SHE LIKES JAIL LIFE

A Southside Woman Sent up for Ten Days, Nearly Three Months Ago,

CAN'T BE FIRED BY THE WARDEN.

Her Sanity Questioned by Her Own Father, and She is Committed.

NO ATTEMPTS TO PROVE SHE'S CRAZY

Had Warden Berlin, of the county jail the same charge upon his hands as he has to-day he could have given Charles Reade a pointer for another good insane asylum novel. On November 25, 1889, he received Miss Mary McClosky, aged 32, committed by Judge Brokaw for ten days, to be examined as to her sanity. She was accompanied by a certificate from Dr. W. J. Martin, of the Southside, stating that he had known her for five or six years, and in his opinion she was insane and a dangerous person to be at large.

As in all such cases, Warden Berlin took charge of the woman, but during the ten days, and, in fact, ever since, neither he not any of his officers discovered any signs of insanity. Dr. Chessrown, the jail physician, declined to make any affidavit as to her insanity, and the Warden says she has been industrious and obedient, doing whatever she was told by the matron, and doing it well. She sews well, he said, and could write a good letter, although she's not well educated, and he could see nothing about her to indicate insanity. The only trouble he saw was a disinclination to return to her

DID NOT WANT TO LEAVE.

When the time allotted had expired and the Warden set her at liberty, he says she sat on the steps in front and cried, saying she was afraid to go home. Warden Berlin, after vainly persuading her to go home, saw no course open but to take her in again, and consulting District Attorney Johaston ou the subject, he was told that for the small expense she would be it would be better to keep her until some family could be found who would employ her as a domestic, for which position she is both capable and will-

Warden Berlin states he sent word by Mrs. Wright, a lady living at No. 10 Cliff street, in whose service the woman was for over two years, and who took considerable interest in her welfare, to both her father and Dr. Martin, that if they would produce two witnesses who knew her and would swear she was insane he would have her sent to Dixmont. No reply was sent to the request. He wrote a formal letter to Dr. Martin, asking him if he would make affidavit and procure two other people who knew the woman to also make affidavits as to her insanity. The Warden has not yet received the courtesy of an answer. He is at a loss to know what to do in the prem-ises. He cannot send her to a hospital, as she is not sick, nor to Dixmont, as no one will make affidavit that she is insane, and he cannot turn the woman out into the streets,

Deputy Warden Soffel will next week take her to do housework at his residence in the Thirty-second ward, and thus relieve the county of a boarder who pays for her keep in work and pay her wages.

AS SHE TELLS IT.

The woman's story, as told by herself, is a rather peculiar one. She states that she was ill-treated at home. She worked hard to keep house and attend to the boarders, from whom her father. Bernard McClosky derived a living. He was old and feeble, but had an unfortunate failing in an appe tite for whisky. When he got hold of any of the income of the boarding house he would proceed to blow it in with celerity. She then made up her mind to go out as a traction road. Not over the entire line, to be sure, but a portion of the track has been tested by a real cable car propelled (one way) by a real cable. The curves entering the station on Herron avenue, at the upper end, are very short, and it was considered desirable, in viewo! the trouble encountered at other points, that they should be thoroughly tried.

The manuer of the test was decidedly unique. An ordinary dump-cart, to which was harnessed an exceedingly aucient-look-ing mule, was attached to the rear end of ove of the cars in the building. By this means, and the volunteer assistance of a number of spectators and small boys, the car was backed perhaps 200 yards down Herron avenue. The cable was then started very gently and the first trip on the road The curves did not work altogether satisfactorily, and the somewhat ludicrous back-ing-out and running-in process was repeated everal times. Finally it was announced that this particular spot would be all right, although some of those present had doubts on the subject.

The work of placing the new pulleys in the dip at Francis street was completed yesterday morning, and the balance of the day devoted to similar work at Chauncey street. This new contrivance is a rather peculiar one, and widely divergent views are expressed as to the practicability of the scheme. A swinging arm, with a solid pulley on the end, rests upon the cable, being held in place by a weight. When in operation the grip of the passing car is supposed to push the pulley aside, and then the weight is to force it back again.

"Great chance there for a smashup some day," remarked one of a group of curious individuals who were examing the mechan-ism, yesterday. "An automatic contrivance of that description is likely to get out of order at any time. I would not be surprised to hear of something happening right here." Engineer Rice is understood to have stated in conversation that the plans on which the track was constructed were faulty, and that in several places the cable was not occupy-ing the position that it should. If the present remedies prove successful, however, a trial trip over the entire line would be made very shortly. It is likely to be some time yet, though, before the denizen of Herron Hill can be regularly whirled to Wood street in 15 minutes.

