WANTS TO KNOW WHY THE LEAGUE MAGNATES. Dunlap Tackles Hanlon on an Chicago Pinyers. CLEVELAND, O., March &-The Weddell Interesting Matter. THE MANAGER'S OPINION. C. T. Dillingham, New York; A. H. Soden and W. st. Conant, Boston; W. M. Nimick, J. Pal-mer O'Neill and A. K. Scandrett, Pittsburg; John T. Brush, Indianapolis; A. G. Spalding, Chicago, and N. E. Yonng, President of the League, Washington, Representatives from Washington, Brooklyn, Cincinnafi and Phila-delphia will arrive in the morning. The Schedule Committee, consisting of Soden, Spalding and Nimick, met at 12 o'clock to arrange a table of dates for the season. Their work was in the nature of a report to be presented at the regular meeting to-morrow. Each of the three members of the committee had prepared a schedule, and the meeting was for the purpose of deciding upon which to rec-ommend for adoption. Nothing could be learned regarding the dates assigned the differ-ent clubs, as the committee thought it best not to make anything public until after it has been fully determined how many clubs shall consti-tute the League this season. It seemed to be the general opinion Monday morning, that there would be no change from the present make-up. Secretary Brunell Sends a Spicy Letter to the League Magnates. THE SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY There is a misunderstanding between Manager Hanlon and Fred Dunlap, regarding the latter's status in the new League. Dunlap confers with Hanlon. The League magnates meet at Cleveland. Brunell writes a significant letter to President Young. Several local dog fighters are to be arrested. Fred Dunlap is not disposed to be cast to one side by anybody without knowing the reason why. The well-known second baseman arrived in the city yesterday morning, and his mission here is to find out definitely whether he is to be a Brotherhood man or a unit in the National League. There is certainly a big misunderstanding between nimself and other prominent Brotherhood members, and it seems as if Fred's salary of last year, $5,000, is a little too steep for the new

League people to renew. To a reporter Dunlap stated his case as follows yesterday:

DUNLAP EXPLAINS.

"I am here for two purposes," said he. "I want to know where I stand. It is true I told Hanlon in New York recently that I wouldn't play under him, but what right has the Players' League to release me? I have returned the release Hanlon sent me. They won't fool with me. How is Hanlon manager of this club? The understanding was that the players should vote on manager and captain, but I can't see where they were given a chance to do it. The stockholders put him in likely. I don't suppose they think they can force me out, and giv the cream of the Players' League to these As-the cream of the Players' League to these As-sociation players whom they sign. "I have paid my dues for years in the Brother-hood, and have as much right to its benefits as any other member. Hanion has roasted me in the papers, but did I reply. No, I didn't. My time will come." "Will you stick to the Players' League?" "T can't tell just yet. The Brotherhood is a success that is oertain. Yes, I guess the old club people will take me back. Some people say that I didn't play my game last year. Didn't i lead the second basemen? How does it come that Hanion wasn't alused for poor ball play-ing? He certainly did some. I won't lack an engagement. There is a certain League club that stands ready to take me right away."

MUST BE TREATED RIGHT.

Dunlan is determined that he shall be treated properly by the Players' League. He thinks he has been one of the worst treated men. He was down for stock in the Pittsburg Club, but it down for stock in the Fittsburg Club, but it wasn't given him. In reply to this Manager Hanlon last evening said: "I met Mr. lumlap to-day and he cer-tainly did not talk to me in that strain. He told me that he was here merely on a trip be-cause he had a free pass on the railroad. He is wrong when he says players have to vote for managers. They can vote for directors, but that is all.

ONLY HIMSELF TO BLAME.

