BUCK EWING'S DENIALS.

John Ward Talks About Florida's Benefits to Ball Players.

THE SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

John Tener, the local pitcher will sign with the local Players' League club to-day. He will be made Financial Secretary and Treasurer of the club. Buck Ewing forcibly denies that he intends to leave the Brotherhood. It is expected that Ewing and Al Johnson will meet in the morning.

John Tener, the excellent and popular local pitcher, has agreed to sign with the local Prayers' club this afternoon. From time to time it has been stated in this paper that Tener was willing to cast his lot with the new local club could satisfactory arrangements be made with his present employers regarding resuming his present position at the close of the season. These arrangements have been made, and Manager Hanlon has come to satisfactory terms with him regarding

He is also to be appointed financial secretary and treasurer of the club, for which office he is well fitted and will doubtless fulfill its duties with success and satisfaction. Tener will certainly be a great acquisition to the club. Not only is he an able pitcher, but he is a good allround player, and beyond all a perfect gentle-

HE WILL BE POPULAR. That he will be popular here no one for moment will goubt, and he and Quinn will likely be a successful "Pittsburg battery. Manager Hanlon has labored to carry out his idea of a "home battery," and it now seems that he will carry out his idea admirably. With Tener the club will be well stocked with pitchers. He will make the fifth, and certainly ave of them ought to keep matters going very lively. Mauland Tener, however, will probably be utilized considerably in the outfield.

Amid the many conflicting reports that were published yesterday regarding the alleged desertion of the Brotherhood by Buck Ewing, THE DISPATCH had the true one. Ewing, as stated in this paper yesterday, has not deserted, and according to his own statement last evening has no thought of doing so.

BUCK'S DEFINITE REPLY. Yesterday afternoon Manager Hanlon sent a very pointed dispatch to Ewing, asking if he had left or intended to leave the new League.

The following reply was received by Mr. Han-ion last evening:

"No, Ed. I will stick to the Brotherhood The reply was signed William Ewing. This sets at rest all the conjectures regarding the intentions of that famous catcher, no matter what have been the inducements held out to him to rejoin the National League. Speaking on the matter last evening, Manager Hanlon

"I knew the report of Ewing's desertion was "I knew the report of Ewing's descrition was false, because it would seem impossible for him to make any break after saying and doing so much for the Brotherhood. I know that it would pay the League to give him $25,000 to leave us, for if he did so we couldn't have faith in any man in our ranks. But money cannot buy Ewing. That is a certainty. These false reports can only do the National League harm, and I know that Brotherhood supporters would not send them out."

AN IMPORTANT MEETING. Speaking of the report to the effect that "something was going to drop" in the new local club Manager Hanlon said: "There is no truth in the rumor whatever. Everything is solid and we have an important business meet ing on Thursday. The meeting is to arrange ing on Thursday. The meeting is to arrange details as to the grounds, score cards and a dozen other little matters. There will probably be an assessment on the stockholders, but that has been fully expected from the first. No. 1 feel sure that nobody is inclined to withdraw his stock, but if there is there are plenty of people ready to take it. Let me say that everypeople ready to take it. Let me say that every-thing is levely and our prospects are looking brighter every day."

Affairs in the old club are comparatively quiet. Manager Hecker expects all of his play-ers to report on March 15. Yesterday he re-ceived letters from Routcliffe and Roat. They are all right, and will be here on the date named. Hamilton has written for dates with the local club, but cannot be accommodated. WARD DOWN SOUTH.

He Says That Florida is the Place for Ball

Players. (SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.) TAMPA, FLA., February 18 .- John M. Ward, the great ball player, who played shortstop for New York club last season, and through whose effort the metropolis won the League pennant, arrived in this city this afternoon. He is en route to Cuba to arrange for his club to make a tour through this State, Cuba and Texas. What do you think of Florida as headquar ters during winter for professional ball players?" he was asked. "From what I have seen I should think it just the place," replied Ward. "Ball players need practice in mild climate a month or six weeks before the season opens in Ward left this morning for Key West and Havana. The Brookiyu Playors' club will re-main any weeks in the South, but most of that time will be spent in Cuba and Texas. Ward says that he would like to make St. Augustine adquarters but that there is no chi this as the Chicagos have secured the use of Mesers. Day and Gordon Fall to Get a Parting Word.

PEPECHAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. CINCINNATI, February 18.-The Pennsylvania express cast this evening carried as passengers Captain and Mrs. Ewing, who were bound for Shamokin. An hour before their train left John B. Day and Joseph Gordon turned their faces toward Hoosierdom. All sorts of rumors were affeat during the day and one which came by the way of New York gave the newspoys a chance to tear out their throats in yelling over the reported capture of Ewing by the League. The truth of the matter is John B. Day and Captain Ewing did not meet during the day. The latter came down town to buy his railroad tickets, but did not meet either of the New York gentlemen. Mr. Gordon went on a still York gentlemen. Mr. Gordon went on a still-hunt to see him and to have a parting word. The League people confess confidence in the outcome of the fight and think that they will get back those of their old men that they want. No Cincinnati players were seen by the mag-nates, who did no talking about their Indian-apolis mission.

Griffin Knocked Senseless

SAN FRANCISCO, February 18.-Jimmy Griffin, the St. Paul lightweight, was defeated by Billy Mahan, of this city, in 27 rounds, at the Occidental Athletic Club last night. The fight was flerce throughout, Griffin was badly punished. His hps and nose were cut and swollen, and his body covered with blood. He fought a game battle, how ever; and although Mahan torced the fighting nearly all the time, Griffin made a savage atnearly all the time, Griffin made a savage attack in almost every round and made it uncomfortable for the San Francisco man. Griffin was knocked down half a dozen times in the last three rounds, but struggled gauely to his feet, until a terrific blow in the jaw finally sent him to the floor. His head struck the boards heavily, and he was picked up insensible.

Reynard Was Too Sly. WEST NEWTON, PA., February 18 .- Yesterday a half dozen men of this town mounted their fastest horses and, with as many hounds, started on a fox chase. They had not gone a mile from town when the hounds started some foxes, and the chase began. It was kept up until evening, but the cunning animals succeeded in keeping far enough away from the pursuing party, who returned to town fully satisfied that they were not English enough, "you know," for that kind of sport. Foxes are quite common in this neighborhood. William Pritchman, who lives within sight of town, saw six on his farm last Sunday.

The band will be brought down from the gallery and a grand music stand erected for them opposite the main doorway, on Duquesne way. Seats for some 500 people will be placed directly beneath.

Lovers of art are also to be given a better opportunity to see the pictures by a natural light. The art gallery was not finished last year, and gas jets had to be put in and kept burning all day. Now the roof has been altered and a large skylight has been placed over it all. Altogether, the prospects for the best Exposition Pittsburg has ever seen are exceedingly good, and, as a guarantee of it, applications for space are being received from good people all over the country.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY AT HARRISBURG

The elections in Pennsylvania yesterday were mainly conducted on party lines. Very few surprises are reported. Philadelphis elected the Republican ticket, while Harrisburg went Democratic.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. PHILADELPHIA, February 18 .- The elecion returns are coming in very slowly, owing chiefly to a very large number of names on the city ticket for Police Magistrates and members of City Councils. Official returns from not a single ward have been received up to midnight, but enough unofficial and scattering returns are in to show that the Republican ticket has carried the city by very large majorities. Charles E. Warwick is re-elected City Solicitor, and Captain John Taylor is elected Receiver of Taxes. The Republicans elect 14 Police Magistrates and the Democrats seven, the law giving one-third of the vacancies to the minority party.

Avres, the tariff reform candidate for Conder. The indications now are that the majority for Reyburn, the Republican, will not fall much below that given to the late W. D. Kelley. Both chambers of the City Council remain largely Republican.

HARRISBURG DEMOCRATIC.

The Present Mayor Elected for the Third Time by a Good Mojority.

MPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 HARRISBURG, February 18.—The vote cast at the election in this city to-day was the largest polled in any municipal contest in the bistory of Harrisburg, and may exceed that of the last Presidental election. Mayor Fritchey, Democrat, who has been in office three years, has been re-elected by a majority of about 600, according to returns from about one-half of the precincts in the city, an increase over his majority at his first election. at his first election.

The Democrats have also probably re-elected
W. K. Verbek Controller, and the Republicans

WASHINGTON, February 18 .- There Is Mr. Dennis McCarthy, hearing of the outrage perpetrated on the young lady, set out to find the wretch. About midnight Mr. McCarthy heard a suppressed conversation in an old building and being satisfied that he was on the right track, attempted to enter the door. The men on the inside fired on McCarthy, who was wounded, but he pressed on m the direction from which the shots were coming and ordered the would-be assassins to surrender. They refused and sent a bail through the brave fellow's body. He heroically stood by the door, however, cutting off escape by that channel, hoping that his calls and the shots would secure help, but the vitriol thrower escaped, leaving the evidence of the foul deed behind him. The excitement is due to a rumor that Erminie Thibault, alias Miss Louise Barrett, either is on her way to Washington or has actually arrived here upon an important mission. This is the young woman who was the companion of Craven E. Silcott while he was cashier to the Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives, and who disappeared with him when he fied from Washington at the begin-ning of December, taking with him, as it was reported at the time $70,000 or $80,000 belonging to members of the House.
