Ministers Should Read Daily Papers as Well as Light Literature.

NEWS NOTES FROM THE CHURCHES

Approves of the questions that are now agitating the minds of those who are interested in the discussion of questions of theology, brought on by the revision of the confession of faith and the reputation of the statement that the final destruction of the infant has been taught by the Calvinistic school of thought, is the article by Mr. Tuckerman in the North American Review, in which he says:

"Another very notable clergyman of Boston was the Rev. Lyman Beecher, father of the late Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. He was one of the lights, technically speaking, of the 'blue light' of Calvinism. He was a powerful preacher to a devoted congregation, and indulged in sectarian denunciations beyond what were generally considered the bounds of good taste. I recall a pulpit Sunday afternoon when 'Becher' preached on the subject of 'Infant Salvation' and attended the services more, I fear, from curiosity than religious impulse. . . . After describing the horrors of hell that await the impenitent sinner, the eloquent preacher illustrated this evil by a case in point. A mother, who had always intended to present her infant for baptism, postponed the ceremony until the day after the infant was dead. . . ."

DISCOMFORTS OF HOLY LAND TRAVEL

(CORRESPONDENCE OF THE DISPATCH.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, January 2.—My last letter ended with a description of Samaria, where we staid for the night. There, among other things, we saw the site of Ahab's ivory palace, to the magnificent architecture of which the rain, robbery and ruin of the past, though the prophets had predicted, there was nothing but pleasure, sunshine, profit and success. . . .

And so it was. We were camped for an hour, and then the Bible was read. The scene of it was passed on grateful that throughout our trip through Holy Land no accident or evil had befallen us, but that in spite of the rain, robbery and ruin of the past, though the prophets had predicted, there was nothing but pleasure, sunshine, profit and success. . . .