"If Mr. Dunlap is in any kind of difficulty he has only himself to blame. I have his own written statement to the effect that he would not play under my management, and I have also a written application from Mr. Love, of Philadelphia, for his release. This application Philadelphia, for his release. This application is indorsed by Mr. Dunlap and I submitted these letters to our directors. Of course, when Mr. Dunlap stated that be would not play here they could do nothing else but give him his release. He got it and then it seems that the Philadelphia club did not feel inclined to give him $5,000 for the season. We offered him $4,500 as last year, $500 of his salary was for being captain. We have nothing to do with Mr. Dunlap and it is to Philadelphia that he must look because we filled his place here after he requested and received his release." the general opinion Monday morning, that there would be no change from the present make-up. "Inave prepared a regular ten-club schedule," said Soden, who is Chairman of the committee, "and I believe Messrs. Spalding and Nimick have done likewise. We have all experienced more or less trouble in arranging things to suit everybody with a ten-club league, but I guess we have it fixed now so that none of us will have much cause for complaint. If such a thing as a reduction in the number of our clubs should be determined upon Tuesday, we can fix up an eight-club schedule in a short time." "I received a personal letter from Anson yes-erday," said Spalding, "in which he told me to be sure and not take back a single one of the ola members of last year's Chicago club and to sign on more men at all unless I can run across a first-class pitcher. It will only be fair to sub wy on the letter from Brunell to Young and get a statement in reply to it." Manager Schmeltz, of the Clevelands, came infor Columbus this morning. He is bub-bling over with confidence in the League's ability to make short work of the Brotherhood. Secretary Hawley and Treasurer Howe, of the Clevelands, resolved themselves into an im-promptur reception committee to wecome their fellow magnates to the birthplace of the Brotherhood. The "million dollar" offer was generally laughed at whenever the subject was mentioued. The prevailing opinion seemed to be that the whole thing was a blut. The dele-pton business, and it is the general understand-ing that this is to be the most important meet-ing the League has erer held.

Lawyer Daysters Asks That It be Tried This

Term of Court. NEW YORK, March 3.-The case of the Metropolitan Exhibition Company against John M. Ward began in the Special Term of the Supreme Court this morning. There was a notable absence of baseball men.

George F. Duysters, counsel for the Metropol-itan Exhibition Company, asked the court to place the case for trial during the present month and referred to Judge O'Brien's decision when he denied the recent application for an injunction against Ward, in v which he stated that the case ought to be tried before April, and had stated in open court that if the counsel would agree upon a day in February he would use his efforts to have it placed on the calendar. Judge Howland said that it was merely a pri-vate case and there was no reason why it should be advanced. Judge Lawrence, who had previously sug-gested that the counsel ought to go to Judge O'Brien and ask him to enforce his order, took he papers and said he would consult Judge

The Chartlers Dog Fighters Run Down by Agent Sam O'Brien.

Yesterday afternoon Agent O'Brien and Assistant Agent Berryman, of the Humane So-clety, went to McKee's Rocks to take a look at the dog fight between "John Sullivan" and "Jack the Ripper." Yesterday, when the dogs were put into the pit, they each weiched within a few ounces of $5 pounds. The betting, which was exceedingly spirited, was at the rate of $20 to $15 on Sulli-van. The favorite fully justified the odds, as he fought with the best of it from the start. He escaped punishment and chewed The Rip-per up terribly. The dogs were scratched seven times and in the eighth scratch Jack the Rinper turned tail and refused to fight longer. The victory was then awarded to Sullivan. The fight lasted about an hour. MORE FROM BRUNELL.

The Players' Lengue Secretary Sends a Startler to the League Magnates-He Wants Everybody to Shake Hands and be Friends.

CHICAGO, March 3.-An astonishing communication was made public to-day by General Secretary Brunell, of the Players' League. The surprise is in the apparent disclosure, more or less complete, that the supposed animosity and rivalry between the Players' organization and the National League is largely in the nature of a blind to the public. It would seem that the two Leagues are to be regarded as practically identical-a pair of wings for the same money making machine. The idea as near as can be inferred is, it would seem, to have the twin Leagues go through the motions of antagonizing each other, so far as gate receipts can be increased by that method but when dividends cannot be furthered in such a manner, then the Leagues are to co-operate. The whole thing in a nutshell would appear to be that, as rumored at intervals since the famous split, the baseball men understand the art of forming trusts and pool-making pre-cisely as practiced in other business enter-prises. The possibility is distinctly foreshad-owed that even before the senson is opened, the "warring factions" will be playing together for revenue only.

The following is Secretary Brunell's letter. CHICAGO, ILL., February 28, 1890.

"I have nothing to say to the League's ac-tions concerning conflicting dates. The Sched-ule Committee prepared its schedule without any regard whatever to the Brotherhood. No notice of such an organization was taken. When I arrived this afternoon I showed Mr. Bronell's letter to some of the members, and that was our first intimation of what their schedule would be. I have never until today received any communication from Mr. Brunell, and more, the schedule has not been changed. I cannot very well give an opinion on the ad-visability of changing it so as not to conflict, in fact, I do not know whether the two conflict or not."
