anager Hanlon Says That Law Cannot Reach Them.

HE HAS LEGAL ADVICE.

Players of the Old League Club Ready for Active Work.

THE SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

Manager Hadlon states that leading lawyers claim that contract jumpers cannot be legally held. The young players of the old local club are ready for work. An interesting amateur foot race arranged. A local sparring contest for points is being arranged.

Jake Beckley's latest jump, an account of which was given in yesterday's DISPATCH, is likely to cause a lively legal conflict. There are some very interesting features connected with this probability, as the following statement of Manager Hanlon will show. The writer asked Mr. Hanlon last evening what would be done if the old League club entered suit against Beckley. Mr. Hau-

"It will be useless for the old club directors to go into court against Beckley or anybody else. We have had the legal phase of this mat-ter thoroughly examined by no less authorities than Judges Bacon and Howland. Mr. Ward and myself sought the opinion of these eminent authorities regarding contract jumpers, and they told us that we could do nothing with

"I mentioned the case of Miller, who had received $100 from us and they advised me to take the money back if it was offered. From what another attorney says I don't think that the old club can legally force Beckley to return the $500 advanced. I will notify Secretary Scandrett to-morrow that he can have the $500 advanced to Beckley any time he desires it. Of course he may not accept of it, but he will be foolish if he refuses it.

"I have not accepted the $100 which Miller got from us, but according to lawyers it will do no good for me then. I am glad now that I did not accept the money when Secretary Scandrett wanted to return it. It will remain in his nosession now until the entire matter is settled. If the old club can do anything with Beckley we certainly can do the same to Miller; but as I have said Messrs, Bacon and Howland state that the law can do nothing in the matter.

CAUSED LOTS OF TROUBLE. "Certainly these contract jumpers have caused us lots of trouble. When we all started out I bet John Ward a hat that not one player the corresponding week in 1859: would desert, and I have been badly left. How ever, at the Cleveland meeting there were as plications from three more players who had lesus to return. Two of them offered money t get back. One officred $300 and the other $20 They were not taken back, however, and won ters, Manager Hanlon went on to say that Beckley would play first base and that Carrol will go behind the bat and in the field, "We will aways have our best batting team in, "said Mr. Hanlon, "Carroll will, therefore, play as most every day. I think we'll have as good a team as there is in the country."

The players of the old League club will com mence active operations this week. Manager Hecker will have them at Recreation Park and keep them at livel- exercise whenever the ther permits. He means to devote consider able attention to the young pitchers and prob able few men are better able to coach a young ster in the box than Sir Guv. He has an ex-cellent knowledge of pitching and he has an effective way of imparting that knowledge to others. If Beckley carries out his latest intion and plays with the new club, Manage Hecker will probably play at first base and is a good man at that position. Of course he regrets that Beckley does not mean to play with the old club. He said: "Beckley and those who have allured him from us cannot expect to suc-ceed with the respectable public by employing such very dishonorable and contemptible very dishonorable and contemptible ods. Such actions will ruin the nationa

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. CLEVELAND, March 16. - The Cleveland Players' League team will be the first club of the new organization to begin a suit against its deserting players. Yesterday Attorney I., A. Russell, legal agent of the Cleveland team, pre-pared papers asking from the Cuyahoga County prevent them from playing with the local League team.

Both men have been jumping forward and backward for some time, but are at the present time with the National League. The papers will be filed Monday, and the cases will be pushed to a speedy trial. Mr. Russell said to-night that if the two men signed Players' League contracts first they could be legally hold.

Miller's Strong Denini.

George Miller, the catcher of the local League club, desires to emphatically deny the statement published to the effect that he instatement published to the effect that he in-tends to rejoin the Brotherhood. He says: "I am with the National League to stay, and I have never made application for readmission to the Brotherhood, nor have I requested any-body to do so for me. I will not play with a Brotherhood club under any circumstances; in fact, I would prefer chicken stealing to playing with that organization."

