office be-cause he had been granted a pension. Mr. Keller was formerly County Treasurer and Chairman of the County Republican Com mittee. Captain Thompson's nomination to be postmaster at McKeesport was con-spicuously absent from the list. That matter still hangs fire. Captain Thompson himself considers the situation as favorable to himself, since no action of an unfavor able character was taken by the President and the Postmaster General at their conference yesterday. THE CONTEST FOR SURVEYOR Will Probably Receive Secretary Windom's

Attention in a Few Days. [FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] WASHINGTON, February 13. - Repre sentative Dalzell says that his visit to the White House yesterday with Mr. Ray had nothing to do with the McKeesport or Washington postoffice. He went to see the President about the surveyorship. matter. He told the Presiden that he considered it was time an appointment was made to this place. Mr. that Harrison asked how long the present occu-pant had held the position, and on being told that he had been there five years re-marked that Secretary Windom was going away to New York and he was afraid the matter would have to wait until his return. Now Mr. Windom will only be away a day or two, so it is reasonable to infer that some action may be taken in the case within a M'KINLEY'S BILL REVISED.

The Senate Will Amend It to Acco the Importers. IFROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. 1

WASHINGTON, February 13 .- As it was passed by the House the bill regulating the collection of customs duties, known as the McKinley administrative tariff bill, would go into effect on June. 1. In respose to the request of a number of importers, however, who said that the condi-tion of their orders was such as to cause them embarrassment if the new law went into effect so early, it has been decided to amend the bill in the Senate so as to let it go into operation on the 1st of July.

At present the bill is in the hands of the Senate Finance Committee, but it will be reported to the Senate some time next week. TO COMBINE AGAINST DELAMATER.

THE KNIFFIN MURDER MYSTERY.

The Grand Jury Find No Bill Against the Doctor Nor Miss Pursel.

TRENTON, N. J., February 13 .- The Grand Jury considering the evidence in the mysterious Kniffin murder case reported to Justice Bearley of the Mercer County Court this afternoon. They found no bill against Dr. Kniffin nor Miss Pursel, who were charged by Detective Ritiger with the of the bondsmen. Prosecutor Stockton con-sented to the discharge of the sureties on Dr. Kniffin's bond, but not those of Miss Pursel's bond. He gave no reason for holding them, but said that something might turn up. Justice Beasley said that both the accused were free, because the grand jury and Cor-oner's jury, after due deliberation, could see no evidence on which to hold them. The order for the release of the bondsmen was

THE FINE SAENGERBUND.

Concert of the Series at New Orleans -Chicago's Glory in Spite of a Wreck.

NEW ORLEANS, February 13 .- The city was visited by a severe rainstorm just before the hour set for the second concert of the Saengerbund; but though the wind blew a burricane it did not deter a large number of persons from attending the matinee.

At 1 o'clock the spacious hall was comfortably filled with an audience composed principally of ladies and children. The concert was in every respect as successful as the initial one, and the audience was de-

They were then well cared for, and both are doing well at last accounts. Mr. Lindemann was the most seriously injured, having had his leg broken. William Jung, who had charge of the dining car, received several cuts on the head (slight) and will return to Chicago to-morrow morning. Mr. Miller's injuries were also slight,
The third concert of the series commenced to-night. The audience was larger even than opening night, and every seat up and down stairs was occupied. Beethoven's overture to "Leonore," by the orchestra, opened the concert, "Rosebud in the Meadow," and "Farewell," by the united singers, were splendid renditions, and were highly appreciated, as was evidenced by the encores. Mrs. Herbert Foerster sang Weber's "Ocean, Thou Mighty Monarch," with brilliant effeet, and was recalled. The mass chorus of the North American Singers' Union saug "The Night," by Schubert, and "The Glory of God," by Beethoven. Musical Director J. H. Deiler wielded the baton. Miss Little sang "Mignon" and "Lorely," both selections by Liszt, and surpassed herself, if that were possible. She received another ovation. Beethoven's symphony in C minor was the next number on the programme.

"Frederick Barbarossa," by the mass chorus, was given with magnificent effect.

Nothing New in True.

The Chronicle says: The report confirms the impression made upon calm observers by the violent and noisy "Parnellism and Crime" articles when they "Parnellism and Crime" articles when they first appeared—that what was new in them was not true: The report will be satisfactory to the English people for as the leaders of both the great parties in the State interfered with Parnell and tried to buy his support it would have been painful to discover that the Parnell party had been guilty of crimes which should have made it impossible for decent men to hold intercourse with them. The report may be summed up in a sentence: The Parnellites have done and said nothing more reprehensible than a Salibury and Carnarvon knew they had done when the latter negotiated with them an alliance that placed the Government in the hands of the Tories. The Times case has tumbled down like a house of cards. The history of "Parnellism and Crime," from its birth to its burial in this report, is the history of the most cotossal flasco in the political journalism of the Victorian era. The special value of the report lies in the candor with which it states not only of what charges the respondents are innocent, but also of which they are guilty.

The Report Scrupulously Fair.

It hopes that those who had cast inuendoes upon their impartiality are now ashamed of them-selves. It then says:

selves. It then says:

We may say generally that while the verdict favors the accused upon a few of the most heinous charges in support of which but few people expected that any proof would be brought, there are more than enough behind to substantiate all that has been generally believed of the connection between homerulers and conspiracies against the law, and to bring home to the respondents at the same time the moral responsibility for the worst crimes committed by the League and its agents. If Parnell condenned crime in one breath he encouraged it in another.
