THE SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

There are many interesting features about the big horse sales at Lexington, Cain gives information about the trotters. Umnire Burnum talks interestingly about the pitching of John Clarkson and Tim Keefe. Manager Hecker receives a letter from Pitcher Daniels.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCELL LEXINGTON, KY., February 16 .- The great sales of trotting stock are now in full blast, and the horse marts of this city will continue to be bristling scenes of activity from this date until the 1st of March. Strangers from all parts of the country are here attending the sales and doing the Bluegrass region, which, owing to the extremely open winter, presents the same beautiful green appearance as it usually does in May. Among the prominent horsemen here are the following well-known gentlemen: J. I. Case and his son Jackson, of Racine, Wis.; E. A. Collins, Milan, Tenn.; G. B. Goodell, Cheyenne, Wyo. T.; M. L. Hare, Indian-apolis, Ind.; C. W. Williams, Independence, Ia.; S. J. Look, Henry Simons and Steve Maxwell, Louisville, Ky.; Dr. F. C. Fowler, Modus, Conn.; Judson H. Clark, Elmira, N. Y.; Dr. S. C. The report sent out that Mr. Judson H. Clark has purchased the great California stallion Alcarar, 220%, to take the place in the stud made vacant by the destruction of Bell Boy, proves to have been unfounded. He did make overtures for the purchase of the horse, but the trace was not consummated, and as he has now bought Sunol's brother, Wellington, it is not likely he will buy Alcazar. Placing Wellington in the bands of Macey Brothers, proves Mr. Clark holds these young men in high es-teem and that the recent fire has not shaken his confidence in their ability to take good care of horses. In an interview Mr. Clark said concerning the fire: "I regard the fire as one of those unavoidable calamities like that which mearly swept away all that was dear to Secretary Tracy, and which the utmost care and watchfulness seemed powerless to prevent. Aithough Bell Boy's death is a heavy loss to me, I am satisfied it was simply an accident which was out of the power of Maccy Brothers or anyone else to stand off." In wellington Mr. Clark thinks he has a good borse—one which will in time prove himself worthy of his relationship to the sensational Sunol, and fitty wear the mantel Bell Boy so tragically laid down.

One of the features of the opening day of the Brasheld sale was the exhibition of the stall-ions Robert McGregor, 2:17%, and Bonnie Mc-Gregor, 2:18%. They were regarded with great interest by the throng of horsemen, as it was the first time that sire and son, with anythin; like such fast records, were ever paraded in a show ring together. In appearance they very much resemble each other, their relationship ng apparent at a glunce. lark's Chicago Review, a monthly horse Clark's Chicago Review, a monthly horse magazine, was purchased a few days since by a stock company, and on March I will be converted into a weekly paper devoted alike to the running and the trotting turf. Mr. George H. Morgan, long of the Chicago Horseman, has been made the edutor of the new paper. He is here this week and expresses himself as much pleased with his new field of labor. He has many friends in Kentucky, and the Chicago Weekly Horse Review, as it will now/be called, will no doubt get its full share of Bluegrass business. This gives Chicago three weekly horse papers, which record is only excelled by one city in the United States—New York. WELLINGTON'S PRICE.

Thus far all effors to ascertain the price paid Clark, have proved futile, both buyer and seller refusing to give the information. It is said, however, that the figure is higher than any ever paid for a trotting stallion which had no track record, and like Wellington was sold on his appearance, breeding and future promises. Already his services have been engaged for a number of high-class mares and he will be given a chance second to no untried horse ever solicating patronare in Kentucky. By pur-chasing him Mr. Clark proves himself not only a real patron of the trotting-bred horse, but a man who allows no misfortune to dampen his

