

TO SELL THE VALLEY.

The Income Bondholders of the Road Arguing Their Appeal.

W. WEBBER SUES FOR A LEASE.

A True Bill Against Messrs. Young and Hoerr for Embezzlement.

THE GRIND AND HUM OF THE COURTS

The argument in the appeal of the income bondholders of the Allegheny Valley Railroad for the sale of that road was taken up before Judge Acheson in the United States District Court yesterday afternoon.

Messrs. George Shiras, Jr., D. T. Watson and John G. Johnson, of Philadelphia, represented the income bondholders; Deputy Attorney General Sanderson, representing the Commonwealth; Samuel G. Thompson, Esq., R. O. Shiloh, Esq., W. J. Hayward, Esq., and Samuel Dickson, Esq., all of Philadelphia, representing the trustees of the Low Grade $100,000 mortgage; Judge J. A. Logan, of Philadelphia, and John H. Hampton, Esq., representing the Pennsylvania Railroad, were present.

Mr. Dickson opened the argument, and continued nearly two hours, but his contention of which was too technical to be distinctly understood except by those present and directly interested in the case. He argued that creditors by a prior mortgage take the sale shall not take place and their rights conserved.

CANNOT SACRIFICE THE INTEREST.

They asked the Court to regard the right of a creditor to maintain his debt until the time set for its maturity, which is the right of the law. Mr. Dickson held that there was no clause in the mortgage which gives the right to sacrifice the interest of the bondholders in the event of a foreclosure. He stated that the bondholders were protected by a mortgage by the State, and that the Court should not take place and their rights conserved.

A SALE SURE AS FATE.

Mr. Johnson did not pretend that the bonds were good, but that they must come in with the rest of the creditors. The sale was as inevitable as fate, and in asking the Chancellor to make a sale, the Chancellor takes into consideration not only the rights of a select few, but of everybody. He said that this property is depreciating in value and going into debt at the rate of nearly $1,000,000 a year. He stated that the bondholders were protected by a mortgage by the State, and that the Court should not take place and their rights conserved.

AMONG THE OLD OFFENDERS.

The Wheels of the Criminal Court Doing Business as Usual.

In the Criminal Court, yesterday William Croney was convicted of assault, being on P. J. Kennedy. He was sentenced one month to the workhouse.

Thomas Tearney convicted of assault and battery on his wife was also sent up for one month.

James Cunningham, of McKeesport, convicted of aggravated assault, was sentenced to the workhouse for five months.

Aurilia Collins and Frank Muller were convicted of selling liquor without license, and were sentenced to the workhouse for one month.

Charles Metcalf, convicted of larceny, was sentenced to the workhouse for three months.

Joseph Redick was convicted of assault and battery on his wife and sentenced three months to the workhouse.

Charles Metcalf, convicted of larceny, was sentenced to the workhouse for three months.

AGAINST YOUNG AND HOERR.

The Grand Jury Returns a True Bill Against Young and Hoerr.

The grand jury yesterday returned true bills against W. W. Young, President, and John Hoerr, cashier of the defunct Lawrence Bank, for embezzlement. The informations were made by Thomas Metcalf, the defunct bank's dealer, who stated that he made a deposit with the bank on the day the bank was closed.

Under the act of May, 1887, for the officer of a bank to receive money from a depositor, it is made to be a misdemeanor.

The other true bills returned were against Richard Coleman, Peter Dehr, James Jenkins, Philip Rosenthal, John and Margaret Turner, selling liquor without license; Adam Demont, selling liquor without license; William Grant, assault and battery on his wife; and Henry Kuz, larceny by bailor; and E. S. Newman, embezzlement.

The following bills were ignored: George Florey, James Jones, John Kramer, Sarah Kelly, Charles Schmidt, James Lamson, Alexander Mader, Henry Murray, Pat Murray, P. McGee, A. Rossi, Peter Sibel, selling liquor without license; James Murray, selling liquor without license; Peter Sibel, furnishing liquor to minors and keeping a gambling house; Dennis Carr, John Taylor, Margaret Taylor, James Taylor, Paulina Rose, Henry Thompson, Margaret Taylor, John Taylor, Ed. Wind, battery; Paulina Rosina, pointing fire arms.

ANOTHER SUIT FOR A LEASE.

Wesley Webber sues 117 acres of Oil Land in Forward Township.

Wesley Webber yesterday filed a bill in equity against S. M. Britton, and others. He stated that he leased from the defendants 117 acres of land in Forward township for oil and gas purposes. The lease was left with E. S. Stewart, Esq., to be acknowledged.

When he came to the court, Stewart advised the latter refused to give it to him, saying that the owners would not lease the property unless for more money. Wesley Webber said that he was compelled to give him the lease and be enjoined from leasing the land to anyone else.

To-Day's Trial Lists.

Criminal Court—Commonwealth vs Samuel Hutchinson, Buck Fagan et al, James McKee, John Butler, Dennis Carr, Rosa La Belle, John Dell et al, John Gardner, Elizabeth Murray, Joseph Goldstein, John Thompson et al, Philip Rosenthal, Ed. Wind, Edward Grant, George Kerson, W. D. Gallagher.

Six New Assignments.

