A SENATORIAL LIAR

That is, in Effect, What a Southern Member Calls Mr. Chandler.

LIVELY LANGUAGE IN DEBATE.

Eherman Interferes to Protect the Dignity of the Body.

ONLY A PARTIAL APOLOGY SECURED.

The Committee on Privileges and Ricctions Will Take

In speaking on Senator Chandler's resolution censuring him, Call, of Florida, said that the charges of the New Hampshire member were not true. Further than that, the Senator knew that they were not true when he made them. Sherman denounced this language as the worst ever heard in the Senate. A conditional apology was made.

WASHINGTON, February 25.-In the Senate to-day the debate on the resolution offered yesterday by Mr. Chandler censuring Mr. Call for interpolating in the official report of the proceedings of the Senate a paragraph that had not been spoken and that was unparliamentary and personally offensive, Mr. Call gave notice to the Senstor from New Hampshire, who had arraigned him by the resolution that he (Mr. Call) would arraign him (Mr. Chandler) before the Senate, and would demand an investigation by the committee for making an accusation that was untrue. The remarks of the Senator proved that he knew that the accusation was not true. He (Mr. Call) would convict the Senator on evidence of his own, that would convict him before a jury of respectable New Hampshire Republicans, that he did hear and know that he (Mr. Call) had uttered on the floor of the Senate substantially the whole of the charge contained in the paragraph, and (with a very few exceptions) every word contained in it.

THE SOUTHERNER ANGEY. He gave notice to that Senator that he (Mr. Call) would not submit tamely to the imputation put upon him. He would not nsk the censure by the Senate of the Senator from New Hampshire, but he would leave him to the just judgment of public opinion throughout the country, for having heard his (Mr. Call's) remarks, and having had neither the courage nor the manhood to re-

Mr. Sherman declared that the rules of the Senate had just been violated by the Senator from Florida in as gross a manner as he had ever witnessed. He had not chosen to interrupt the Senator; but the record would show what he had said, and he hoped that the committee would examine it. When the Senate of the United States came to such a condition that the charge of cowardice could be applied to a Senator, and that a Senator could be charged with stating a thing falsely, it seemed to him that the Senate was receding from the dignity which had distinguished it from the founda-

He hoped that the Senator from Florida would read over the report of what he had said and not have published in the Record language, which in any general assembly in the world would be regarded as disorderly

A CONDITIONAL APOLOGY.

Mr. Call-If I have violated any rule of the Senate by any observations which I have made to-day or formerly, 1 withdraw them, and I anologize to the Senate.

Mr. Chandler-It?
Mr. Call-I did not understand that I was violating any rule. If I am not at liberty (when a resoluti a reflecting on me is offered here) to state that it is not true, and that I can prove that it is not true, and that he Senator (when he made the charge) knew that it was not true, then I do not understand the rules of the Senate. But if, in the judgment of any Sen-tion it is improper to use that language I ntor, it is improper to use that language, I withdraw it, and apologize for it.

Mr. Chandier—I will not reply to the gentleman from Florida this morning in unparliamentary language. I have stated, in the resolution which is now before the Senate, and which tion which is now before the Senate, and which I am willing to have referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections, what the conduct of the Senator from Florida has been. I have recited the words which he used, and the alterations which he made in the official report. The facts are stated in the preamble. The facts are true. The compiaint which I make was that the Senator had inserted in his remarks words which he had not uttered. I did not worth the senator had inserted in his remarks. words which he had not uttered. I did not complain, in the resolution, of the language which he did utter as being unparliamentary.