J. M. and J. E. Lee, Danville, Ky., have sold J. M. and J. E. Lee, Danville, Ky., have sold on a Eastern party for $600, a 2-rear-old bay colt by C. F. Clay, 2:18, which is said to be of more than usual promise. This youngster's size has booked to him this season 40 mares, all of which are either daughters or granddaughters on their sire's side to George Wilkes. At the Cecil farm, C. F. Clay's home, his 2-year-old daughter, Clornes, who went a half last season in 1:17, has been taken up and will be a prominent conter, Clorine, who went a half last season in 127, has been taken up and will be a prominent contestant this year in all the 2-year-old stakes, as will also another filly by him out of a mare by New York, which is owned by Warren Russell, of Danville. The latter filly is credited with a half-mile last year in 1:534, and is now said to be very much improved by her let-up. Clorine is a remarkably well-bred filly, her dam being by Onward and out of that good mare. Fanny Robinson, 22034, She is thus heir to a sensational career on the turf, and her owners are confident she will wear the laurel wreath of the 2-year-olds in Kentucky this year.

ABOUT CRIT DAVIS.

Prince Wilkes' ex-driver and trainer, the skillful Crit Davis, while having a good stable of sufficiently well to go down the Grand Circuit, and as a consequence he will likely confine his operations this season to Kentucky tracks. He has now under his care nearly a score of promising youngsters, but it requires time for them to reach maturity, and, as he never hurries a horse to his best efforts when young, he will doubtless be one of the absentees from the sulky at the Cleveland, Buffalo and other big tracks. Of all the horses now under his care he regards Bon nie Wilmore the highest, and gives his opin the borses now under his care he regards Bon-nie Wilmore the highest, and gives his opin-ion that in a few seasons this grandson of Strathmore will make his presence felt throughout the land. Bonnie Wilmore's record, 227%, made last year as a 3-year-old, is no cri-terion of his speed, as last season, in a race won by Greenview Belle, he was timed a mile out in 220%. In Davis' hands his future, barring accident, is assured, and he will likely make a name second to that of no future, barring accident, is assured, and he will likely make a name second to that of no horse ever developed by this Kentucky wizard, in spite of the fact he enjoys the distinction of naving given three performers a mark of 2:16% or better, they being Prince Wilkes 2:16%. Phil Thompson 2:16%, and Manu Messenger 2:16%. Reports from Madison county speak in giowing terms of Empire Wilkes, a 4-year-old stallion by William L (sire of Axtell, 2:12), it having leaked out that near the cibes of last year his owner sent him a mile in 2:25, and that, too, with seweely any track preparation, although

2:20 or better. In appearance he resembles Axtell, and is a natural troiter, requiring no weights, and in fact not even a heavy shoe. Under Crit Davis' management the track of the Harrodsburg Association over which he trains is being graded and every hollow filled and the hills which obstructed the view removed. This has always been one of the slowest tracks in Kentucky, but the improvements now going on will make it equally as fast as the best. Great efforts will be made to have a fine meeting there next summer, it being the intention to largely increase the value of the purses, which will be so arranged as to accommodate all classes of troiters from the 8-minute horse down.

It is likely that Colonel Jack China, the well-known running turfman, will be offered and will accept the position of starter on the Kentucky Troiting Circuit this season, which will embrace meetings at upward of a dozen places in this Stats next summer, as well as on the Checimati, O., and Rusbville, Ind., tracks which two will probably join the Kentucky Circuit. The old style of allowing the presiding judge to fill this position, whose only claim to the distinction is that he is a member of the association over whose track the trois take place, has become unsatisfactory to patrons of the trotting turf, and on this account a professional starter will be called into service. Colonel China has had considerable experience at the business and would certainly give satisfaction.

Barnum, a member of the "Legal Wreck" Company, will sever his connection with that organization shortly to pay a visit to his home in New York, where he will remain about one week. Mr. Barnum will then go to Columbus and umpire the exhibition games to be played by that club. In the course of a conversation this afternoon, relative to the best pitchers in the League, the veteran umpire said:

the League, the veteran umpire said:

"Clarkson's best and most effective ball is his fast raise ball, which comes toward the batter perfectly straight, and when within 15 or 20 feet of the plate its speed seems to increase and it raises with a peculiar skip or jump. Another ball which is almost equally as effective, and many players consider it even more so, is his high drop ball. It is slow and is delivered with a deliberate motion, when within five feet of the batter's head it drops across his breast and shoots over the plate. It is an exceedingly difficult ball to hit. When it is hit fair it goes into the air, and the only way a batter can strike it with any success is for the batsman to chop down onit. Not two batters out of ten, however, can accomplish that. Clarkson has also a slow ball delivered with the same motion as his speedy ball. But Tim Keefe has the best slow ball of any pitcher in the profession. It deceives the best batters in the League."

