PAINS AND WEAKNESS

MRS. ELIZA SMITH

"Hundreds of people in Pittsburg have told how wonderfully they have been cured by the physicians of the Catarrh and Dyspensia Insti-tute at 323 Penn ave., and I feel it my duty to state my case. My catarrh, which had troubled me so long, had begun to affect my lungs, and they pained me very much, especially when I coughed or raised up the offensive discharge which seemed to so fill up my windpipe and bronchial tubes, that I found it often difficult to breathe. I coughed more or less both day and night. It would often hurt me to breathe, my breath became short, and I felt a tight op pressive feeling in my lungs. I often felt a pain in my left side. My food would sour on my stomach, giving me a full, uncomfortable feeling after eating, with belching of gas. My hands and feet were cold and clammy. I could not walk any distance, or up a hill without getting out of breath. I had many other aches and pains a d also suffered from those diseases peculiar to wome.. In fact, I grew weaker and weaker until I felt as if I did not care

WANT THEIR SHARE. LATE NEWS IN BRIEF,

A Law Suit to Recover the Royalty on Butler County Oil Bonds. JONES GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

Taylor Charged With Threatening to Put Out His Children's Eyes.

A SMALL GRIST FROM THE COURT MILL M. W. Watson, Mrs. Matilda Marshall and Thomas M. Marshall, trustees of the paints of James Marshall deceased vesterdayentered suit against the National Transit Company, to recover $7,755 66. It is stated that in 1884 the plaintiffs and the Fisher Oil Company entered into an agreement with the defendant company for the transportation and storage of the product of the wells of the Fisher Oil Company, on the land of the Marshall estate in Butler county. The oil was to be credited one-fourth to the plaintiffs and three-fourths to the Fisher Oil Company. Since April, 1889, however, the Transit Company has received oil of which the plaintiffs' share was valued at $7,755 66, which they did not credit to the plaintiffs, but sold themselves and kept the proceeds.

TO PUT OUT THEIR EYES.

A Wife Who Apparently Had Good Grounds for a Divorce. The testimony taken in the diverce case of Mrs. Margaret J. Taylor against Henry J. Tay lor was filed yesterday. The parties were resi dents of Lawrenceville and afterward of Allegheny.

Taylor, it is alleged, got drunk and beat and abused his wife. He threatened to kill her and to put out the eyes of their children with a fork. He cut one of the children with a knife about five months ago, and at the suit of Super# intendent Dean, of the Anti-Cruelty Society, was sent 90 days to the workhouse. Mrs. Tayler, upon this, separated from him. The testimony in the case of Mrs. Anna Bortle against Henry Bortle was also filed. Desertion was alleged.

JONES PLEADS GUILTY.

Involuntary Manslaughter for the Killing of Anthony Now. In the Criminal Court yesterday John Jones pleaded guilty to the charge of involuntary manslaughter for the killing of Anthony Now at Homestead September 25. Jones and Now were employed at Carnegie, Phipps & Co.'s mill, and at the time of the occurrence the other workmen were teasing Jones. He picked up a wrench and threw it at them. It struck Now on the bead, fracturing his skull and causing his death a few days later.

Jones was held for manslaughter, and his trial was fixed for yesterday. He will be sentenced Saturday.

THE CITY RING'S DESPERATE FIGHT For the Board of Awards. Never within the recollection of the oldest citizen has there been such a desperate effort to control the affairs of this city as that being made at the present time by the city ring. What is the purpose of it? Ask Flipp or any of the other city bosses, and they will tell you privately that they do not care anything about the Mayor's position, except as it relates to the control of the lions of money raised by taxation find an outlet, and here is where the question of who shall do the business of the city at the high-est rates is settled. The Board of Awards is now divided and has been so for a year, and that is what the people want, and the city ring does not want. Mayor McCallin occupies the pivotal point, and is holding the fort, and the peo-ple should see to it on Tuesday next that Hon. John H. Bailey takes the place now held by McCallin, and in this way prevent the city ring and its army of jobbers and leeches from running away with everything the dity holds valuable.