A DECISION ASKED. When the question goes to the committee with the resolution, I hope that the committee will take occasion to inform the Senate and the will take occasion to inform the Senate and the country whether or not the language by the Senator was parliamentary and what language may be used by Senators in relation to each other, whether in attack or in defense. The Senator used language about me which I did not hear. He wrote language in the report accusing me of all crimes in the decalogue. And he has now charged me with being a coward for not replying to that which I did not hear, and that which he afterward wrote in the Record report. When the Senate has decided on this stare what language it is parliamentary to use stage what innguage it is parliamentary to use, I will take occasion to defiend myself from all the imputations of the Senator from Florida. At 2 o'clock the Blair educational bill was taken up as "unfinished business," and Mr. Coke addressed the Senate in opposition to it. He opposed it, he said, because it clearly violated the Constitution, and because, as a messure of policy, it was most unwise and mischievous. It had constantly declined in public favor, until now the indications gave good ground to hope for its

Mr. Stanford addressed the Senate in ad-vocacy of the bill. It seemed to him to prothe constitutionality, and then the impor-tant fact to be considered was whether na-tional legislation was necessary. Illiteracy was conceded, and also the fact that some of the States had not been able to meet the question. Federal aid, therefore, became

Cured by Cuticura

I contracted a terrible blood pelsoning a year ago. I doctored with two good physicians, neither of whom did me any good. I suffered all a man can suffer and live. Hearing of your CUTICURA REMEDISS, I concluded to try them, knowing if they did me no good they could make me no worse. I have been using them about ton weeks, and am most happy to say that I am almost rid of the awing sores that so vered my face and body. My face was as bad, if not worse, than that of Miss Boynton, spoken of in your book, and I would say to any one in the same condition to use CUTICURA, and they will sarely be cured. Knee to Foot Running Sores I have been afflicted with a sore limb, which the doctors called eczema. My limb from the knee to the foot was one mass of running sores. The doctors bandaged it every day for a week, and every time the bandaged was removed a large scab would come off, and the blood pour down. I got one bettle of CUTIGURA RESOLVENT, one how CUTICURA and one cake CUTIGURA SOAP, and they cured me. I told a lady who was similarly afflicted to use it, and it cured her also. I gratefully acknowledge that it was CUTICURA that cured me, MRE, KATE BEARD, Orange Valley, N. J.

My catarrh, which had troubled me so long, had begun to affect my longs, and they pained me very much, especially when I coughed or raised up the offensive discharge which seemed to so fill up my windpipe and bronchial tubes, that I found it often difficult to breathe. I coughed more or less both day and night. It would often hurt me to breathe, my breath became short, and I felt a tight oppressive feeling in my lungs. I often felt a pain in my left side. My food would sour on my stomach, giving me a full, uncomfortable feeling after eating, with belching of gas. My hands and feet were cold and clammy. I could not walk any distance, or up a hill without getting out of breath. I had many other aches and pains and also suffered from those diseases peculiar to women. In fact, I grew weaker and weaker until I felt as if I did not care whether I lived or died, as I would be an invalid the remainder of my life. I tried several doctors, but I found no relief. Reading of so many cures made by the physicians of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute, and which seemed similar to mine. I took three months' treatment from these specualists. The result is I now feel like a new woman. I have gained 25 pounds in fiesh; my work does not seem a burden to me as it used to, and I feel well and strong. I shall be glad to tell anyone further what these physicians have done for me. I live on Lemington ave, near Lincoln ave, East Liberty, this city." MRS. ELIZA SMITH.

ARE THE TWO FRINCIPAL STYLES.

are forcibly brought to your mind by this very mild and pleasant weather. Outside of the two styles illustrated, which we sell (according to quality) from $1.39 to $3, we show a perfect galaxy of handsome and becoming new shapes of stiff and soft

SILK HATS: Youman's new spring shape has just arrived, and it reflects great credit on its celebrated maker. Its very graceful curl renders it "just the thing" for nobby young men. Our price for it is $5; other first-class hatters' price is $6. Then we have our usual complete line of fashionable Silk Hats from $3 to $6. Lovely Headgear for Boys, Girls and Children.

Several hundred of entirely new and very cute styles are now displayed by us. The "Club" Cap, our exclusive novelty, should be seen by every mother who wants a pretty piece of headgear for her boy or girl.