A company headed by Captain Lew Clarke has been formed to run passenger boats between Sixth street bridge and Exposition Park during the ball games. One or two tests have been made, and a boat can go from end to end of the single journey in nine minutes.

Falling of a Gallery in a London Church Last Night-An Alarming Interruption to a Penceful Service -The Work of Rescue, IBY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.

LONDON, February 16 .- An accident of an alarming character occurred to-night during divine services at the Bromley Indeendent Church. Across the end of the building, over the entrance, was fixed a balcony canable of holding 60 or 70 persons. While pastor was reading the lessons, the gallery, with scarcely any warning, suddenly collapsed, precipitat-ing its occupants into the body of the church. The cloud of dust obscured the view of the remainder of the congregation for a few minutes, but when it cleared away it became obvious that a number of persons were buried beneath the ruins of the gallery. The fallen debris caused an obstruction at the entrance and prevented any assistance being rendered from the outside, but willing hands were soon at work clearing away the fallen timbers and extricating the unfortunate occupants of the fallen gallery from their perilous position. The gallery was pretty well filled at the time of its fall, and about 20 persons were buried.

The work of removing the debris occupied ome time. When this was accomplished it was found that though most of the victims of the accident were only severely bruised and cut, five had received serious injuries, which in some instances may prove fatal. One young lady was scious when extricated. Two medical gentlemen in the congregation attended to injured, of whom several had broken legs and arms while the others had internal injuries.

MURDERS ON SUNDAY

HIS WIFE FATALLY INJURED.

The Slayer Then Sends a Bullet Through Bis Own Head and Dies.

PATAL QUARREL AMONG COLORED MEN James Miller, Stabbed Twice in the Neck, Runs Upstairs and Falls Dead.

Sunday was a day of murderous crime in New York. A discarded lover shoots a man dead, seriously wounds a woman and then sends a bullet crashing through his own brain. During a quarrel among colored people a man was instantly killed by being stabbed twice in the neck.

NEW YORK, February 16.-This has been a day of murderous crime in this city. Isaac Jacob, a resident of Brooklyn, killed Herman Royozinsky at daybreak in a stable at 47 Ridge street. From there he went to the murdered man's residence at 54 Ridge Mr. Masterson describes the rpir as small and about the size of the common pigeon, but of a slenderer, longer build, and of a and he shot her with a revolver. The ball entered her neck on the left side close to the jugular vein. The woman's son, Otto, bounded from the room and leaped at the murderer of his father before a second shot could be fired. Otto dodged behind a wagon and Jacob. seeing two police officers approaching, placed the muzzle of the revolver to his own temple and fired. He fell to the ground with the blood pouring from the wound and died in a few minutes. Mrs. Royozinsky ran toward the Delancey street police station with the blood oozing from her wound. She had just strength to reach it when she fell unconscious on the floor. The police followed her bloody trail, and were just in time to witness the last act of the tragedy.