Preparing for Duty.

There are now 13 players of the old local club in the city. They are located at the Central Hotel, and there are some fine looking young men among them. The players who have now reported for duty are: Baker, Jones, Schmitt, Berger, Wilson, Brauenburg, Mulhearn, Miller, Roat, Routeliffe, Hemp and Deibel.

SHEEDY'S ENTERPRISE.

Australia to send their crack 3-year-olds over to compete for this rich prize, and Mr. Sheedy, with commendable enterprise, offers to guar-actee the club from any 105° by reason of the orrease of added money, Much as we would wish to see the American Much as we would wish to see the American Derby grow in importance and increase in interest to racing men of every country, we are very doubtful if the proposed additions would be the means of securing foreign entries, for we have several enormous stakes now that have not as yet received patronage from either places mentioned. Americans and Australians will go to England to race, but Englishmen do not care to send their horses over here.—

have a treat in store for next Friday evening. On that date there will be a three hour foot race for members of the club. Two handsome medals will be offered as prizes. Doubtless the contest will be an exciting one, as there are some good pedestrians in the club.

Will Box for Points.

Arrangements have almost been complete for a six-round glove contest, for points, be-tween Mike Dugan and Paddy McBride. It is ntended to have the contest take place at Iomestead on Saturday evening. The contestants will fight at catch weight and Queens-

THE Squirrel Hill shoot takes place to-day. CROOKS, formerly second baseman, has been made captain of the Columbus team.

THE great question is: Does a law exist that deals with baseball transactions in any shape or form? BILLY SUNDAY, the evangelist, will prove a big card in Cincinnati. He will pull a large attendance of church-going people.

A LARGE number of Brotherhood supporters condemn the action of Beckley in living on the old club's money and then jumping.

SAM HYAMS, the popular local poolseller, is making arrangements to go to Wheeling for the season. He leaves for that city to-day two weeks.

HENRY HOGMIER, of Allegheny, was in New York, Saturday, and purchased at Kel-iogg's horse sale, Ben Tracy, a 4-year-old stallion with fine pedigree.

AN official of the old local club stated last evening that the Brotherhood people induced Beckley to return by offering him $3,800, the same figure that he was to receive from the League club.

THE Commercial Club Canvassing Commit-tee of the Indianapolis Club, reports sales of 165 season ball tickets, swelling the total num-ber to about 300. Additional sales are anticipated when Indianapolis is assured that she will remain in the League, but it is doubtful if they exceed 500. Dissatisfaction is found with the price, tickets being held this season at $35, when last season they commanded but $25. when last season they commanded but $25.

A WONDERFUL CAVERN.

Handreds of Feet Long and Abounding in Choice Minerals.

CARLISLE, March 16 .- A cave of minerals has been discovered about five and a half miles from Mechanicsburg, and on the farm of the Hon. H. G. Moser, now worked by Mr. Koller. The cave is 110 feet below the surface of the ground, and was discovered while quarrying for limestone, the opening being found by the men working in the quarry. The opening being reported to Captain C. E. Brindle, who is interested in geology and chemistry, immediate steps were taken to investigate it. They reached a distance of 283 feet from the entrance. Here they were compelled to stop on account of a rock, which they were unable to pass. They could see past the rock as far as the line of light would allow, and in this chamber they saw some of the finest formations they had ever beheld. They brought out some of the specimens, which they had been forced to break off in order to get through the openings into the different chambers that led off from the main passageway. A complete and careful survey of the locality indicates that for a distance of two and one-half miles there is what might be called a complete chain of hills running in the same direction as the passageway of the cave, and there is no doubt that the opening at the Lisburn end of the hill and the opening that the explorers propose working are connected. rying for limestone, the opening being found that the explorers propose working are con-

SPONGES GROWING SCARCE.