SATURDAY NIGHT EVIL DOERS. How They Came Off in the Tussle With

Justice. Just a score of prisoners put in an appearance from the Central station cells yesterday morning before Judge McKenna, who dispensed the terrors of the law, also to the Twelfth and Seventeenth ward cases. Of the Central station cases, John McGarvey got 90 days for kicking in the door of his mother's house on Chestnut street; William Boyd got 30 days for assaulting Robert Watson with bricks and cobbles, Boyd's son be-ing discharged on the same charge; John Williams got a fine of $25 and costs for as-saulting William Manks at the latter's house on Wylie avenue and for pulling a revolver on Officer Dichl. The remaining cases were sposed of with light fines and sentences. Of the Seventeenth ward cases Frank Fisher got 30 days on suspicion of having been connected with a robbery in Lawrenceville a few days ago; Mike Kelly got 30 days for habitual drunkenness; four other cases were disposed of by the payment of fines.

TEE ART OF DOING THINGS WELL

Cedars of Lebanon as the Highest Type of Christian Character.

OTHER THOUGHTS OF LOCAL PASTORS'

The Fourth Avenue Baptist Church pulpit was filled yesterday morning by Rev. Dr. M. B. Riddle. In the course of a strong sermon, whose aim was mainly to emphasize the beauty of holiness, the reverend doctor took occasion to say that there was no art, however attractive, that was to be compared for a moment, in the beauty of its results, with the art of doing well, or doing good, from right motives. "We may illustrate something of the difference in material arts, now that we are dealing with that subject," said he, in substance, "by directing particular attention to some of our own most familiar and conspicuous local landmarks. The opening of that splendid structure in Allegheny, the Carnegie Free Library, has invited us to admire art in widely different, but very attractive, forms-in architecture and painting. The good that each of these arts may do in its own way is quite incalculable. And who can estimate where will end the high influence upon all our community, architectur ally, of that magnificent edifice, our county Court House? There it will stand for years, commanding the admiration of all-a splen-did poem in granite-testifying to every be holder that its architect had well and nobly mastered his art. "Not so with our new Government building, however. It likewise has an exterior of enduring granite. But the eccentricities and incongruities of its design, not less than the monumen-tal delay in its construction, will stand for years, an eyesore, to remind each onlooker that our Government committed the design, if not the execution thereof, to an architect who knew chiefly and thoroughly the art of marring beauty, and whose similar works, all over this broad land of ours, will long remain to testify of his incompetence. "You see the distinction? Of course you do; for the difference between the real and the sham in architectural art is more plainly marked than is a similar difference between genuine and counterfeit evidences of individual morality." INSTALLED AS DEACON.

> Interesting Coremonics at the Second Congregational Charch, Allegheny.

At the Second Congregational Church, or North avenue, yesterday morning, August Lefevre was installed as fourth descon of the church. Within two weeks there have been seven persons admitted to member-ship, all being heads of families. Rev. J. H. Barnett preached upon "Cedar Chris-tians." He referred to the cedar of Mt. Lebanon as a symbol of the highest type o Christian, citing its elevated site, its height and breadth, its evergreen freshness, its broad and generous shade, its sturdy strength against the storm, its fragrance, and, after its death, its usefulness in the building of temples. Last evening services were held by Dea-con Bailey, of Wilkinsburg. Bev. Mr. Barnett is not at all well, suffering from promptly denied in the presence of the Warden. To a clergyman who had taken her to the jail she gave evidence of a re-tentive memory, if not of a sound mind. She said: "You sent me to St. Francis" Hospital before for treatment, and I got at by being put to wash the dirty clothes of the patients. I was sent out of that institution on a rainy day, without even 5 cents to pay my car fare home. In this jail I am better treated than I was in the hospital. When you put me in a cab, saying you were going to take me to another hospital, you landed me in jail, and I don't think it looked very well for you to tell an untruth." The only violence she admits to have used was against one of her own sisters, who was said to have been guilty of an indiscretion, and whom she threatened with castigation unless she confessed the circumstances and told the name of her lover. This, she told the jail authorities, the sister had done, under the circumstances, but Mary had been told since that her sister had beea married, but she did not believe it, as she had frequently demanded to see the certificate, but had been put off with one excuse or another, and this was the excuse her parents had for accusing her of insanity and vio-

WHAT THE DOCTOR SAYS.

