

FIRST OF FEBRUARY.

A Very Important Service Held at Trinity Episcopal Church.

LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY LEAGUE

Receives an Effective Impetus in Aid of its Commendable Work.

ARCHDEACON MACKAY-SMITH'S SERMON

Noble words, glorious music, a report chronicling good work already done, and the admission of a number of Christian men to holy offices characterized the service held at Trinity Episcopal Church, last evening.

LICENSED TO WORK.

Mr. John O. Slemmons, local secretary, made his first annual report, after which seven lay evangelists and a like number of St. Cyril's were licensed during one year in the service of the church.

OTHER BRANCHES LEAGUE.

It was suggested that the League ought to have branches held at Shrewsbury, Pleasant Valley, Soho, and other districts far beyond reach of the churches.

VICTORY OVER DEATH.

Rev. C. E. Locke's ideas on how to secure that desirable end.

A MIXED-UP AFFAIR.

An Italian Case of Bigamy, Desecration, or about 6 o'clock last night a row occurred in the Italian colony on Webster avenue.

SOMETHING ABOUT HOPE.