A Well-Known Druggist Gives a Cause for the Advancing Pricer. "Sponges are still going up," said F. H. Eggers, the Ohio street, Allegheny, druggist, as he showed a DISPATCH representative specimens of the different sorts. "The best come from the coasts along the Grecian archipelago, from the coasts along the Grecian archipelago, atthough some very good ones come from the Bermudas and Florida, but as a rule they cannot compare with those from the first named district. They are termed generally the Turkish sponge. They come to us in various shapes and sizes, and some run as high as $15 in value. "The cause of the advancing prices can be attributed to no other cause, in my opinion, but that they are gradually growing scarcer, the supply being unequal to the demand."

PHILADELPHIA, March 16.—While a number of patrons of Thomas Martindale's Turkish of patrons of Thomas Martindale's Turkish bath establishment, on Tenth street, below Filbert, were disporting themselves in the swimming pool on Friday night the box containing their valuables was broken open and robbed. The thief secured $215 in cash, one diamond ring valued at about $275, two gold watches and chains, one gold locket, one gold pencil and a gold dratt of a bank in Greenfield, O., on a New York bank for $20, and drawn payable to the order of J. S. Black.

When the robbery was discovered it was found that Edward Bronson, an employe of the place, had disappeared. The police are searching for him.

A GROWING EVIL. Other cases have been found where members have authorized claim agents to use their frank at will in calling up the claims ENTIRELY TOO NUMEROUS. The circular also advises him that during the last week in February, 1890, there were 4,906 calls received from members, and during the same period 20,609 were received from attorneys same period 20,600 were received from attorneys and claimants, making a total of 25,605 calls for the status of claims. To make proper reply to the Congressional calls alone would require the time of 160 examiners. The circular includes a copy of order 151, which tells claimants and attorneys what is necessary in order to have claims placed on the "completed files."

It also makes the statement that the bureau is now adjudicating more than 15,000 cases a month, and it is expected that the number will be largely increased as soon as Congress authorizes the employment of 30 additional surgeons asked for. Whether the members and Senators will be content with the explanation as set forth in the circular remains to be seen.

LIGHTNER,

Carlond Lots Must Not be Carried at a Much Lower Figure Than Smaller Quantities-A Decision of the

Inter-State Commission. WASHINGTON, March 16 .- The Inter-State Commission, in an opinion by Commissioner Schoonmaker, decides the cases brought against the trunk lines by F. B. Thurber and others, of New York City, known as the "carload cases," in favor of complainants. Complaint was made of too great differences in rates charged on carload and less than carload quantities. The cases excited widespread interest and more than 400 persons, firms and corporations doing business in various sections of the country filed memorials with the commission expressing their views for or against the relief sought for by the com-made in the Senate to-morrow by Senator Plumb, in accordance with his notice of last Wednesday, to displace the Blair educational bill with his land grant forfeiture bill. The vote on this proposition will, it is supposed, in-dicate the fate of the educational bill. If the motion to supersede it on the calendar by the forfeiture bill is successful the belief is that it will not again be heard of at this session of Congress. If the bill shall be further dis-cussed under the present order, it will not occupy all the time of the Senate until a vote is reached on Thursday afternoon, to the exclusion of other business, as but one or two more speeches are to be made on the measure, beside the summing up by Senator Blair, which is limited to one hour by the resolution of the Senate.

The subject of executive sessions will come up to-morrow for discussion under Mr. Call's notice to ask for the consideration of the Florida judicial nominations in open session. Mr. Dolph's committee is expected to make a report of the results of its investigation of the subject of executive session leaks sometime in the week. It is said that the committee is now considering the question of certifying one of the witnesses examined last week to the District Attorney for prosecution.

THOUSANDS OF SPECIAL CASES Retard the Regular Work of This Import-

THE PLANS OF THE WEEK IN CONGRESS.

The pension department has issued potice o Congressmen that the practice of making cases special has become a great evil. Commissioner Raum thinks that it is time to call a halt.