Dr. W. J. Martin was seen at his home at 1712 Carson street. He said he had been the family physician for many years, and he had always heard the daughter spoken of as being an unruly girl. He had always noticed something peculiar in her actions, and thought that there was something wrong with her mind. He wrote the recommenda tion at the request of Mr. Bernard Mc-Closky, the girl's father. The latter told the physician that Mary was unruly, abusive and obstinate, and the family could when matters would get beyond all control. Dr. Martin simply said in the recommendation to the jail officials that he considered Miss McClosky's case worthy of an investi-

BY THE OLD SOLDIERS.

At a Meeting of the M. P. G. Resolution Are Passed Condemning the Democratic Nominer.

John H. Bailey was scored by the Executive Committe of M. P. G. at their meeting Saturday night. Can a man who declares the war a failure, ridicules Father Abraham, and denounces Union soldiers as hirelings receive your votes under any circumstances? The following are the resolutions adopted: At a special meeting of the Executive Committee of the M. P. G., held at headquarters, Saturday, February 15, 1890, it was unanimously decided that it is the duty of every member of the M. P. G. to not only vote for Mr. Gourley for Mayor of Pittsburg, but to do all in his power to secure his election. The anti-war speeches of Mr. Bailey, his indorsement of the resolution front, and is enough to prevent every Union loving soldier and citizen from upholding By order of the him now. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

[Communicated.] Stayton vs. Wyman.

At a meeting held in Second ward, Allegheny, Feb. 15, the following was authorized to be published: The Mayoralty in Atlegheny is one of the most momentous importance to its citizens and all lovers of pure government. The swful danger with which the city is threatened in the possible election of James G. Wyman should be a sufficient warning to every voter to use all law;ul means to avert such a calamity as the election to the im-portant office of Mayor, of a man bearing his reputation. It is well known that the moral atmosphere of the city during his previous administration was the most disreputable and impure that Allegheny ever endured, and if such a misfortune should fall upon the city as his election on next Tuesday a repetition of the same serious condition, with the springing up of vile dens and speak-easies and their usual accompanying debasing influences may be expected. Let every voter be awakened to ### a sense of the gravity of the situation, and be advised to go to the polls on Tuesday and aid in rolling up such an overwhelming majority against said Wyman (whose support emanates largely from the most lawless elements of our city) as the one which, by the union of the better elements of all parties in the last county election, defeated an objec-tionable candidate. So let the same element now unite in saving our city by voting for I. R. Stayton, a man well qualified for the office of Mayor and with a clean reputation.

Rev. Mr. McAllister will supplement this discourse by the citation of further facts bearing upon the subject next Sunday afternoon. THE MISTAKES OF SATAN.

An Antidote Prescribed Against the Evil-Distilled Poison.

Last evening Rev. C. E. Locke preached a sermon upon "The Mistakes of the Devil." The central thought of the discourse was that an antidote existed against the poison instilled by the devil whether in his personal capacity or otherwise. That was Christ, taken into the man's being. He gave one interesting in-stance in point, that of a young man who That Bailey, his indersement of the resolution passed at the Democratic Convention, held in Chicago, in 1864, "declaring the war a failure, etc.," and his denouncing soldiers as hirelings, and his, attempted ridicule of "Father Abraham," are not forgotten. All of this was done by him when you were at the dink of the ball with ability. He was addicted to bad habits and afterward acknowledged that he had taken the pulpit and ingratiated himself icto the acknowledged himself into the good graces of the clergy and laity merely as a joke. He afterward joined the church and was known in it as Bishop Hamilton.

This was a peculiar incident where the devil made a mustake and a law student became a bishop.

THREE KINDS OF PEOPLE,

Consolution for All and Hope for Those Who Are in Doubt. Rev. John H. Prugh, of the Grace Re formed Church, selected his text last evening from Luke, 13th chapter, 23d verse "Are There Few That be Saved ?" The sermon was divided into three parts or heads: "Good people, one in a household, or ten in a city; the utterly bad and those who are in doubt." The sermon was full of consolation to all of the three classes mentioned, and the closing remarks, devoted to those in doubt, were especially happy in expression. He said: "Let us look with hope to the future and believe that through the mercy and love of God the many and not the few will be saved. It is not wrong to think noble things of God.

A Political Sermon.

Rev. J. D. Sands last evening gave an address on "City Government," in which he enlogized the Pittsburg methods of dealing with the erring, and spoke of the decrease of criminal offenses as well as of the manner in which the repression of crime was affected.