The six applicants for admission to the bar who received their final examination this week were announced yesterday as successful. They were T. J. Lasser, E. B. Patterson, Frank M. Stines, G. Hartman, W. C. Chandel and George W. Flowers. They will be admitted to-day.

Kept Time on Attorney Haymaker.

At the noon recess of the grand jury yesterday Assistant District Attorney Haymaker was surprised by the gift of a handsome marble clock, presented to him by Foreman McLean on behalf of the grand jury. Haymaker replied with a neat and complimentary speech.

The Ham of the Courts.

The suit of Edmond Harris against N. Hoffman, an action on a lease is on trial before Judge White.

Mrs. Anna Schmitzki yesterday, filed her answer to the suit for divorce brought by her husband, Charles Schmitzki. She denied the charges.

The jury is out in the suit of the Philadelphia Company against Park, Hays, & Co., to recover the natural gas used in the defendants' mill for lighting.

The will of the late W. E. Logan was filed yesterday for probate. It derived his estate estate to his son, Charles E. Logan. Simon Drum was appointed executor.

In the suit of Mrs. Josephine Fisher against Charles H. Albany, for damages for alleged malpractice, a verdict was given yesterday for $400 for the plaintiff.

Jacob Bostner yesterday entered suit against Charles W. Hubbard, Sr. and Charles W. Hubbard, Jr., for damages for running over his 8-year-old daughter on August 30, 1887.

The jury is out in the suit of Robert L. Williams against the Ohio and Pennsylvania Coal and Coke Company, for damages for injury received by an explosion in a coal mine at Fort.

ROBERT MURRAY yesterday received a verdict for $800 in his suit against Marshall & Broderick, for damages for injury to his property, caused by water coming from the defendants' place.

The argument in the case of George Westinghouse and the Philadelphia Company against the Charters Natural Gas Company for an infringement, was concluded yesterday. The Court took papers and reserved its decision.

A HEART-BROKEN MOTHER

Asks the Judge to Return for Aid to Find a Demented Daughter.

A letter was received yesterday by Inspector McAllester from Mrs. Lucinda Kelley, of Penn Run, in which she asks information regarding a young woman named Lizzie Mitchell, and said to be feeble-minded, arrested here some few weeks ago. She said in the letter that the girl married a man named Reuben Divilbiss in November, but he abused her and she left him. Mrs. Kelley is heartbroken, because she has not seen her daughter since her marriage, and the only thing she has heard of her she read in a newspaper recently.

The local police records show that a girl answering the description and giving her name as Lizzie Mitchell was rescued from a gang of hoodlums on Liberty street Sunday evening, January 13, 1889.

She is in a private family at Ingram station next day, but she left there, went to Steubenville, secured work in a glass factory and on January 13, 1889, she was arrested here again, and on February 22 was picked up by Captain Merrick wandering around the streets in the East End.

The girl's mind was in bad state and she was in a delicate condition becoming manifest. She was kept in charge of the matron at the Pennsylvania State Prison for some time, but was without warrant in law. The London bondholders bought their bonds in 1872 when there was no main stem of the road, and the road was afterwards mortgaged. There is no authority in the State of Pennsylvania that would give them double the maturity two years after they had bought their bonds.

A SALE SURE AS FATE.

Mr. Johnson did not pretend that the bonds were good, but that they must come in with the rest of the creditors. The sale was as inevitable as fate, and in asking the Chancellor to make a sale, the Chancellor takes into consideration not only the rights of a select few, but of everybody.

HEARTFELT THANKS

Tendered by the Ladies' Society of the Allegheny General Hospital.

The recent entertainment given at Carnegie Hall, under the auspices of the Ladies' Society of the Allegheny General Hospital, for the benefit of the hospital fund, was successful beyond the hopes of the management. The society finds itself under no many, and such a variety of obligations in connection with the affair that it has decided to publicly return thanks in a general card.

The Equitable Society issues an exact reproduction, on a small scale, of one of its new free tonic pills. Aside from its use in showing the simplicity and liberality of the society's latest contract of insurance, this miniature policy is quite a curiosity, and an interesting example of the perfection to which the art of the engraver and printer has been carried. It is printed in red and black, and is complete in every respect, including a miniature of the exquisite engraved heading of the original policy, and facsimiles of the signatures of the president and secretary.

Any one who would like one of these little policies, will send one upon application to Edward A. Woods, Manager, 315 Market street, Pittsburg, Pa., and by sending your age, an illustration of the results of such a policy on the basis of your present age will also be sent.

At a meeting of the employees of the iron and brass foundries of the Westinghouse Air Brake Company, held March 11, 1890, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to take from our midst our friend and foreman, James M. Sleeth; and

Whereas, We, the employees of the iron and brass foundries of the Westinghouse Air Brake Company, do hereby deplore the loss we have sustained, be it therefore

Resolved, That in his death we have lost a kind and generous friend, a foreman who discharged his duties with faithfulness and impartial manner, and a man whose integrity was above reproach;

Resolved, That we tender to the family of the deceased our sincere sympathy in their hour of deep affliction;

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in the daily papers and a copy delivered to the family of the deceased.

THOMAS GOLDRICH, Chairman, W. MCKEHAHAN, Secretary.