VARIOUS CAUSES ADVANCED. Various causes led to the shooting. The trouble began three years ago. At that time Jacob is said to have smuggled $7,000 worth of diamonds into this country. Fearing discovery Jacob turned the diamonds over to the murdered man to keep for him. When the danger was over Jacob asked for the return of the diamonds. Royozinsky, it is said, refused to give them up. This led to of any food whatever. Unacquainted hima quarrel and Jacob threatened the other's | self with the art of taxidermy, the mission

His suit prospered until it was learned that he had a wife and children living with him in Brooklyn. Jacob admitted this when questioned by the girl's relatives. Boyozinsky refused bim the house, and Jacob became enraged when he continued to call, and insisted to marry her. Frequent and bitter quarrels ensued between the Royozinskys and Jacob, and the latter swore he would get even with them. Then they refused to allow him to enter the house at all, and Jacob became furious. Jacob went to the house at 4:30 o'clock this morning. He knocked on the door and told the Royozinskys that somebody was trying to steal their horse. The elder Royozinsky is an express man. He dressed himself, and, accompanied by Jacob, crossed the street and entered the stable, which was just over

SHOT THROUGH THE BREAST In the stable yard Jacob placed a revolver against Royozinsky's breast and fired. The ball went through Royozinsky's breast, and he fell dead without a word. Jucob and locked the stable door and entered the Royozinskys house. Mrs. Royozinsky in the meantime had become suspicious that all was not right. She was about to start after her husband when she met Jacob, and was shot as already stated.

The body of the murdered man and the e taken to the station house and the wounded woman was taken to the hospital in a precarrous condition.

The bullet entered her neck and was taken out half way down her back. Both of the dead men were about 45 years old and Mrs. Royozinsky is 50. An ax was found near Royozinsky's dead body, and it is supposed that Jacob intended to use it if the bullet did not do the work quick enough. On Jacob's dead body was found a letter written in very bad English. It said that he was born in Russia and was a citizen of the United States. He told in it in a rambling manner of having been swin dled out of money by a number of parties in this city and of law suits in which he was engaged and which profited him nothing.

COLUMBUS, February 16 .- The village of Georgesville, 12 miles west of Columbus, is greatly excited over what will probably be a double murder, committed this morning. The only saloon in the place is kept by Thomas Ryan, in spite of local option, which has been adopted by a vote of the village. A number of young countrymen were in Ryan's saloon playing cards and pool and a general fight ensued over a disputed game. Ryan employed a revolver and it seems fired indiscriminately.

Napoleon Severn, aged 19, son of a prominent farmer, was shot, the ball taking effect between the eyes. He ran about 20 yards from the saloon door and dropped dead. The Severns reside at Spring Hill, only a few miles distance. Joshua Stevens, another young man, who was trying to get his brother to go home, and who was not engaged in the game, was shot in the neck about two inches above the collar bone. The wound will prove satal. Ryan closed the saloon and has left the country.

THE WEEK IN CONGRESS.

The World's Fair Committee will probably request In Such a Manner That the Republicans the House to adopt its programme for the disposition of its bill and reports, and the simple majority vote necessary to make this order will doubtless be secured. In case this is done, the working days of the week will be devoted to the present action of the claims of the cities contending for the World's Fair and balloting upon the site. The pension appropriation bill will probably be reported to the House Tuesday, and may be called upon before the end of the week for consideration.

The Blair educational aid bill is the unfinished business on the Senate calendar, and Senator Blair states that he will call it and Senator Blair states that he will call it up for debate at every opportunity. He will require two more days in which to complete his speech, provided he is not compelled to yield any of the time for the consideration of other business. The debate will be participated in by a number of Senators, including Messrs. Stanford, Evarts, Higgins, Chandler and Wilson, of Iowa.

Wilson, of Iowa.
Several Republican Senators have indicated a purpose to call up the resolution, still pending, asking the Attorney General to submit to Congress the report, if any has been made, by the United States Marshal for Mississippi upon the assault at Aberdeen upon Henry Fanz, the Indiana tinner, who untied the rope sustaining the effigy of the Secretary of War, Proctor. If this is done there will be a renewal of the discussion of the Southern olitical situation.

Mr. Sherman has given notice that he will ask the Senate this week to consider his bill declaring trusts unlawful, and to-morrow Senator Platt, from the Committee on Terri-tories, will report invorably with a request for early consideration the bill for the admission of Idaho as a State. The report will embody the recent decision of the Supreme Court affirming the validity of the Mormon test oath contained in the constitution adopted for the proposed new State.