WASHINGTON, March 16 .- One of the great abuses the Pension Office now has o contend with is the importunity of members of Congress to have claims of constituents made special. Many of these claims are in the hands of pension attorneys doing business in the districts of Congressmen, and the requests are on this account Commissioner Raum and the officials of the Pension Bureau generally have tried to oblige Congressmen, but this courtesy has been abused to a degree as to greatly retard the business of the bureau. A number of cases have been brought to light where members have called for the condition of 100 claims at one time, in order to further the interests of some particular claim agent in his district.

On the one hand members are retarding the On the one hand members are retarding the work of the office, while on the other they are criticising the Commissioner and the workings of the bureau for not passing more claims. A circular has been now prepared, and will be used in future to answer many calls from members, particularly in claims that are being continually and repeatedly called up without furnishing the required evidence. The circular advises the member that there is not sufficient reason shown why the claim should be taken out of its turn for settlement, and that it is or against the relief sought for by the complainants.

Classification of freight for transportation purposes is in terms recognized by the act to regulate commerce and is therefore lawful. It is also a valuable convenience both to shippers and carriers. A classification of freight designating different classes for 'carload quantities for transportation at a lower rate in carloads than in less than carloads is not in contravention of the act to regulate commerce. Carriers are not at liberty to classify property as a basis of transportation rates, and impose charges for its carriage with exclusive regard to their own interests, but they must respect the interests of those who may have occasion to employ their services, and conform their charges to the rules of relative equality and justice which the act prescribes.

of relative equality and justice which the act prescribes.

Cost of service is an important element in fixing transportation charges and entitled to fair consideration, but it is not alone controlling or so applied in practice by carriers, and the value of the service to the property carried is an essential factor to be recognized in connection with other considerations. Under the official classification the articles known in trade as grocery articles are so classified as to discriminate unjustly in rates between carloads and less than carloads upon many articles, and and less than carloads upon many articles, and a revision of the classification and rates to cor-rect unjust differences and give these re-spective modes of shipment more relatively

THE PATE OF BLAIR'S BILL.

WASHINGTON, March 16.-The work of the Pan-American Conference has so far pro-gressed that adjournment is confidently expected within the next 30 days. With that in view, arrangements are making for the trip through the South, which will end the official hospitalities of the United States to the dele-gates. The trip will be arranged and carried out by the officers of the Richmond and Dan ville Railroad, as was the Northern and West ritie Raifoau, as was the Nothern and West-ern trip by the Pennsylvania Raifoad officials. Senor Mendonica, of Brazil, one of the com-mittee appointed to devise and report a plan for expressing the grateful appreciation by the visiting delegates of the courtesies and hospitality extended by the United States Government and the delegates from the United States, will submit to his colleagues to-morrow his ideas on the subject. He will propose that the delegates from Central and South America inaugurate a movement for the erection in the city of Washington, as a gift to the people of the United States, of a monument to commemorate the meeting of the first congress of all the nations on the Western Hemisphere.

WASHINGTON, March 16 .- It is the presen intention of the Committee on Elections to press the Maryland contested election case of Mudd against Compton to a conclusion during the week, and to follow that up with the Virgmia case of Bowen against Buchanan. The pension appropriation bill is ready for action, and will undoubtedly give rise to a spirited dis-cussion upon the subject of general pension

"EMPTY VESSELS

SOUND THE LOUDEST"

The above adage, which is as true as it is old, illustrates to a nicety the path pursued by certain notoriously high-price, small-fry furniture and carpet dealers. They go into ecstacies over imaginary bargains in trashy chamber suites, when KEECH sells scores of better suites every day at as low (if not lower) prices, without even as much as alluding to this fact in his advertisements.

Extremely silly, indeed, are the statements of many of these dealers. Some claim to carry the largest assortment, when you could put their stock into one corner of Keech's Mammoth Building. Others pretend to name the lowest prices, when Keech undersells them every hour in the day. Still others claim to do the largest business, when Keech actually sell more goods in a week than they sell in a month. But why go on-No comparisons are needed. Everybody knows that Keech's is the leading
