THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5, 1890.

FOR THE EMPLOYERS.

The Case of Rummel vs. Dilworth, Porter & Co. an Interesting One.

GUARD DANGEROUS MACHINERY,

Or Take Risks of Smarting Severely in Damages From Accident.

SOMETHING REGARDING NON-SUITS

The final decision of the Supreme Court in the cases of George Rummel, Jr., and George Rummel, Sr., versus Dilworth, Porter & Co., in which the latter were worsted, and mention of which was made in THE DISPATCH vesterday, is notable not only from the fact that the suits had entered their ninth year before the end came, but also for the principle involved. Since the actions began on the 24th of November, 1882, the began on the 24th of November, 1882, the first-named plaintiff has died, and two of MCALLISTER & SHEIBLER, 5th av. & Atwood SL the witnesses are also dead. Their testimony, however, was preserved and used after their death, having been taken stenographically.

A. M. Watson, Esq., was attorney for plaintiffs and Mr. Dalzell for defendants. As a rule, for many years past the courts have generally granted non-suits in cases where employes were injured on railways and in mills unless the violation of orci-NiLLVALE BOROUGH, nary prudential laws on the part of the railway and mill companies was very gross, and this decision upsets the general practice. It has been generally held that workmen took their lives in their own hands, and, in case of accident were guilty of contributory negligence, as the slightest act in that direction was sufficient to show it.

MUST PROVIDE SAFETY.

In the cases of Rummel vs Dilworth, Porter & Co., Mr. Watson contended that not only are employers bound to provide as far as possible against accident, by the erection of guards, etc., but that when they put a boy or uninstructed man to work in a dangerous place it is obligatory on them that they have him instructed so that he not only knows his danger, but knows how to avoid it. Mr. Watson's argument, which has been given effect by the decision, is likely to be felt in factories and railway management generally in this State.

Another principle reasserted by this case is that judges cannot take a case from a jury and order a non-suit where the matter alleged is sufficient to afford the jury power to draw an inference. George Rummel, Jr., now deceased, was to draw an inference. George Rummel, Jr., now deceased, was 17 years old at the time of the accident on 291, Sharpsburg, Pa. the 10th of September, 1882. He was employed by defendants as a "dragger-down" in their spike mill. It was his duty to drag heated billets out of a furnace and place were exposed with guard boards two feet high, except at the two head pairs of rolls.

ENERGIES EXHAUSTED.

Two boys were required on each turn, and as the work required quickness and expertness the heat and exertion exhausted their energies in an hour, and their places were then taken by others. The cogs were left exposed where the "draggers-down" had to work. The work was perilous, and plaintiffs contended that had the guard board extended three feet further covering the cogs on these two pairs of rolls, the boy would have been absolutely safe. Young Rummell's nantaloons were caucht in the cors. and his leg drawn in and crushed so that he was permanently disabled. It was early in the moroing, and plaintiffs held that the place was dark, and that defendents had not to cross the tracks of any such railroad it shall be brought to a full stop, and it shall be the duty of the conductor, or person in charge of said car, to go forward and ascertain that such car can be passed over such crossing in safety before such car shall be allowed to proceed. Eighth—Each of such companies shall yield the right of way to the fire department when going to fires, and to the police patrol wagon when answering calls, and if then signaled by any person in charge of any fire apparatus or police patrol wagon, shall bring its car to a full stop until after such fire apparatus or police patrol wagon shall have passed such car. Ninth—No car operated by any such com-pany shall be passed over any hese or other apcommunicati PITTSBURG, February 6, 1890.

Ninth-No car operated by any such com-pany shall be passed over any hose or other ap-paratus of the fire department when the same is laid or in use for the purpose of extinguish-ing fire, unless such car be passed over the same upon a creeper or other device approved by the Chief of the Department of Public Safety, and which shall fully protect such hose or apparatus. PITTENURG, February 6, 1800. To the Mayor and Councils of Pittsburg: GENTLEMEN-Some years ago I had the bleasure of offering to expend upon a free li-brary for the city of Pittsburg the sum of $250,-000. The finances of the city were not then in conditions of the city were not then in brary for the city of Pittsburg the sum of $250, 000. The finances of the city were not then in condition to permit of its acceptance. Having of Allegheny, I subsequently intimated that I of Allegheny, I subsequently intimated that I or Allegheny, I subsequently intimated that I or Pittsburg; such, however, has been the re-cent growth of the city, such are its prospect for the future, that careful consideration has led me to the conclusion that in order to pro-vide such libraries as Pittsburg should have will require oven a larger sum. I think that Pittsburg requires a central building, containing a reference and circu-lating library; also suitable accommodations for works of art, which, I believe, its citizen-of New York, Baltimore and other large cities added rooms for the meetings of the various added rooms and stoperated in connection of New York, Baltimore and other large cities and plemented by branch libraries. The Free Cir-culating Library of New York has now four of these, the city of Bultimore has five; they are not extensive structures, but each containsa small supply of books most in demand anda small supply of books most in dema said department shall at all times have the right to inspect and test the same. Section 2—In case any of such companies fail to secure an approval of its plans of de-vices in any respect in manner as hereinbefore provided, it shall thereupon have the right to make application to Councils for such approv-al, and Councils may, by a concurrent resolu-tion, or otherwise, make or grant such approv-al. Section 3—None of such companies shall have the right to enter upon, over or under, use or should be thoroughly fireproof, monumental in character and creditable to the city.

