Now in Pittsburg Than a Young Lady Who Was Buried Yesterday.

SHE WEIGHED JUST 428 POUNDS,

NO HEAVIER WOMAN

And Her Coffin Was 25 Inches Across, Inside Measurement.

A BURDEN FOR SIX PALLBEARERS.

The funeral of Miss Lizzie Kramer, of Franklin street, took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the residence of her brother, Frank H. Kramer, No. 33 Pasture The young lady was the heaviest street. person living in the Seventh ward, and robably the heaviest woman living in Pitts. burg. Her weight was 428 pounds.

The Kramer family is one of the best known on the hill, where they have lived for many years. The tather, John Henry Kramer, keeps a grocery store at No. 24 Franklin street, corner of Congress. He has five sons, Frank H., Charles C., Wm. F., Henry and Alexander Kramer. There were two daughters, the surviving daughter being Mrs. Bakehouse, of Beltzhoover. The younger children, Alexander and Lizzie, live with their parents on Franklin street. Three of the sons, who are married, live about two blocks away, in houses adjoining, on Pasture street. Charles Kramer has been for several years a member of the police force. Since Chief Brown took charge of the department, Mr. Kramer has been a cortter man, his present station being Fifth avenue and Wood street, William is con-nected with the Fire Bureau. Charles has recently been the victim of unusual afflic-tion by the death of relatives.

ALL THE FAMILY LARGE.

All the members of the family are of heavy build, including father and mother, but Miss Lizzie was larger than any two of her stalwart brothers. She was only 25 years old. From youth she was disposed to excessive corpulence. As a school when on the streets she attracted general attention. During her later years she was seen out very seldom. Her weight became so great that she did not care to walk far, and she did not like to be stared at by people on the streets. She therefore did not go more than two or three blocks from home, and that far rarely. She might visit a near neighbor or go to some adjacent store for her mother. She was a great favorite with those who knew her in the immediate vicinity of her nome, and her death has elicited many expressions of sorrow. Her weight was a burden to her. Within the sst three or four years she was continually trying medicines and miscellaneous nostrums to reduce her flesh, but all was Every new auti-fat compound found in her a purchaser. Still, the en-joyed fairly good health, and until a week ago she helped her mother in all the housework,

A SERIES OF MISFORTUNES.

When the present wintry weather set in Miss Kramer caught a bad cold, which developed into pneumonia. She was not confined to bed until last Thursday. On February 13, the wife of Officer Kramer died, and was buried three weeks ago yes-terday. Last Wednesday, Officer Kramer's rife's grandmother died in St. Clair township, and he went Thursday to attend her funeral. When he left home his sister was not seriously ill. He never again saw her She died suddenly, at 7 o'clock Friday evening, and the first notice he received was the rending of her death in the newspaper, Saturday morning.

The body of the decensed was prepared for burial by L. Beinbauer & Son. The coffin was 5 seet 9 inches long, and 25 inches across on the inside. It was, of course, m. de boom. specially; and was the widest coffin ever made by Beinhauer. The elder Kramers live on the second floor, over their store, and it was thought to cofin down the stairway at the time of the funeral. Therefore, on Saturday evening, yesterday suspended from duty by Inspector