should be theroughly irreproof, monumental in character and creditable to the city. To provide these buildings with suitable books, etc. I offer to expend not less than $1,000,000. I propose that their location, erec-tion and management shall be intrusted to a Board of Trustees, composed ex-officio of the Mayor, the Presidents of Select and Common Councils, the President of the Central Board of Education, and a Library Committee of five appointed by the Councils, such as you have done me the honor to appoint to confer with me. To these I would add the names of 12 well-known citizens of Allergheny county, who should have power as a body to provide for the re-election of its members at stated times, and also to fill vacancies in their number. The libraries to be handed over to the city upon their completion, free from lien, in trust the right to enter upon, over or under, use of occupy any of the streets, lanes, alleys or high ways, or parts thereof, within this city until after such company shall have procured the consent of the Councils of this city by an ordinance other than this one duly passed and approved, granting such rights unto such com-pany, and unless such company shall file with the Controller of this city within 30 days after upon their completion, free from lien, in trust for the purposes specified. The city to agree to receive and support same at its own proper cost, under the management of the trustees as cost, under the management of the trace and above provided. The city of Baltimore pays $50,000 per annum for the support of its public libraries estab-lished by Mr. Enoch Pratt, who gave $1,000,000 for the purpose; but I believe that $40,000 per annum would be sufficient to maintain those of Pittsburg. And not less than this sum I re-quire the city of Pittsburg to agree to place at the disposal of the library trustees to be ex-mended upon them.

pany, and unless such company shall file with the Controller of this city within 30 days after the passage or approval of such ordinance its certificate of acceptance of all the conditions and provisions of this ordinance, the said cer-tificate to be executed under the corporate seal of such company, duly attested by the Presi-dent and Secretary thereof. Section 4-Each and every person or cor-poration violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall pay a fine of not less than ten ($10) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100) dollars for each and every violation of this ordinance, to be recovered summarily before the Mayor or any Police Magistrate of the city of Pittsburg. Section 5-That any ordinance or part of ordinance coafficing with the provisions of this ordinance. Ordialned and enacted into a law in Councils, this 24th day of February, A. D. 1890. H. P. FORD, President of Select Council. Attest: GEO. SHEPPARD, Clerk of Select Council. G. L. HOLLIDAY. President of Common Council. Mayor's office. February 25, 1890. Approved: the disposal of the library trustees to be ex-pended upon them. I am clearly of the opinion that it is only by the city maintaining its public libraries as it maintains its public schools, that every citizen can be made to feel that ne is a joint proprie-tor of them, and that the public library is for the public as a whole, and not for any portion thereof; and I am equally clear that unless 'a community is willing to maintain public libra-ries at the public cost, that very little good can be obtained from them. Not to save me further expenditure therefor, but for the best interests of the city I make it a condition that they shall Common Council, Attest: GEO. BOOTH, Clerk of Common Council. Mayor's office, February 25, 1890, Approved: WM. McCALLIN, Mayor, Attest: HOB'T OSTERMAIER, Assistant Mayor's Clerk. Recorded in Ordinance Book, vol. 7, page 267, 5th day of March, A. vs. Craig, 9 and 1d., 177, Beven vs. insur-ance company: "Where there is any evi-dence which would justify an inference of the disputed fact it must go to the jury.'

ME. WATSON'S OPINION.

In conclusion Mr. Watson says: "It does seem that our county courts would economize time by allowing all the facts in cases like these to be brought out instead of snubbing plaintiffs, who, after great inconvenience, come to trial to be sent back until your Honors have reviewed their cases. If our courts shall be open and justice administered without sale, denial or delay it would save time and subserve the ends of justice much better to hear all the testimony on both sides and to submit the facts to the jury under proper and, if necessary, binding instructions." Judgments were reversed and new trials ordered. Both cases were again tried and verdicts rendered for plaintiffs. The cases bobbed up and down, not very serenely, however, until last November, when the final argument was had in the Supreme Court. After the boy's death the father continued the fight. Two verdicts were ren-dered-one for $1,815 and the other for $165, but the interesting portion of the matter is the light the final decision throws upon the duty of employers of labor toward employes. It would seem that even without the factory inspection law, people who employ aid in running dangerous ma-chinery, or in any dangerous capacity, will be wise if they throw every safeguard possible around it.
